EORT to hold silent movie fundraiser

The Eastern Oregon Regional Theatre will be holding a Silent Movie Fundraiser at the Iron Gate Theatre in Baker City on April 8th. Local pianist Keith Taylor will accompany the classic W.C. Fields silent movie – “It’s the Old Army Game.”

“This is an all new scoring of this movie,” said Taylor. He’s composed scores for 15 silent movies, including “The Gold Rush,” starring Charlie Chaplain, one of Taylor’s favorites. He said it takes about a year to compose a score for a movie.

According to Eastern Oregon Regional Theatre

President Kelly Brickman, Taylor graciously volunteered to present this movie in order to raise funds for the operating costs of the Iron Gate Theatre. There will be two showings of the movie – one at 3 p.m. and one at 7 p.m. Tickets for the event will be available at the door. The cost is $10 for all seats.

“Every year the cost to put on a play rises and we would like to continue to provide affordable live theatre in Baker City,” said Brickman. “We would rather not raise ticket prices. In order to do that, we must do fundraising events such as this. We also apply for grants, seek local sponsors for our musical productions, accept advertisers in our programs, and rent out our theatre for meetings and visiting performers.”

The movie will be held at the Iron Gate Theatre, upstairs in the Basche Sage Mall. The theatre has 45 seats which includes two wheelchair spaces. There will be an elevator operator to take those patrons who do not wish to climb the stairs up to the theatre. There will also be refreshments for sale as well as music CDs and silent movie DVDs by Taylor.

Living Well workshop to start April 12

Community Connection of Northeast Oregon, Inc., in partnership with Northeast Oregon Network, is excited to host another Living Well - Chronic Disease Self-Management Program workshop series in Baker City.

This six-week Living Well workshop is geared toward helping individuals learn how to lead a better life while managing their chronic diseases, such as diabetes, high blood pressure, arthritis, depression.

Classes start April 12 from 1:30 – 4:00 p.m. at the Baker County Senior Center and are held each Wednesday until May 17. Some of the tools you will learn to better manage your chronic disease are: problem solving, action planning, better communication, health eating, and managing difficult emotions.

Register today by contacting Maegan or Rochelle of CCNO at (541) 963-3186, or Holly of NEON (541) 624-5101 ext. 6.

Snake River Correctional Facility reports death

An Oregon Department of Corrections (DOC) inmate died unexpectedly the Saturday morning before last of apparent natural causes at Snake River Correctional Institution.

As with all unanticipated deaths in state prisons, the Oregon State Police Criminal Investigation Division is conducting an investigation.

At approximately 8:20 p.m., Saturday, March 25, 2017, Joseph Roden, 70, was found unresponsive in the shower.

Medical staff began life-saving efforts to no avail.

He was pronounced deceased at 9:00 p.m.

Roden entered DOC custody on January 8, 2014, on two counts of assault in the first degree and one count of assault in the second degree out of Josephine County.

His earliest release date was January 15, 2025.

Next of kin has been notified. No other details are available at this time.
