Thanksgiving To Be Observed In Local Churches

In Addition to Sunday Services, Special Union Meeting Will be Held on Wednesday.

Thanksgiving will be the general theme in churches of La Grande during the next seven days with services both Sunday and a special union service Wednesday night to carry out this thought.

Thanksgiving service Wednesday evening, at 7:30 o'clock, will be held at the First Methodist Episcopal church under the auspices of the La Grande Ministerial association.

The order of the service follows:

Prelude.

Processional.

Invocation, by the Rev. Earl H. Lewis.

Anthem by union choral direct. ed by W. W. Nusbaum.

Responsive reading by the Rev. R. L. Putnam.

Gloria.

President's Thanksgiving Proclamation, by the Rev. J. George Walz.

Thanksgiving message in behalf of the city, A. W. Nelson, chamber of commerce president.

Hymn.

Address, by the Rev. C. Morris Godwin.

Offering for the Red Cross.

Prayer of general thanksgiving, the Rev. R. G. Thompson.

Doxology.

Benediction by the Rev. H. I. Hansen.

The church service for Sunday follows:

St. Peter's Episcopal Church

The church school with Mrs. Darlington as superintendent, will begin at 9:45 a. m. followed by morning prayer at 11 o'clock. The rector's sermon will be "The Purpose of Life." Mrs. H. N. Ashby will play the "Unfinished Symphony" by Schubert for the prelude, "Andante" by Beethoven for the offertory and "Postlude in D" by Hesse.

The evening service will begin at 7:30 p. m. Miss Gladys Miller will play "Ambassador Dance" "Melody" for a prelude, and "Thundered" by Schubert for a postlude. An amount from the offered in a quarter consisting of hymns, a musical worship a Mrs. R. F. Morgan, is leader. Miss Caroline Bauer, R. H. Hurley and C. E. Anderson. The song will be "Peace I Leave With You" by Roberts. The rector's sermon will be the second of the series on religions of mankind, "Modern Non-Christian Religions."

English Lutheran Church

"When Are We Saints?" will be the pastor's subject at the morning worship, beginning at 11 o'clock. The choir will render the anthem, "How Manifold Are Thy Works."

The church school with graded classes for all begins at 9:45 a. m.

A Leadership Training Class in "How to Teach Religion," under the leadership of Mrs. L. H. Jones, is held in the parsonage from 6 to 7 o'clock Sunday evenings. All interested are welcome.

This church will join in the union Thanksgiving service Wednesday.

Baptist Church

Three state workers, Dr. O. C. Wright, executive secretary for Oregon, Miss Louise Humberstone, director of children's work, and Mrs. M. B. Hodge, director of the World Wide Guild for the state of Oregon, will spend the weekend with the Baptist church. Saturday afternoon Miss Humberstone and Mrs. Hodge will meet the officers and teachers of the primary department of the Bible school at the parsonage for a conference on their work. At 7:30 they will meet the adults and young people at the home of F. S. Jesse, 1305 N. Sunday morning, Mrs. Hodge will speak at the Bible school service as soon as they will meet for conference, church school, W. W. G., and B. Y. P. U. workers. 7:30 in 9:30 group conference will be held as follows: women's auxiliary, Mrs. Hodge; church school workers, Miss Humberstone; church problems, Dr. Wright. At 8:30 missionary movies for everybody will be presented by Dr. Wright. All interested in these conferences are cordially invited to attend.

Next Thursday evening is the time for the monthly business meeting. All members are urged to be present as two important amendments to the constitution of the church will be presented.

First Presbyterian Church

At the Sunday morning service at 11:00 o'clock, the minister, J. George Walz, will bring a Thanksgiving message based on "Tell Me the Rest," or "Impossible—Difficult—Done." Mrs. Hurley Hutchinson will play the service, and the ladies Triad choir will sing "King of Kings" by Shelly. The quartet will sing "The Holy Hour" by Nevin-Harris.

The evening sermon will be on "Some Teaches That Goodness is Positive." Mrs. H. N. Ashby will play the prelude "Sunrise" by Karg-Elert, the offertory "Romance in F" by Carl Bush, and the postlude "March" by Lawrence Keel. This service is at 7:30.

Sunday Bible school is at 9:45 a. m. and Christian Endeavor is at 6:30 p. m.

The congregation will unite with the other congregations of the city in a Thanksgiving service in the Methodist church on Wednesday evening at 7:30 o'clock. This will give everyone an opportunity to enjoy both the service and have all day Thursday for Thanksgiving at home with the family.

Gospel Mission

Services begin Sunday at the Gospel Mission at 10 a. m. with classes for all. At 11 o'clock morning worship will be held and at 7:45 p. m. a service of evangelism will be held. The subject will be "Is Mussolini the Coming Anti-Christ?" All are welcomed to attend.

There will be no Tuesday evening service this week in the mission as we are having a cottage prayer meeting.

First M. E. Church

Next Sunday morning the Rev. Robert C. Lee, of Union, will bring the message at the First Methodist Episcopal church. Mr. Lee is well known to La Grande audiences. His origin will be called "The Old Man Element" of the Western district. A large audience is anticipated and he will bring a great message. The choral choir directed by W. W. Nusbaum will sing "Hark, Hark My Soul" by Shelley. The choir has postponed the special concert from next Sunday evening to Sunday evening, Dec. 8. The evening discourse will be another of the series on "The Story of Methodism, an Adventure in Religion."

First Church of Christ, Scientist

Services will be held Sunday at 11 a. m. and 8 p. m. at First Church of Christ, Scientist, at First and Washington streets.

"Soul and Body" will be the subject of the Lesson-Sermon in all churches of Christ, Scientist, on Nov. 24.

The Golden Text will be "My soul, wait thou only upon God; for my expectation is from him." (Ps. 62:5).

Among the citations which will constitute the Lesson-Sermon will be the following from the Bible: "For we know that if our earthly house of this tabernacle were dissolved, we have a building of God, an house not made with hands, eternal in the heavens." (II Cor. 5:1).

The Lesson-Sermon will also include the following passages from the Christian Science textbook, "Science and Health with Key to the Scriptures," by Mary Baker Eddy: "Soul is immortal because it is Spirit, which has an element of self-instruction. Is man lost spiritually? No; he can only lose a sense material. . . . It is a sense of sin, and not a sinful soul, which is lost." (p. 241).

Sunday school is held at 9:45 o'clock for children up to the age of 20 years.

The Wednesday evening service which includes testimonies of healing is at 8 o'clock.

The reading room in the Weatherbee building is open every day except Sundays and legal holidays from one to 4:30 o'clock.

The public is cordially invited to attend the church services and visit and use the reading room.

Christian Church

Sunday is the last of the special meetings at the Christian church, and the pastor reports that the interest has been excellent so far.

Services Sunday are as follows:

Church school at 9:45 a. m., with the opening session in departmental rooms led by the departmental superintendents. A devotional service will be conducted at the close of class period.

Morning worship is at 11 o'clock. The sermon will be "Where Are Thou?"

Christian Endeavor is at 6:30 p. m. with two meetings for high school and other young people.

The evangelistic service is at 7:30 p. m. with the song service assisted by the young people's choir. The sermon subject is "What Shall I Do to Be Saved?" This question will be addressed to five different classes of people, designed to embrace every person present. There will be special music.

Mid-week service will be held because of the Thanksgiving union service on Wednesday evening at the Methodist church. The pastor urges all members of the congregation to attend this service.

Church of the Nazarene

Revival meetings are continuing at the Church of the Nazarene with the Rev. Harry E. Elliott as the evangelist. He is a man of wide experience, having traveled from coast to coast holding meetings all over the country. Mr. Elliott preaches the Bible and has an important message. These meetings are held every night except Saturday, the meetings opening at 7:30 o'clock.

Sunday services will be at the usual hours, with Sunday school at 9:45 a. m. A goal of 100 has been set for this Sabbath.

Preaching is at 11 a. m. and 7:30 p. m. and the N. Y. P. S. meets at 6:30 p. m. At the evening hour Mr. Elliott will tell his life story—of the handicaps he has encountered. Now it came to be that he never saw a Bible until he was 32 years of age living right here in America. Incidentally he was converted under the first sermon he ever heard after having spent the life in such pursuits as a bar man, gambler, etc. All are invited to attend this service.

Much Interest In Meetings At Christian Church

The special meetings at the Central Church of Christ continue with interest. Wednesday evening a good crowd gathered to witness the young people's pageant, "Have Time Gone Your Way." As the song was sung several girls pantomimed and William Snodgrass took the part of poster modeling a clay flower pot. In the sermon, "The Young Man Who Had His Fling," the Rev. R. L. Putnam recited in a telling and forceful manner the story of the prodigal son and related it to the modern amusement problem. Last night a quartet sang "O Love That Will Not Let Me Go" and a group of girls pantomimed it. The pastor's theme was "The World's Renowned Romance." The service tonight begins at 7:45 so that those going to the game may do so and attend the service also. The sermon: "Can a Man Be Saved Out of the Church?" Sermon Saturday evening: "The God of This World."
