TRADE MARK REG.

By Junius

Henry J. Steen, 10, a page in the Texas legislature knows how to get what he wants, and gets it.

Wearing a collar too large because he had trouble to find one small enough, but with the mien of a future statesman the lad applied for the position of page in the legislature. A house committee told him he was too small, that his legs were not long enough.

"Gentlemen," he replied with zest, "what this legislature needs is brains, not legs."

He immediately got the job.

He rushed breathlessly into Neighbor Brown's apartment. "Brown," he panted, "your wife just eloped with the saxaphone player who lives next door." Pause. "You don't seem excited."

"No, there's no reason to be. We stood the saxaphone groanings as long as we could. This morning the wife and I tossed to see who should get rid of him. She lost."

Needed Sympathy

"I hear your girl got married the other day."

"Yeah."

"Tough luck."

"Yeah."

"Whom did she marry?"

"Me."

"What is your last wish?" asked the prison chaplain of the man who was to be electrocuted the next day.

"I only wish that the warden forgets to pay his electricity bill," answered the condemned man.

The Far-Back Farmer

And now the time has come again
To leave the tools out in the rain,
The plow, the cultivator, hoe;
We'll let them stand while off we go
To town to swap old-fashioned yarns
And never give them good goshdarns,
Nor think about them e'er again
Until there comes another rain.

Sophistication

A careful examination of several explanations of the meaning of sophistication lead to the conclusion that if you don't know much and pretend you do, you are sophisticated.—Rochester Democrat and Chronicle.

SKAGGS SAFEWAY STORES

Distribution Without Waste

The Safeway Man is different

--and so are Safeway Stores. Compare the wide-awake, courteous and efficient Safeway Man to the old-time "grocery clerk," or the often ill-kept "corner grocery" to the clean, attractive and thoroughly modern Safeway Food Shop! There just isn't any comparison--is there? That's one of the nice things about Safeway Stores--you can always depend upon them to be at least a jump or two ahead of the "other fellow"--out in the lead--setting the pace--in quality, service and value-giving.
