CHICAGO GRAIN

CHICAGO, May 22.—(AP).—Decidedly higher prices for wheat resulted today from apparent likelihood of crop injury northwest because of unusual heat and persistent lack of rain. Besides, European crop reports were of an adverse character and the Argentine strike seemed to be more threatening.

Closing quotations on wheat were unsettled, 1¼c to 2¼c net higher, with corn ¼c to ⅝c advance.

Boston Conforms

BOSTON—The modern meaning of "park" is at last accepted here. The police department signs for years warned motorists or restrictions on "standing" vehicles on the streets. The new signs use "park" instead of "stand."

NOTICE OF INTENTION TO IMPROVE RURAL AVENUE FROM THE EAST LINE OF HIGH STREET TO THE EAST LINE OF YEW STREET.

Notice is hereby given that the Common Council of the City of Salem, Oregon, deems it necessary and expedient and hereby declares its purpose and intention to improve Rural Avenue from the east line of High Street to the east line of Yew Street, in the City of Salem, Oregon, at the expense of the abutting and adjacent property, except the street and alley intersections, the expense of which will be assumed by the City of Salem, Oregon, by bringing said portion of said street to the established grade, constructing Portland cement concrete curbs and paving said portion of said street with a six-inch Portland cement concrete pavement, thirty feet in width, in accordance with the plans and specifications for said improvement which were adopted by the Common Council on April 16, 1928, now on file in the office of the City Recorder, and which are hereby referred to and made a part hereof.

The Common Council hereby declares its purpose and intention to make the above described improvement by and through the Street Improvement Department of the City of Salem, Oregon.

By order of the Common Council April 16, 1928.
