What puzzles us most about the Venus de Milo is how her clothes stayed up, even as far up as they did, without any shoulder straps.—Ohio State Journal. But you've no idea how easy marble clothes are to keep up.

TWO GRADES OF EGGS IN SLUMP

Fresh Medium Extras and Fresh Medium Firsts Down Two Cents

PORTLAND, Ore., Jan. 9 (AP)—Fresh medium extras and fresh medium firsts eggs were two cents lower today, the only changes in the dairy market.

Red Snapper and Columbia River smelt, both of good quality and in quantity, with moderate prices prevailing, were offered on the market.

The smelt appear larger than the average run and sell mostly two pounds for 25 cents. Snapper, whole or in half, brings 18 to 20 cents. Sliced it is somewhat higher. A half fish runs between two and three pounds.

In the vegetable line, onions were reported scarce at $4.25 to $4.50. This was quite an advance over the old price of $3.75 to $4.00. One dealer estimates there were not more than 10 carloads of Sherwood and Lake La Bische onions left in the district.

Cauliflower was down to $1.50 from $1.50.

The larger oranges were unchanged. Smaller sizes were cheaper. The Japanese variety was about cleaned out. Fairly good Jumbles sell for $2.50 a box.

California celery root was selling for $1.25.

Artichokes, green peas, beans, spinach and Mexican tomatoes were arriving in good quantities.

Stock Exchange More Cheerful; Closing Strong

NEW YORK, Jan. 9 (AP)—The stock market, which had been on the down-grade since the latter part of last week turned upward today in reflection of the more cheerful feeling in Wall Street regarding the credit situation. Fears of an immediate increase in the federal reserve discount rate have practically disappeared, and the call money rate dropped from 7 to 6 per cent today on the arrival of a large supply of out-of-town funds seeking temporary investment.

Rushing up of General Motors old stock on its last day of trading to 204⅝, a rise of nearly ten points, stampeded the shorts in some of the speculative issues and a number of favorites exceeded their previous best figures of the day. Investment rails were bid up. Canadian Pacific 4 and Southern Railways 6½ points. Beacon Oil fell back 4 points on announcement of change in control. The closing was strong. Sales approximated 4,000,000 shares.

Wheat More Than Cent Higher Today

CHICAGO, Jan. 9 (AP)—Opening ⅛@¼ to ½ higher, corn afterwards scored a sharp further advance. Wheat, oats and provisions also were firmer, with wheat starting ⅛@¼ to ½ up, and subsequently holding near to the initial range.
