Prevent Flu—Check Colds Immediately

Families in La Grande Urged to Be Careful

While grip and influenza are so prevalent, local people are urged to use this modern way of checking little colds before they become big:

Have a jar of Vicks Vapo Rub on hand ready for instant use at the first sign of every cold. When rubbed on throat and chest, or snuffed up the nose, Vicks releases its ingredients, in the form of medicated vapors which are breathed in direct to the infected parts.

In addition, Vicks acts through the skin like a poultice, "drawing out" all tightness and pain, loosening the phlegm, clearing the head, and easing the difficult breathing.

To prevent colds from lowering vitality and thus paving the way for flu and pneumonia, they should be treated direct and instantly—as you would an infected finger. —Adv.

A man was convicted for stealing a horse.

"Yours is a very serious offense," the judge said to him, very sternly.

"Well," remarked the prisoner, "in fifty years' time it mayn't be a crime at all."

AT THE THEATERS

"Broadway Daddies" Now At the Arcade

"The Bright Lights" of Broadway with all their scintillating and dazzling splendor have been caught by the eye of the camera and immortalized as a part of Columbia's "Broadway Daddies," which will be shown at the Arcade theater today. Not only are the night sequences works of photographic beauty, but there are also some exceptionally fine "shots" of New York by daylight.

Columbia has spared neither time nor expense to make "Broadway Daddies" a graphic portrayal of life along the Gay White Way. It is a drama of the idle rich at play and reveals the secrets of their night clubs, cabarets, business deals and home lives.

The story has been cleverly arranged for film purposes and the plot development provides many spectacular scenes, thrilling sequences and romantic situations.

Jacqueline Logan, Alec B. Francis and Rex Lease are featured in the production. Miss Logan has the role of a dancing girl in a famous night club, who scorns the attentions of wealthy "daddies" for the love of a poor, but ambitious youth. The young man, who poses as a poor boy to test the love of the girl, is portrayed by Rex Lease. Alec B. Francis is cast as the boy's father. Phillips Smalley gives an exceptionally fine delineation of a "daddy."

Jack Holt is one of the few western citizens who does not mourn the passing of the "the old days, the good old days, the days of the Golden West."

Holt, having portrayed the hero roles in a score of Zane Grey's dramas as filmed by Paramount, has come closer to the West than most persons. In addition he has ranched, ridden range and prospected and knows that part of the world intimately.

"There is no reason to weep over the passing of the western frontier," he declares. "There will always be outposts of civilization, new places to explore and settle. No one yet has lived to tell the world about the country at the headwaters of the Amazon. There are still waste places in the far north and in the far south upon which no man has set foot.

"And when we're through with this earth, perhaps there will be airplanes to carry us to others.

"Furthermore, I know of scores of spots in Wyoming, Arizona, Utah and other states that are a long way from home, places where white men are still curiosities, despite the radio, the airplane and television."

Holt's newest screen role is that of a gambler, "Honest Jack" Dunton, in "Avalanche," which the Star theater will show for three days, starting Thursday. Baclanova and Doris Hill are the other featured players.

FIGHTING FOR LIFE

CINCINNATI, Dec. 26 (AP)—Still in too critical a condition to withstand an operation for removal of a toy motorcycle lodged in his throat, Frank Brooks, 18 months old Asco, W. Va., child, continued his fight for life in a hospital here today.

Physicians watched his condition closely, planning to operate whenever he shows any sign of becoming stronger.

The little fellow swallowed the toy ten days ago when eating a package of popcorn. All attempts to remove the toy without operating have been futile.

Goitre Not a Disease

Milwaukee Doctor Makes Remarkable Discovery

MILWAUKEE, Wisc. — It has been brought to light by scientific research that goitre is not a disease and is not to be treated as such. Dr. A. A. Rock, Dept. E-25, Box 737, Milwaukee, Wisc., a prominent goitre specialist for over 24 years, has perfected a different method of treatment for his patients that has proved remarkably successful. This same method is now being used for a home treatment of goitre cases all over the country with astonishing results. The Doctor states that goitre is a condition which grows worse with neglect and recommends immediate attention no matter how small the growth may appear. He strongly opposes needless operations. Dr. Rock is the author of a book that tells in a simple way about treating goitre at home. He has published this book at his own expense and will send a copy free to anyone interested. Write him today. —Adv.
