Rev. Tennyson To Be Ordained Here On Sunday

Bishop Remington, Arch Deacons Creasey and Thomas to Attend Episcopal Services.

Palm Sunday services and the ordination of the Rev. M. G. Tennyson, Episcopal rector, into the priesthood are outstanding on Sunday's schedule of church services in La Grande.

Palm Sunday, preceding Easter, will be generally observed throughout the city. Services are also planned for Holy week, with the Episcopal church to conduct Good Friday services from 12 noon to 3 p. m.

The Rt. Rev. William P. Remington, bishop of the Eastern Oregon diocese will ordain Mr. Tennyson Sunday morning at 10:30 o'clock, assisted by the Venerable S. W. Creasey, arch deacon of the northern section, and the Venerable J. Henry Thomas, arch deacon of the southern section. The anthem by the choir will be "Send Out Thy Light" by Gounod.

Change in Time

Holy communion will take place at 8 a. m. with Arch Deacon Thomas as celebrant. Church school is at 9 a. m. The parish members are urged to make their communion at the 8 o'clock service insofar as possible, in order to expedite the ordination service which is a very long one.

At 10:30 o'clock Archdeacon Creasey will preach the sermon and the Archdeacon Thomas will present Mr. Tennyson for priesthood.

Morning prayer is at 10 a. m. in the chapel with evening prayer at 7:30 p. m., Bishop Remington in the pulpit. Presentation of candidates for confirmation will be in order.

Holy Week

There will be holy communion every morning during Holy week excepting Thursday and Friday. There will be a quiet communion by candle light Monday and Thursday evenings at 8 o'clock. The three-hour Good Friday service (12 to 3 p. m.) will be at the church. It is not necessary, it is explained, for members of the church to stay the whole three hours though the full value of the service cannot be had without doing so. Those having are requested to do so during singing of hymns.

Presbyterian Church

"At this Palm Sunday we would preach again about that Youth, Stranger, Minister, and Soldier of righteousness, who was ever alert that He might find a soul. And this Jesus has sent out the clarion call for courage and strength for his followers amid the difficulties and worries of daily life. That note strikes with such stirring eloquence, hope, and confidence that it should bring forth the heroic manhood of all," says the Rev. J. George Walz. Come with us at 11 o'clock, hear the beautiful anthem by the Ladies' Trio; choir, and the singing of "The Palms" by Ruth Gollod. The sermon by the pastor will carry the thought to the acclamation of the multitude following Jesus into Jerusalem and shouting "Hosanna to the Son of David." At this service there will be administered the sacrament of baptism, confirmation and consecration of elders and deacons and the Lord's supper.

At 8 p. m., note the change of time, the pastor will bring the sermon, the choir will render an anthem suitable to the season.

There was quite a call for him in Oklahoma. He has not preached since he came to La Grande. He is the son of the pastor, the Rev. Frank Hopkins, and is attending high school in La Grande. If the pastor returns from Portland in time, he will occupy the pulpit Sunday night, if physically able. The night services, however, will be announced definitely Sunday morning. The cast for this production is very good and a very profitable as well as inspiring service is anticipated. Music appropriate to Palm Sunday will be given by the choir directed by W. W. Nusbaum. Rev. Hertzog Comes to M. E. Church Apr. 27

The Rev. W. H. Hertzog, for the last three years instructor in religious education at the Kimball School of Theology, on the campus of Willamette university, Salem, comes to La Grande, on Sunday April 27, to take up his duties as pastor of the First Methodist Episcopal church. Mr. Hertzog has been appointed by Dr. Harry S. Hamilton, district superintendent, to serve the local congregation until the meeting of the annual conference which comes this year in August.

Mr. Hertzog comes to La Grande bearing splendid recommendations from both district superintendent, the presiding bishop and his colleagues at the Methodist Episcopal seminary. During the last few months he has been filling some of the pulpits in the Willamette valley, and press notices have all been very satisfactory. His services were only available because of the fact that Kimball is to be closed at the end of the present school year.

The new minister will come to the city for Sundays only until schools in Salem are out, but at that time he will move his family into the local parsonage and will take up the permanent residence here. Services at the Methodist church have been held regularly since the death of the pastor, the Rev. V. E. Hall, March 2, and interest has been very good in all departments. However the entire congregation is looking forward to the time when a permanent pastor will be in charge.

TO VOTE MAY 16

MARSHFIELD, Ore. (AP) — Coos county will vote May 16 on a bond issue of $300,000 for construction of a bridge to connect the east and west sides of the upper bay traffic. The bridge site is on the property of the Coos Bay Lumber company a mile south of Marshfield and on the east side of the bay, and would give access to the ranches in the Coos river valleys. Also, it would provide an outlet without ferrying to the Loon Lake highway at Allegheny. The Coos Bay Lumber company will donate a right of way if the measure passes.
