New York Markets

By BERNARD S. O'HARA

NEW YORK, June 16—(AP)—The post-invasion bull market in stocks moved along at full tempo today with volume at around 2,500,000 shares and industrial and rail leaders up fractions to about 2 points.

Absorbing a steady flow of profit selling the motors, steels, rubbers, coppers, rails and blue chip industrials were able to maintain good headway throughout and near the close prices generally were not far from the tops.

The new rush of buying was attributed by brokers to early victory ideas generated by the heavy air and naval attacks on Japanese positions and reports of more allied progress in Normandy.

Chrysler continued a special favorite and was bid up more than 2 points. Other buoyant performers were Westinghouse, U. S. Steel, Bethlehem, Goodrich, American Smelting, International Nickel, Bendix, Boeing, Atlantic Coast Line, Southern Railway, Southern Pacific, Great Northern, Pullman and Phillips Petroleum. Air transports extended recent gains.

Rail loans headed an upward move in bonds.
