Men's Night Enjoyed At Wallace Road

WALLACE ROAD—Men's night at Willamette Lodge country club was amusing for young and old. The women were attired in old dresses and came as cripples, some on crutches with bandaged feet and arms in slings; one with black eye, taped head. The men wore overalls. Ernest Peterson and Dr. C. L. Blodgett were committee on arrangements. Nine tables of bridge were in play, Mrs. Charles Ramp and Mrs. Ed Pratt receiving the prizes. Mr. and Mrs. O. D. Adams pleased with piano duets and Mr. Adams played for group singing.

Aurora Women Entertain Guests

AURORA—The Aurora Woman's club met Wednesday at the home of Mrs. L. G. Giesy, with Mrs. W. C. Grim assisting hostess. Four guests were present, Mrs. George M. Williams of Centralia, Wash., Mrs. Frank Lofton, Mrs. George Francis and Mrs. M. Lee, all of Portland.

News Behind Today's News

By PAUL MALLON

reached the stage of discussion among house labor authorities. Next step will be introduction of a bill by some new deal congressman. Considerable headway is being made in the house by the argument that it removes congress from the labor spot for the election with the fewest possible scars.

Miss Perkins must have been reading the editorial pages of some of the press in the country containing the suggestion that her resignation might aid the cause of AFL-CIO peace.

The sincere and serious minded lady of the cabinet was discussing the muddled condition of labor, the continuous strife, and obstacles in the path of peace. Turning suddenly to her hearer, she asked:

"Do you think I should resign?"

After the visitor picked himself up off the floor, and hemmed his way cautiously toward an answer, he responded that a good deal depended on who might be chosen as her successor.

Few labor authorities here consider Miss Perkins' presence as a detriment to labor peace or a cause of the resulting labor situation. Expressions are heard frequently among insiders that if a stronger hand had been laid upon the situation earlier, it would be either better or worse by now, but no one knows which.

A stronger hand is being laid quietly upon the situation right now.

Mr. Roosevelt himself talked with AFL President William Green, this week and one of those around the corner White House invitations to call reached the ears of CIO's John Lewis either just before or shortly after Green's visit.

Chances of breaking the stalemate are now no better than before.

RED EARTH

rays glinted on bridles and the buckles of men's chaps.

In silence the two watched the cloud rising and billowing skyward, and even while they watched it the vangard had reached the crossroads—the band was traveling fast.

"They didn't lose much time," Record voiced the thought in both their minds. "And their next stopping place is Miracle Mesa. I'd say offhand you and your boys got action a trifle before you expected."

Instantly Douglas raised his reins. "Let's get going," he said, and at a sharp lope led the way down the trail and out over the desert.

Hubbard Women Discuss Operas

HUBBARD—Operas were discussed at the Hubbard Woman's club on Wednesday afternoon at the home of Mrs. Henry Pardy. Mrs. Blanch Brown led the discussion.

Mrs. Opal Burkey sang two numbers accompanied by Mrs. Elizabeth Norton. A piano solo was given by Mrs. A. Dillar of Aurora. Co-hostess with Mrs. Pardy was Mrs. Amanda Grim.

The next meeting will be a Valentine cake party to be held at the Knights of Pythias hall February 7.

Mehama Man Recovering From Operation

MEHAMA—Charles Crook, who underwent a major operation in the Salem Deaconess hospital two weeks ago, is home again and feeling quite well.

Mr. and Mrs. Y. S. Berry and family have moved into a new home just west of Mehama. They have bought property and built a nice home there.

Nephew Is Drowned

MACLEAY — Edward Tooker received word Wednesday of the death of his nephew, Ronald, son of Mr. and Mrs. Floyd Tooker of Redwood City, Calif. The 3-year-old boy fell into a well, and although his 7-year-old brother, Ray, tried to rescue him, he was drowned.

A big Democratic Laugh

President Roosevelt

What's the joke, Mr. President? Must be on the Republicans, judging from the enjoyment you're getting out of it. The camera study of the happy Mr. Roosevelt was taken at that recent Jackson Day dinner in Washington but only now published for the first time.

Socialites Fight Court Suit

Mr. and Mrs. Bob Topping

Camera catches Henry J. (Bob) Topping, Jr., millionaire sportsman, and his wife, the former Gloria Baker, an heiress in her own right, as they arrived at Federal court in New York where Topping fought a suit for $5,235 brought by a private detective who alleged it cost him $235 to obtain divorce evidence against Jayne Shadduck, Bob's first wife. The $5,000, the detective, Harold Mayhew, claimed, was a bonus promised by Topping.
