Several Curves Eliminated On Trail Highway

By Mrs. C. E. Thornburg
(Observer Correspondent)

KAMELA, Ore. (Special) — Work is progressing rapidly on the highway between Kamela and Meacham. Several curves have been eliminated, and the road has been widened. Between Kamela and Hodge, where the highway camp is located, work has been done too, mostly preparations for blasting.

A. Kennison, government trapper for this district, was a visitor in Kamela on Friday.

Engineer C. D. Schubert made a business trip to Portland on Wednesday, returning Friday. While there he visited his daughters, Miss Florence Schubert and Bessie Johnson. Also his little grandson Donald Johnson.

Mrs. H. Horstman and son Jack left Friday for a weekend in Portland.

Dinner guests on Sunday at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Pete Biever were Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Kelly, of La Grande and Dr. and Mrs. W. M. Peare and daughter Kathleen, also of La Grande. They had a very enjoyable day. Mrs. Kelley is Mr. Biever's sister. Little Miss Kathleen was greatly elated over the snowflakes which fell at intervals during the day. Mr. and Mrs. Biever have recently redecorated the interior of their home here making it very attractive.

Guy Tamerle made a trip to Elgin on Wednesday, and returned Thursday. He and Mrs. Tamerle expect to spend Saturday and Sunday with relatives in Elgin.

Several Kamela radio fans heard Dr. W. W. Peare, of La Grande, speak from Portland on Thursday evening.

The children of Kamela accompanied by their teacher, Mrs. Guy Tamerle were on parade as Hallowe'en goblins with their jack o'lanterns and masks on Thursday night. Among them were two ghosts and they perhaps prevented any real mischief being done. The children were evidently on their best behavior. Some youths from Meacham drove to Kamela to play Hallowe'en pranks, but were recognized before any real damage was done.

Lillian Schubert who recently broke her leg while at play here, was brought home on Friday. She will be able to walk on crutches soon and may then be able to attend school.

Alta Wigglesworth went to La Grande on Friday to visit her sister Virginia who is attending high school there.

Late Thursday night there was a derailment on the track a few miles west of Kamela. One car was damaged and the train held up for a short time.

Winter, which threatened to take possession here last weekend, has given way to more sunny days.

RECITAL WILL BE GIVEN HERE MONDAY NIGHT

Chicago Downs Princeton, 15 to 7

PALMER STADIUM, Princeton, N. J., Nov. 2 (AP)—A steady Chicago eleven with occasional flashes of brilliance, soundly trounced a desperate Princeton team 15 to 7 today in the resumption of a famous intersectional rivalry. Van Nice threw one pass for Chicago's first touchdown and ran 45 yards for the second score after the mild-westerners scored on a safety in the second period. Whitmer passed to Lea for Princeton's lone touchdown.

Florida Loses to Harvard, 14-0

CAMBRIDGE, Mass. Nov. 2 (AP)—The invading Florida football team apparently suffering from stadium fright, bowed to Harvard, 14 to 0 here today before 35,000 spectators. The visitors fumbled at every vital moment. Harper and Mare ripped the Southern line to shreds for Harvard's first touchdown in the second period and Wood completed a 25-yard pass to Harding in the last minute of play for the other tally.

Notre Dame 26, Georgia Tech 6.

STREET FIGHTING IN SOUTH

NEW ORLEANS, Nov. 2 (AP)—Aroused by a renewal of street car bombing here today Superintendent of Police Theodore Hay ordered all police on extra shifts and equipped detectives on the force with shotguns. The longer shifts will keep more men on duty during the "danger periods," Hay said. Two cars on streets carrying heavy traffic were blasted in the latest rise of sabotage early today.

FAVOR FIVE-DAY WEEK TO SOLVE OVER-PRODUCTION

EUGENE, Ore., Nov. 2 (AP)—Going on record as favoring a five day working week as a solution to the problem of over production in the lumber industry and declaring themselves favorable to the enactment of an old age pension law, 25 delegates of the Oregon districts of 4-L closed the annual convention there today.

A resolution was introduced which advocated time and a half pay for overtime work, but was referred to the directors committee. A majority of the delegates held that circumstances present in the management of the industry made time and a half pay unfair to the employer.

Butter And Egg Prices Steady Over Weekend

PORTLAND, Ore., Nov. 2 (AP)—Egg and butter prices held without change over the weekend. Butter prices were steady and egg values were unusually firm.

Reporting the fruit and vegetable market, the Portland news bureau of the United States Department of Agriculture says:

The Portland wholesale fruit and vegetable market is characterized this week by almost complete disappearance of home-grown warm weather products such as tomatoes, peppers, cucumbers, etc., and a corresponding influx of these products from California. California arrivals are of generally excellent condition, and, in addition to the usual items, include green peas, string beans, artichokes, brussels sprouts, etc.

Shipments of Oregon cauliflower are decreasing and the carlot market shows a slightly stronger undertone. Celery movement is moderate and eastern cars mostly is better.

Onion markets are increasing, mostly filling sales made on previous contracts. The onion market at Portland continues quiet.

Cranberry movement is steady both at Portland and in the outside carlot trade. Cranberries and apples from outside districts are disposing fine satisfactory "keeping qualities" to storage than is customary at this time of year.

Jackals Really Wild Dogs

Jackals are any of several wild dogs in the Old World, especially Canis Aureus of southeastern Europe, southern Asia and northern Africa. They are smaller, usually have reddish and much more scantily than coyotes, and hunt in packs at night. Jackals feed on carrion and small animals including poultry. They can be tamed and by some are believed to be the progenitors of domestic dogs.

Hard to Melt Gold

It requires a temperature of about 2,000 degrees to melt gold. Therefore it cannot be melted with eight pennies.

Wheat Unsettled, Slightly Lower

CHICAGO, Nov. 2 (AP)—Influenced by news of unprecedented widespread contraction of wheat in European parts, wheat values here underwent an early setback today. No important new export business in North American breadstuffs was heard of, and the market for wheat futures delivering here was without appreciable support. Starting unchanged to ¼c off, Chicago wheat later underwent a material general sag. Corn and oats were also easier, with corn starting unchanged to ¼c down, and subsequently declining all around. Provisions advanced.

Wheat closed unsettled, ¾c to 1c a bushel lower than yesterday's finish.

Corn closed ½c to 1c down, oats ½c to ¾c off, and provisions unchanged to 15c decline.

NEW YORK FRUIT

NEW YORK, Nov. 2 (AP)—Dried fruit and nuts steady.

WOOL MARKET

BOSTON, Nov. 2 (AP)—Trading in wool showed a sharp falling off in volume during the past week, but quotations remained steady. The few buyers in the market took a fair quantity to meet immediate needs. French combing 64's and finer western grown wools were in principal use and a limited number of transactions closed at steady prices as compared with previous week. Reports of a continuation of improvement noted abroad tended to maintain confidence in current values.

LIVERPOOL WHEAT

LIVERPOOL, Nov. 2 (AP)—Wheat close:
Dec., 8s 2¾d ($1.34¾).
March, 8s 8¾d ($1.42¾).
May, 8s 8d ($1.46¾).

CHICAGO LIVESTOCK

CHICAGO, Nov. 2 (AP)—(U. S. D. A.)—Cattle: Receipts, 400. Compared to a week ago: Weight fed steers predominated, became a drug on the market and lost 50c to $1; long yearlings and light steers finished steady to 50c lower; some common to medium light and medium weight steers losing as much as $1; extreme top weighty steers, $16; most heavies selling at $14.50 down to $12; best yearlings, $15.35; heifer yearlings, $15; about 12,000 western grassers in run.

Admits Choking Girl to Death

After the lifeless body of his murdered sweetheart had lain in his hotel room 36 hours, Dexter Dayton, 25-year-old Kansas City insurance salesman, awakened, called police and confessed that he had choked to death Marjorie O'Donnell, a magazine writer of Pittsburgh, Pa. The crime took place in a hotel at Washington, D. C., and is said to have followed a quarrel. At the left is a close-up of the girl; right, he is shown entering a patrol wagon after his arrest.
