Dangerous Germ Spreaders

Every person afflicted with a cold becomes a germ spreader. An old health officer says he had rather be shot with a pistol than take a cough or sneeze in the face. To arrest an oncoming cold, absolutely stop coughing, take Foley's Honey and Tar Compound, a medically scientific, carefully compounded cough remedy, every ingredient of which is active and potent. No opiates, the ideal family medicine. Ask for it.—Adv.

I know a girl so modest,
(And really I'm not shocking)
A naked wire out in the street
She thinks is very shocking.

She was young and fair and pretty,
She's a girl I'll never forget.
We were in a pullman sleeper
When by accident we met.

Yes, I always shall remember well
The girl, the time, and place,
I was coming from the upper berth
And stepped upon her face.

The difference between the girl of today and the maid of yester year is the distinction between "swooning" and "passing out."

Farmer: "How'd you like to milk her a bit yerself, Johnny."

Johnny (on first visit to the country): "Oh, no! I surly wouldn't sir. I don't know which is the milk and which is the cream."

Our idea of an optimist is the fellow who doesn't order any meal sent up to the house on the day he goes fishing.

PAIN GOES OUT
When Tysmol Goes In

No matter whether your trouble is called rheumatism, sciatica, neuralgia or neuritis, you can get prompt relief by applying Tysmol to the part that hurts and letting it soak in through the pores. Tysmol is a penetrating, healing liniment prepared especially for all forms of pain, soreness and stiffness caused by muscle cramps, etc. Usually good for relief the very first application, acting quick. Delightfully soothing. Contains no harmful drugs or opiates. Different from anything you ever used. Sold by leading druggists everywhere.

Always on hand at Gloss Drug Co.

A Presentation No Fashion-Alert Woman Should Overlook!

$24.75 and $39.75

In preparation for October, the coat-month of the year, J. C. Penney Company has assembled together one of the most notable collections in the history of this Home of Fashion-Values. It is an offering as important to the woman who demands what is high in the world of style, as to her who must seek the utmost in value.

FURRED richly and in ingenious, new ways. The smart pelts of the season in the favored tones.

SMOOTH fabrics predominate—lustrous broadcloths, twilled broadcloths, and suedes.

SELF-INSERTS, tuckings, seamings, or panels furnish the decorative touch typical of 1928.

IN BLACK, tan, and other leading shades.
