William Sannar Buried Sunday At Promise, Ore.

By Mrs. Bertha Carper
(Observer Correspondent)

PROMISE, Ore. (Special)—William Sannar died quite suddenly of apoplexy at his home in Promise at 2:30 Saturday afternoon. He was 79 years of age at the time of his death. He was apparently as well as usual and was at work with his two grandsons, Ray and Tommy Trump, picking up some potatoes from a pit where he had buried them last fall, when he was stricken. Mrs. Sannar quickly came from the house to assist him while Roy ran to the grange hall for aid. Mr. Potter, John Carper, Ralph Lyons and others hastened to the home and carried Mr. Sannar into the house. For a few minutes he seemed to revive but in a very short time he passed away. Mr. Sannar, known as "Uncle Billy," leaves a host of friends who will always remember his cheerfulness and droll humor. He was buried in the Promise cemetery Sunday, the funeral services being held at the grange hall with the Rev. F. G. Potter in charge.

William Isaac Sannar was born in Fayetteville, Va., Jan. 26, 1851, his mother dying when he was three weeks old. He was reared to manhood by his grandmother. In 1871 he was married to Elizabeth Ann (Julia) Carper and to this union was born 12 children, three of whom died in infancy, Rose, Bertha and George. Orval was drowned in the Grande Ronde river near here in September, 1918 at the age of 19 years. Mrs. Boyd Carper, of Promise, Mrs. Sally Lyons, of Promise, Joe Sannar of Coquille, Ore., John of Enterprise, Charles of Gridley, Cal., Frank of Wallowa, Mrs. Fisher Lively of Moxville and Mrs. Syed Trump of Promise survive him. There are also 25 grandchildren and 16 great-grandchildren. All the children were present at the funeral except Charles, of Gridley, Cal., who was unable to come. Mr. Sannar was local postmaster here for several years. He lived a Christian life, having united with the Christian church when a young man. He was always ready to give his support in all things that stood for the advancement and good of the community. He moved to Oregon in 1897 and had resided in Promise since that time except a few years that he lived near Wallowa, moving back to Promise in 1918. Besides his relatives, he leaves a host of friends who mourn his passing, but who feel his was a long, useful life and active to the last.

Mr. and Mrs. Elza Wortman and George Brooks, of Powwatka, attended the funeral of Mr. Sannar Monday, returning to their home in the evening.

Joe Sannar, who came from Coquille, Ore., to attend his father's funeral, arrived in Wallowa late Sunday evening and was brought on to Maxville early Monday morning by the speeder, where he was met by Ralph Carper who brought him the rest of the way. Joe has been away for seven years.

A son was born Monday, Mar. 22 to Mr. and Mrs. Rolin Gorham. Both mother and son are doing well. Mrs. Alile Smith is caring for them.

J. E. McDonald is in ill health.

George Coleman Jr. and Martha Casteel were married at Enterprise Saturday morning, Mar. 15 by the Rev. Hall K. Wallis. Mr. Coleman is a popular young farmer of Powwatka and Miss Casteel is from Enterprise but is teaching at Powwatka. The young couple left immediately after the ceremony for Powwatka where they will make their home.
