WOOL MARKET

BOSTON, Feb. 17 (AP) — The market is somewhat less active than a week ago, owing to the tendency to refuse many of the current bids especially on the finer grades. Inquiries for the 64's and finer territory wools are about steady. Quotations are irregular on fleeces of 56's and lower grades.

BEARS CONTROL MARKET

NEW YORK, Feb. 17 (AP) — The bull market in stocks over reached itself today, lost its balance, and fell into the lap of the bears.

Wild bidding up of volatile issues during the morning failed to shield heavy distribution of pivotal shares, and after midday, the list turned decisively downward. Volume increased on the downside in the late dealings, contrary to the recent tendency, and sales aggregated 4,200,000 shares.

United States textile exports for 1930 were nearly $40,000,000 in excess of imports.

RHUBARB UP 25 CENTS TO $1-1.25 A BOX

PORTLAND, Feb. 17 (AP) — Prices and tone of wholesale butter and egg markets were unchanged today. Butter ruled steady with receipts limited while eggs were weak under receipts greater than current demand.

Rhubarb up 25 cents a box to $1.00@$1.25 was the day's only early price change of note in the fresh fruit and vegetable trade. Government market news service reported conditions as follows:

First California asparagus was received last Thursday, selling in very limited volume to retailers at 60c@75c per lb. This morning's offerings moved at 40c per lb. Several moderate-sized express shipments are now en route from Southern California.

Imperial valley lettuce has continued its skyward progress, with current loadings and rollers advancing from f. o. b. prices of $1.00@$1.25 per crate a week ago, to $2.50@$2.75 per crate Saturday.

Apple movement continued steady but not sensational. Hood River Spitzenbergs are in liberal supply in Portland storages and several dealers are pushing sales of this stock, with occasional price concessions. Washington Delicious, and Oregon faceted-and-filled Newtowns are also plentiful.

California cauliflower is in greater demand than anytime earlier in the season, with practically complete depletion of local flower.

MEDFORD, Ore., Feb. 17 (AP)—C. M. Brewer, general manager of the California-Oregon Power company, said today his company is "seriously considering" using a site on the Klamath river in California, for constructing a $4,500,000 power project.

Brewer said the company wants to start construction at once. The California site, he said, is below the Canyon site in Oregon.

First Lead Pencils

The name pencil was originally applied to a small, fine pointed brush used in painting. It has been said that a manuscript of Theophilus shows signs of having been ruled with a black lead pencil, but the first distinct allusion to a pencil occurs in the "treatise on fossils," by Conrad Gesner in 1565, who describes an article for writing formed of wood and a piece of lead.
