Sunday School Class Of Cove In Picnic Here

By Mrs. A. G. Conklin

COVE (Special)—The Methodist Episcopal Sunday school annual picnic drew a large crowd to Riverside park where the picnic was held Thursday. They arrived at the park about eleven o'clock. A bountiful picnic lunch was served at noon and the afternoon was spent in various contests. A shower of rain fell just after dinner, sending everyone to shelter but it did not last long enough to mar the afternoon. Those attending were Mr. and Mrs. A. A. Antles and family, Mr. and Mrs. T. R. Conklin, Mr. and Mrs. Roy Baker and family, Mr and Mrs A. E. Hartley and family, Mr. and Mrs. L. J. Chadwick and family, Mr. and Mrs. George McIlammiel, Mr. and Mrs. Harlan Koger and family, Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Towle and family, Mrs. Leonard Towle and family, the Rev. and Mrs. T. F. Graham and family, Mrs. E. F. Conley and daughters, Vina and Maxine, Mrs. Lydia M. Lantz, L. G. Lantz, Mrs. John Dean and daughter, Barbara, Miss Marian Guss, Jack Paige, Eva Jane Allen, Lewis and Arnold Hallmark and Milton Harris.

The Ladies' Guild had a very delightful party in the Ascension Grove Thursday afternoon. Following the business meeting bridge was played at three tables. Mrs. T. C. Hetty won high score and the guest prize went to Mrs. Sturges. Mrs. L. E. Anderson, Mrs. Royal Copley, Mrs. A. G. Conklin, Mrs. K. I. Barker, Mrs. J. R. Kember, Mrs. T. C. Hetty, Mrs. L. M. Laird, Mrs. John Miller, Mrs. J. E. Mills, Miss Dorothy Mills, Mrs. Louis Pierce, Miss Lucy Ransome and Mrs. P. F. Sturges were those present.

The Ladies's Guild of the Woman's club will sponsor a farewell party Saturday evening in honor of the Rev. and Mrs. P. F. Sturges who are leaving Monday for Bend and Mr. and Mrs. J. R. Price who are leaving Wednesday for Crane.

The Fun and Joy Bridge club will entertain informally at the Ascension Grove Saturday afternoon honoring Mrs. Sturges.

The boys and girls of the 4-H clubs attended their annual picnic at Union at the experiment station Friday.

Among the high school graduates who will attend the various colleges this fall are Mac Rose who will go to Benson Polytechnic in Portland, Edward Bloom to the University of Oregon, Esther Anderson to the Wyoming stat school of nursing at Rock Springs, Robert Coad who is a graduate of a year ago will go to the University of Oregon, Miss Dorothy Mills, also a graduate of '28 will attend Whitman college.

Mrs. G. E. Barker returned home Thursday from St. Elizabeth's hospital in Baker where she went for an operation a few weeks ago. She is not yet fully recovered but was able to make the trip home. Miss Lois Martin who has been spending the summer in California returned home a few days ago after having spent a most delightful vacation. Mrs. Helene Lincoln returned a few days ago from a trip east. She visited her old home in Cleveland, Ohio, and various other points. Mr. and Mrs. Lincoln's son, Jesse, accompanied her on the trip but left a few days later for Detroit, Mich., where he has work.

Mr. and Mrs. J. R. Mills and Mr. and Mrs. T. C. Hetty went to La Grande to see The Desert Song.

Mrs. A. C. Huntley of Myrtle Point, and her daughter, Marian Ehler, of Portland are visiting here at present for a visit with old friends. Mr. and Mrs. George H. Daniel were among the Cove people to attend the Old Folks picnic at Union last week.

Mr. and Mrs. P. A. Costella and daughter, Joan Frances, who have been here for the past three weeks left Tuesday afternoon for their home in Santa Barbara, Cal. They met with an accident a few hours after they left Portland, colliding with a truck with a trailer. The trailer caught the front wheel of their car, throwing them into the ditch. They received slight injuries and their car was badly damaged, necessitating a 24-hour stay.

The school opens Monday for registration and planning of work.

Mr. and Mrs. C. C. Springer arrived Wednesday noon, wishing to be here early in the morning for the years work. They came from Philomath going over the McKenzie pass to Bend, then to Burns and to Crane, coming here via Baker. They spent six weeks at their summer at the University of Oregon. They were delegates to the state grange at Marshfield and they have spent much time travelling along the coast during their holiday.

UNION SHEEP MEN SHIP 3322 LAMBS

Largest Consignment of Season Sent out by S. E. Miller, R. Withycombe.

By MRS. L. Z. TURNER
(Observer Correspondent)

UNION, (Special)—The last and perhaps the biggest shipment of lambs from this section was made from Union Junction last Wednesday. S. E. Miller spent several days scouring in the hills of sheep from the hills and with his force loaded 2322 lambs. Wednesday morning he was to be charged to Chicago. Mrs. Withycombe shipped a few along with Mr. Miller's loading a total of 14 carloads. The weights were satisfactory averaging slightly under 90 pounds.

Mr. and Mrs. John Evans attended the Muddy Creek fair on Wednesday and they say it is well worth the trip to see the community spirit and cooperation that this annual event has instilled into the country folk of that section. They have a large community building, sheds for stock exhibits, poultry pens and a spacious tent with booths for exhibiting flowers, grain and garden products, canned foods, cookery and sewing entries. The boys and girls club took an especially active part in making the fair a success. Officers who attended the fair from Union were Mayor R. D. Smith, Rev. Hewson, Dave Cathcart and J. E. Allen.

On Friday night a special program sponsored by the Grange members will be put on at the Grey theater. A campaign is to be made throughout the state for the Grange University of Oregon to provide funds for the infirmary at Eugene and Mrs. Weber has kindly offered to give a portion of the proceeds of the evening for this purpose. There will be special features including dances and music. Local members of the Oregon Mothers organization are Mrs. W. M. Hadden and Mrs. W. O. Dougherty.

Mrs. Guy Cline gave a miscellaneous shower for Beulah Kulford, daughter of Jas. Kulford of Little creek, on Wednesday afternoon. About thirty lady friends were present including from out of town Miss Doris McMillan of La Grande, Lucile Peck of Cove and Arthur Johnson of Imperial, Ida. An afternoon of merriment was spent on the lawn during which the hour of guest was prolonged with many useful articles. Delicious refreshments were served by the hostess, assisted by her daughters, Lois and Arthur Johnson.

Mrs. Marshall Harrison, who has been ill for several weeks at the home of her brother, Mrs. J. W. Kennedy, was taken to Hot Lake on Wednesday.

Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Hinkelmann and daughters, Isabelle and Mary, drove over to Walla Walla Monday to see the Boys of the Tumble tournament held there.

Guy Cline made a business trip to Walla Walla Tuesday, returning on Wednesday.

Mr. Stetlure, of La Grande, is on homesteads in the Union country this week for G. A. Cooper and Redfield Weed.

Those Columbia who have been taking sectionals in Union and Baker Hesson's Grove will be interested in learning that he is going to continue paying high prices of Redfield Sectionals.

Miss Arthel Johnson who has been visiting at the home of her grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Hinkham, of North Powder, and at the Guy Cline home left Friday morning for her home in Rupert, Ida. She simply took her pet lamb to Boise where her father is to raise her.

Use American Expressions

United States navy officers visiting Africa have adopted as an expression most in use the American. When speaking of the Nile river which flows to the north they refer to it as going "down stream" or "up south."

"Teddy" Somewhat Bitter

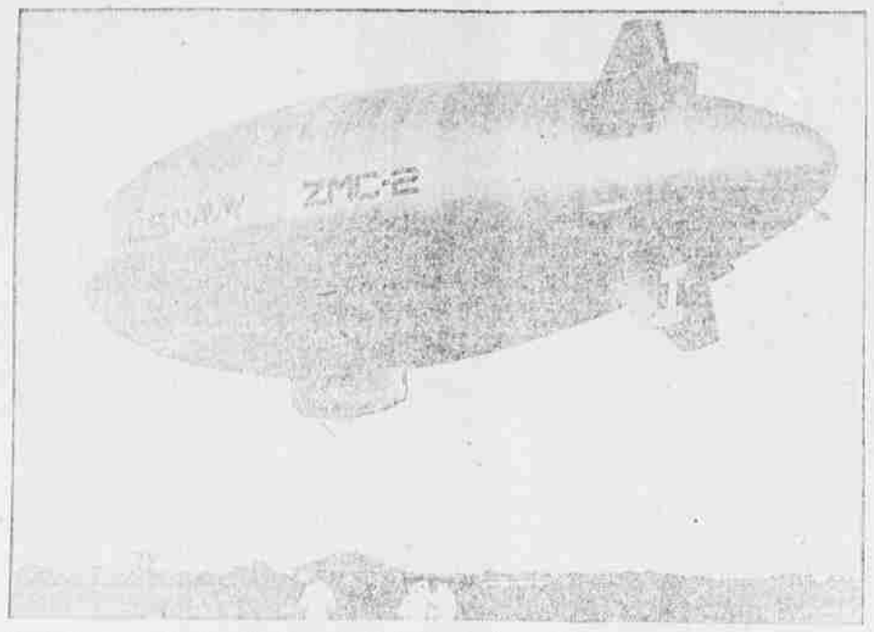
Navy's New All-Metal Dirigible Takes Air For The First Time



Above, the newest thing in dirigibles—the U. S. Navy's all metal ZMC-2, photographed as it first took to the air for its first flight at Detroit. The test flight was witnessed by officials and was completely successful. The blimp, which is 192 feet with nine and four-tenths cubic feet of volume, indicates that it is no heavier than the ordinary blimp despite the fact that it is the first dirigible to be constructed of duralumin, meaning that it does away with the need for interior steel cross beams.

Sport Frock

There's summer like in this light blue crepe on some sports frock, with a tie of the same material. The dress is white, belted, and with short bell sleeves from the shoulder. This outfit is from Worth.

school field during the afternoon previous. The awarding of prizes to Miss Leach and her attendants will take place following the horse racing contest, which is the main event of the high school.

Miss Leach, by winning first, received a check for $75. Miss Elizabeth Hosier, of the Carpenters, was second and received $50 and Miss Irma Johnson, of the mechanics, was third and received $25. Miss Myrna Ward, of the clerks, Miss Barbara Pelcock, of the musicians, and Miss Dorothy Lamb, of the barbers, tied for fourth and each will receive $15.

This afternoon Miss Leach was to receive a free airplane ride offered her by a representative of a Walla Walla flying school.

Bikers Start

The bikers set off to an early start today, with 22 men and seven women having the pedal. The men will about 3:30 a. m. and the women 1:30 hours later. At the end of the first two miles, Roy Purdom, No. 4, was leading the field by a substantial margin. Sam Gray, of Cove, last year's winner, was among the leaders at that time.

The time prize, of $200, is offered for the fastest time made today by the Coastal Journal on its annual ride from Baker to Portland. Second prize, $50, is also in cash ($25 less than the Portland ride again).

Purdom Increased Lead

At 8 o'clock, Purdom passed the timekeeper while entering the last one of the hills, with a lead of nearly a half mile over the next two men, Harvey Chester, of La Grande, and N. E. Gray, of Cove. Gray was last year's 25-mile hike but apparently was unable to match Purdom's strides today.

After leaving La Grande the men were to swing out the highway to the Reynolds corner, then the foothill road to Fourth street in Old Town, down Fourth to Adams and finish at Hemlock and Adams.

POOR MEALS JADE THE APPETITE

Use a Little Sugar to Make Essential Foods More Delicious

Medical and scientific authorities are beginning to call upon American cooks to make our foods more appetizing. One noted scientist says that the fine art of cookery is declining. In an era that is threatening to become cookless, hasty preparation, poor cooking techniques, and other necessities of present-day living result in bland, unappetizing meals that do not tempt us. More flavor and better flavor are called for, he says. Foods should be palatable as well as nutritious. He then emphasizes the value of sugar as a condimental food.

As a flavor, he recommends a dash of sugar on our cereals, sliced fruits, in our vegetables as they are being cooked, on our dish of beans, or even in a milk shake to encourage growing children and adults to drink more milk. He points out that this dash of sugar may help to overcome an indifferent appetite, and thus indirectly lead to a better diet.

This is the dietary need of the modern age—flavor. Help the children and adults in your family to get varied, balanced foods, by the judicious use of greater amounts of sugar. The sugar way is the happy way. The Sugar Institute.

Club's "Daddy"

About 27 years ago, A. B. Graham started at Springfield, O., the first movement toward the National Boys and Girls' Club. He began with 24 rural young folk whose interest in farming was lagging. At meetings Graham would extol the benefits of farm life and instruct the members in the art of correct farming. Today the club has an enrollment of more than 663,000, and Graham is recognized as the "daddy" of all the scattered units. He is now in charge of club work for the midwestern states of the Extension Service of the U. S. Department of Agriculture.

Roscoe Turner, who reached Cleveland last night, was 86 minutes behind Schoenhair's mark, and in addition disqualified himself by failing to arrive in front of the grand stand at the Cleveland municipal airport between 1 and 6 p. m. Art Goebel, of Honolulu-Pacific flight fame, and John Wood of Women, Wis., the remaining entrants, did not leave this morning, besides o Goebel's report, upon reaching here from Wichita last night, of unfavorable weather conditions.

The official weather report from Cleveland, received here just before Brown took off, was favorable with the exception of possible thunder showers.

A HOLIDAY

Labor Day, or any holiday, brings new emphasis to the importance of preparing for the days when leisure is enforced rather than sought, when earning power is reduced.

The fruits of labor deserve the added benefits of saving, of planning, of making a bright future assured. All who are gainfully occupied in a chosen work can enjoy those fruits. The friendly and experienced counsel of your banker in financial matters will help you attain your goal.
