FRIEND of JAILED DEBTORS

RUINS of GEN. OGLETHORPE'S BARRACKS AT FREDRICA, GA.

MEN who couldn't pay their debts were being jailed in England, when a humanitarian named James Edward Oglethorpe conceived an idea for their relief. As a result, he received a royal charter in June, 1732, got 120 debtors out of prison and set sail with them for America. Arriving early in 1733, they founded a colony at Savannah, Ga., the beginning of the 13th colony in America. Not only was Oglethorpe able to keep peace with the Indians, but he gained their loyalty and support in repulsing a Spanish invasion of Georgia.

In 1933, on the 200th anniversary of the founding of Georgia, the United States issued a 3-cent stamp, carrying a portrait of General Oglethorpe.
