"HOOVER MARKET" SENDS STOCKS UP

Bullish Enthusiasm Results in Heavy Wave of Trading, High Prices

NEW YORK, Nov. 7 (AP)—Wall Street adopted today what will henceforth be known as the "Hoover Market", with a tremendous outburst of buying which carried scores of issues to $2 to $10 a share, more than a dozen of them to the highest prices ever recorded.

Although Wall Street election odds were 10a to one on Hoover when the campaign closed, the removal of all uncertainty as to the outcome released a flood of pent up bullish enthusiasm which overshadow all the spirited markets in recent months. Blocks of 5,000 to 20,000 shares changed hands at frequent intervals.

The stock ticker, manned by relays of operators working at top speed, failed in frantically to keep pace with the large volume of trading. By the end of the first hour it was twenty minutes behind.

Vote Fraud Case In Columbus, Ohio

COLUMBUS, O., Nov. 7 (AP)—Investigation of alleged vote buying in Pike county was being made last night by deputies for Secretary of State Clarence J. Brown. Reports to Brown said from $5 to $10 had been paid for votes.

Officers were sent to the county yesterday by Brown following investigations of alleged fraud in casting absent voters' ballots.

Wheat Unsettled And Lower Today

CHICAGO, Nov. 7 (AP)—Opening of the decline to ⅞c lower on wheat values soon underwent a material setback all around. Corn, oats and provisions were firm, with corn starting unchanged to ⅛c higher and subsequently holding near to the initial range.

Wheat closed unsettled 1⅞@1⅞ to 2⅞ net lower; corn at ¼ to ⅝ advance; oats ⅛ to ⅛c off and provisions varying from 7c unstuck to a rise of 10c.

Eggs Higher On Oregon Markets; Butter Steady

PORTLAND, Ore., Nov. 7 (AP)—Eggs were higher on local wholesale markets today reflecting advances of a cent in standard extras and medium firsts and a 2 cent rise in medium extras. Butter values were steady with the exception of cube standards which advanced at the exchange around ½ full cent to 48c.

Produce markets were active in the early hours and all lines of produce seemed to be moving well.

Country dressed meats and poultry were light while holdings of veal and lamb were liberal and the market dragging.

SMITH FAILS TO CARRY HIS HOME STATE

NEW YORK, Nov. 7 (AP)—Herbert Hoover carried the home state of Gov. Alfred E. Smith and won it the elek price of 47 votes in the electoral college in yesterday's election.

With only 343 districts missing at 12:25 a. m. today, Hoover's majority was 62,000 and there was every indication that it would mount much higher, because the missing districts are normally overwhelmingly republican.

Election of Franklin D. Roosevelt, democrat, over Attorney General Albert Ottinger, republican, for governor was indicated. United States Senator Royal S. Copeland, democrat, running for re-election, apparently defeated Alanson B. Houghton, republican, former ambassador to Great Britain.

G. O. P. GAIN MADE IN SENATE SEATS

Working Majority in House Assured—Hold on Congress Tightens

By Raymond E. Heath
(Associated Press Staff Writer)

One seat in the senate had been definitely won by the republicans and four of their number had been re-elected early today in the drive of the party to tighten its hold on that branch of congress.

Returns from the election of house members were still meagre and showed slight gains for the republicans, who now have a working majority in the house.

The democratic senate seat came in the election of John G. Townsend, a republican, to take over from Senator Thomas F. Bayard, who has served one term. The four republican senators re-elected were Reed of Pennsylvania, Johnson of California, Greene of Vermont and LaFollette of Wisconsin.

On the face of returns not two democrats so far were assured of re-election to the senate. They were Stephens of Mississippi and Swanson of Virginia, neither of whom had opposition. Nineteen seats of the democratic minority seeking reelection were ahead. They were King of Utah, Copeland of New York, Pittman of Nevada, Trammell of Florida, Walsh of Massachusetts, Wheeler of Montana and Bruce of Maryland.

Butler Ahead In Umatilla County

UMATILLA, Ore., Nov. 7 (AP)—Herbert Hoover received 912 votes in Umatilla county and Smith 342.

D. H. Butler republican candidate for congressman from the second district led his nearest opponent, Walter M. Pierce, 3,4[illegible] to 34[illegible].

PORTLAND FOR FRANCHISE

PORTLAND, Ore., Nov. 7 (AP)—The proposed telephone franchise for the city of Portland, providing among other things of better service to the east side in return for leasing by nearly three [illegible] was in the face of overwhelming returns last night.
