FANS PREPARING FOR SNAPPY TILT

Tuffy Wing and Curley Johnson Fight Tomorrow; Semi-final Good

With most of the fighters already in La Grande and with both Curley Johnson, of Boise and Tuffy Wing, of Portland, scheduled to work out at the Jefferson avenue arena this afternoon between 2 and 5 o'clock local fans are trying to figure out who has the best chances of winning. At present with both Johnson and Wing looking good on paper the disputers are just a bit perplexed although some are inclined to favor Wing because of his long experience in the squared circle.

The card which is made up of five bouts, will be held tomorrow night, beginning at 8:15 o'clock.

Johnson, who is hailed as an aggressive, two-fisted fighter of the type that is hard to stop, has met and conquered such men as Dolorel Hendon, Harvey Sandeman, Peter and Kid Walker. His last fight was in Yakima when he battled to a draw with Roy Sutherland.

Wing, on the other hand, has met a large number of first raters in recent years, and is well versed in the ways of the ring.

Snappy Semi-Final

Many local fans are expecting Kid Alabama, of La Grande, and Bud Woodin, of Baker, who meet in the semi-final, to just about steal the show. Kid Alabama has gained quite a following here in recent months and Woodin's prowess is also well known.

Three four - round preliminary matches will start off the card as follows: Farmer Vernon vs. Buck Anderson, (144 pounds); Elmer Worden vs. Vernon Coleman (122 pounds), and Orval Anderson vs. Leroy Edmonds (118 pounds).

Vernon will be remembered here as the fighter who nearly had Kid Alabama down and out in the first two rounds of a preliminary here that eventually resulted in a victory for the Kid.

CURLEY JOHNSON, BOISE BATTLER

Here is a picture of Curley Johnson, hard-hitting pugilist from Boise, Idaho, who will pit his rugged attack against Tuffy Wing in the main event of tomorrow night's 28-round boxing card in the Jefferson avenue arena. Johnson has fought numerous good boys and his style of fighting, up and coming all the time, is expected to make him a favorite with local fans, whether he wins or loses. Tuffy Wing is a mixer himself and plenty of entertainment is expected.

Oregon Staters Preparing For New York Game

CORVALLIS Ore., Nov. 19 (AP)—With its conference season completed ahead of all other members of the circuit, Oregon State grid squad began today a final four-day preparation for a trip to the east coast where the Beavers meet the powerful New York university in a Thanksgiving day battle.

Coach Schissler let members rest today but put all reserves through a scrimmage session.

Twitchell, halfback, injured in the Oregon game Saturday, had a bad knee thrown out again and will be unable to make the trip east as planned. The only injuries were coarse horses for Metten and Maple and are not expected to handicap them for the coming intersectional game.

Maple, Beaver quarter, left today for Peoria, Ill., ahead of his team mates, to attend the funeral of his father who was killed in an accident a few days prior to the Oregon game.

CALIFORNIA WINS TO MAINTAIN TIE

Bears and Trojans Deadlocked for High Honors; Stanford May Decide

By Russell J. Newland
(Associated Press Sports Writer)

SAN FRANCISCO, Nov. 19 (AP)—The big game that season of ancient football hostilities between California and Stanford, which forms an annual climax for all the frenzied fans to group together into one, has taken on the added uncertainty of determining whether California is to be at least a co-sharer of the 1928 coast conference championship.

In a tie with Southern California's Trojans, a team they held on even terms five weeks ago, the Bears face Dixie Stanford rivals next Saturday at Berkeley with the best chances of scoring a victory since 1922.

A California eleven vanquished Stanford, 9-0, five years ago. In 1924 the teams played to a tie and California has been on the losing end since. This year, the Bears have not had a touchdown scored against them by a college eleven, and only one field goal, whereas Stanford has been twice for Southern California.

Stanford Out for Blood

The Trojan victory over Stanford, however, in no way means that California will have a gallop next week-end. Potentially, Stanford has one of the strongest teams in the country and long handling of the ball, accurately throwing its intricate "T" formation out of gear, has caused the big red squad its back bad.

While the Bears are struggling with their old time enemy, Southern California will be winding up its conference program in a game with Idaho. With only an ordinary season behind them, the Vandals chances of defeating Southern California are so slight that the possibility has not even been considered.

Oregon Wins 12-9

All four of the above mentioned teams won their contests last Saturday. Southern California pushed Washington State out of the running by a 27-13 score. Stanford downed Washington 14-0 and Idaho and Montana down the line, 21-6. California won the non-conference affair with Nevada, 46-0. Oregon downed Oregon State, 12-9 last weekend and next Saturday takes on Montana, in what should be a walkaway as the Grizzlies have lost four and won none this year.

Conference standings:

	W.	L.	T.	Pct.
California	3	0	1	1.000
Southern California	3	0	1	1.000
Stanford	4	1	0	.800
Washington State	4	2	0	.667
Oregon	2	2	0	.500
Idaho	2	2	0	.500
Oregon State	2	2	0	.500
Washington	1	4	0	.200
C. C. I. A.	0	3	2	.000
Montana	0	4	0	.000

Officer Killed, Bandit Fatally Hurt in Battle

BALTIMORE, Nov. 19 (AP)—Opening fire after he had been arrested and gone peacefully to police headquarters, Henry Peterson, 24, wanted in New York for the shooting of a policeman, early this morning shot and killed Detective Sergeant Joseph Carroll, wounded Sergeants Fred Carroll and Elmer O'Grady and was wounded probably totally by the officers return fire.

The shooting took place in the very doors of police headquarters after Peterson had submitted to arrest by Fred Carroll who had found him in his room at a lodging house.

At the Mercy hospital Joseph H. Carroll died a few minutes after having been placed on an operating table. Peterson had seven wounds, and physicians said that there was little chance for his recovery. Neither Fred nor O'Grady was seriously hurt.

NEW YORK, Nov. 19 (AP)—Henry Peterson, who was critically wounded in a pistol fight with three Baltimore detectives, is wanted by Brooklyn police on a charge of shooting Patrolman George B. Wilson, of Brooklyn, after the robbery of a grocery store last Tuesday night.

WHEN YALE SAW TOO MUCH "RED" CAGLE

If Christian Keener Cagle has many more football exhibitions in his system like the one he gave against Yale recently, there won't be any keeping him off the All-American squad. Mr. Cagle was an All-American back last year and this action scene of the Yale-Army game shows he seems to gain that honor again. Cagle is shown here, indicated by the arrow, as he tore some giant around the Yale defense. This run was for 41 yards and touchdown. He made another tour in the game for 19 yards and touchdown. Now how Cagle has punishment his field.
