Wild Bill Sets World Mark For Tourney Scores

EL PASO, Tex., Jan. 21 (AP)—"Wild Bill" Mulligan, famous golf tourney golf tourney the world's record in the El Paso $5,000 open which finishing in what a score of 277 under par for a total of 270 in the four rounds on the difficult El Paso country club course.

Although "Wild Bill" caught close competition a world's tournament record, he was only a little better. For the gallery's small talent made little difference to him for he probably wouldn't take a million dollars for the score he hung up here.

Here's how Bill did it:

Beginning the first further turned in a score of 67 in the first 18 holes and for 36 holes Sunday with a 136 made the 270 total, or 27 under par. For the 36 hole tournament, or 72 holes, a 266.

On the last other holes preceding afternoon he came par received a bad throwing when "Wild Bill" made a 71. This strokes under par. He accomplished this feat by sinking one putts with a long putt, long further and shooting two putts to par.

Before congratulating other winning a successful start on the first nine holes of the second round, where he made four birdies and a eagle, a deuce. He was 2 under par for the nine holes with three birdies.
