90,000 WITNESS CARD-BEAR GAME

Palo Alto Stadium Packed For Annual Classic Between Two Schools.

PALO ALTO, Cal., Nov. 22 (AP)—California's Golden Bears swept down out of the Berkeley hills today to battle a Stanford eleven which has to look to the west to the annual gridiron classic of the week in the Stanford stadium.

This thirty-fifth meeting of the two universities on the football field found Coach Nibs Price's team a reigning favorite for the first time in five years. On the basis of its undefeated record so far this season the Bears were considered an edge over the Cardinals, who after a mid-season slump, during which they lost to Southern California and Notre Dame, had pulled out to be declared to Southern California and Notre Dame.

In an effort to put the Stanford team back in its stride, Coach Glenn Dobbs Warner is expected to start with his prime backfield of Spaulding, Rochon and Fortman, holding in reserve his useful attack built around Bill Spaldin.

Two New Faces

Two comparatively new faces are expected to be seen, however, in the Stanford line. Chang Ah-man, giant tackle, gave way to Ted Thompson, right hot Terry, while Bill Neville, a recent discovery, will probably occupy the right guard position that has been a source of worry to Warner all season.

California has built her home record a lively line that is the talk of this season. Big old-fashioned old men, and the starred figure of Benny Lom, triple threat halfback. The Bears have won, by every occasion this year, and their supporters are looking for them to repeat tomorrow.

A crowd of nearly [illegible] people was assured for the clash as all available tickets have been taken for weeks by students and alumni of the two universities.

The lineups:

California		Stanford
Narton	LE	Preston
Tomlinson	LT	Thompson
Fine	LG	Tatum
Reagan (C)	C	Hollocker
Schwarz	RG	Hardin
Brickell	RT	Tandy
Thornton	RE	Walker (C)
Lom	QB	Spaulding
Lee	LH	Fortman
Gallinde	RH	Rochon
Gill	FB	Fleckenstein

Officials: Referee, Hepher, Duke, Nebraska; Umpire, Tom Lieser, Portland; Field Judge, Bill Kaiser, Oregon; Head Linesman, Tom Fitzpatrick, Utah.

Karasick Is Winner In Match With Turk

PORTLAND, Ore., Nov. 22 (AP)—In a most bitterly contested match, Broadford Al Karasick won a two-out-of-three fall decision over Kara of San Pedro, light heavyweight champion of Turkey here last night. Pedro took the first fall in 29 minutes, 43 seconds, with a crab hold. The second went to Karasick in nine minutes with a scissors or flying headlock. The final fall was a wild affair which started outside the ring and finally ended when Karasick crashed Pedro's chin and slammed him to the mat after 32 minutes of rough work.

Gonzaga Bulldogs Battling Cougars

SPOKANE, Wash., Nov. 22 (AP)—The Gonzaga University Bulldogs seeking a second victory over Pacific coast conference opposition today, chase the Washington State college Cougars on their circuit.

The Bulldogs, fresh from a 26-14 victory over the Idaho Vandals at Moscow last Saturday, will make ready to take the field under Coach Percy Bartling, all in good condition. But doubts have been raised this week, the Cougars, led by northwest football honors, were favored to win.

OREGON OUT TO DEFEAT HAWAII

Rival Football Teams Are Meeting Tais Afternoon at Portland.

PORTLAND, Ore., Nov. 22 (AP)—A team from the rainy mid-Pacific Hawaiian Isles was matched with the University of Oregon here today to provide the district with its first and only taste of intersectional football.

Coach Orlando Kinnie's Ducks from the University of Hawaii traveled almost 2000 miles to attempt revenge for a 6 to 6 defeat handed them by Oregon on their home territory last New Year's day. The Oregonians were determined, however, to make the score more convincing today.

Both teams went through light workouts yesterday in the wake of today's battle. Mainland sharpshooters took. The Hawaiians, however, confined their practice to a brief signal drill and Oregon scouts were able to see very little. Kinnie's edge of the Rainbow attack, Coach John Z. McKale, who has recently to Oregon mentor, however, has perfected a new defense.

Trojans Tackling Idaho University

LOS ANGELES, Nov. 22 (AP)—Determined to close in some degree for the defeat a week ago at the hands of Notre Dame, the University of Southern California Trojans today will clash with the Vandals from the University of Idaho in a Pacific coast conference game.

Coach Lea Calhoun, a former assistant under Coach Howard Jones, will use the remains of his bruising eleven on a U. S. C. aggregation that considerably revamped and reorganized after its return from the Chicago conflict.

ROAD RUNNERS CHALLENGE

SIDNEY, Ore., Nov. 22 (AP)—As a result of yesterday's 14-0 victory over The Dalles, Bend high today received the challenge to the Washington high of Portland for a game championship game at Portland on Thanksgiving day.

ST. MARY'S WINS EASY

SAN FRANCISCO, Nov. 22 (AP)—Slip Madigan's St. Mary's unleashed and unscored-on Gaels defeated the University of Nevada here yesterday 24 to 8. St. Mary's scored almost at will.

Allen, Alabama Both Beaten In Pendleton Card

PENDLETON, Ore., Nov. 22 (AP)—Jimmie Jones, Los Angeles, won a 10-round decision over Del Allen, La Grande, here last night. Jones took eight rounds, with two ties. They are welters.

Kirby Jones of Portland knocked out Kid Alabama, La Grande, in the second round of the scheduled semi-final. They are junior welters.

ROOSEVELT ISSUES PROCLAMATION

WASHINGTON, Nov. 22 (AP)—President Hoover issued a proclamation today for the 15th depositional census to begin next April first and called upon the country to give prompt and accurate responses to all inquiries in order to make "this great and necessary public undertaking a success."

Making Our Slogan More Than A Slogan

The store that has come down through modern history about Sacajawea has brought a slogan with it — "Sacajawea Points the Way to Better Things."

That's the slogan of this most modern hotel—but it's more than a slogan. It's a goal of service toward which we strive constantly. We promise better things at the Sacajawea — and then proceed to make those promises good — and better if possible.

Be Kind to Your Eyes

It costs so little to have good light to read and work with that you cannot afford to be unkind to your eyes. For instance, it costs only one cent an hour to burn a big 100 watt lamp, even less after twenty-five kilowatt hours have been used.

Be kind to the children's eyes. They need good light to study and read by these long evenings.

Be kind to your eyes because your eyes are kind to you.
