Aged Woman Is Tortured, Then Burned to Death

SAN FRANCISCO, Feb. 19 (AP) — With a blood-stained cap as their only tangible clue, police yesterday attempted to trace the torch-murderers who beat and burned Mrs. Albina Voorhies, 65, to death Tuesday in a quest for a fortune they believed she kept hidden in her store-room.

Witnesses who reported hearing cries Monday night led police to believe that the murderer or murderers tortured the woman throughout the night and early morning to force her to reveal the hidden treasure, which relatives said was non-existent. A trail of blood about the store and the woman's apartment added credibility to this theory.

"We have a meager description of the man who wore the cap," said Captain of Detectives Charles Dullea. "I believe it will help us to trace him.

"I am absolutely convinced this poor woman was robbed, tortured and then deliberately burned to hide traces of the crime."

Coroner's Jury To Investigate Fatal Accident

PORTLAND, Feb. 19 (AP)—Investigation by the coroner's jury of the death of Louis Lampert, 73, killed Monday by an automobile driven by Fred W. German, Multnomah county commissioner, has been set for Friday.

While the report of the two officers, Boscovich and Wiles, who investigated the accident, said German was traveling at excessive speed and ran through a red traffic light, neither signed a complaint against the commissioner.

German has not been arrested, nor has any complaint been filed against him. An entry of "reckless driving" was made in the police docket after German's name immediately after the accident but the charge was dismissed in municipal court because no complaint was filed.

The district attorney's office reported no one had appeared asking for a warrant. It was said relatives of Lampert had declined through an attorney to file a complaint.

NEW STANDARD IS SET IN PERFECTING FLAVOR OF COFFEE

Roasting Process Used Exclusively by Hills Bros. Insures Uniformity

For years Hills Bros. have enjoyed a distinct advantage in the coffee roasting industry. For they have a patented roasting process that prevents variation in flavor.

The basic principle of the process is roasting "a little at a time." Automatically measured lots of rare blended coffees—about three pounds—are introduced into the roaster in a steady stream and pass along in a continuous flow, roasting a little at a time. The speed of the flow and degree of heat never vary with the result that Hills Bros. Coffee is absolutely uniform.

No other coffee has the same delicious flavor of Hills Bros. Coffee because no other coffee is roasted the same way. This patented process—Controlled Roasting—is radically different from the common bulk-roasting method.

Freshness is assured in Hills Bros. Coffee because it is packed in vacuum cans. By this process, air, which destroys the flavor of coffee, is removed from the can and kept out. Ordinary cans, even if air-tight, do not keep coffee fresh. Grocers everywhere sell Hills Bros. Coffee. Ask for it by name and look for the Arab—the trade-mark—on the can.

Suicide of Girl Remains Mystery To Authorities

VICTORIA, B. C., Feb. 19 (AP)—Why Miss Ruth Reinhart, 21-year-old American nurse, apparently jumped overboard from the Princess Louise and was drowned while returning to Portland, Ore., to be married last October, was still a mystery today as authorities prepared to forward evidence in the case to Dominion government in Ottawa.

A two day inquiry here, made at the request of the American government revealed a second man figuring prominently in the case but failed to disclose his identity. One of the passengers testified he heard the girl and this man quarreling in her stateroom and heard her threaten suicide less than an hour before she disappeared on the night of October 3.

Miss Reinhart was returning to Portland to meet her fiance after visiting her native town, Wrangell, Alaska.

Authorities in Alaska called upon Washington, D. C., officials to request an investigation.

Orville Anderson, Portland chef and a passenger on the Canadian liner, said he heard a man trying to prevent the girl from leaving her stateroom and heard her say: "If you don't go away and leave me alone I'll jump overboard." Anderson, who was lying in his berth in an adjoining stateroom, said he heard the man leave and that the girl remained in her room for some time, apparently weeping.

Several witnesses, including officers, stewards and members of the crew, testified the girl was not drinking at any time so far as they knew and that she behaved normally at all times.

EX-HUSBAND STABS 2 AND THEN SUICIDES

LAGUNA BEACH, Cal., Feb. 19 (AP)—Benjamin Willing, 50, was stabbed to death and his sister, Mrs. Lily Crowe, was probably fatally wounded here early today by her estranged husband, Alexander Crowe, 58, who killed himself by taking poison.

The Willings, a wealthy family, have a five-acre estate here. Mrs. Crowe and her brother occupied a cottage on the estate. She had met Crowe in Vancouver, B. C., a year ago and they were married there last November but separated shortly afterward.

Willing awoke after midnight to find Crowe in his room. They quarreled and Willing was fatally stabbed. Mrs. Crowe, hearing her brother's cries went to his aid and was severely stabbed. George Willing came from the estate nearby a short distance away and overpowered Crowe.

After police had been summoned and Crowe was incapacitated he managed to get a vial of poison from one of his pockets, swallowed it and was dead within a few minutes. Hospital attendants said Mrs. Crowe was probably fatally hurt.

Two Oregonians Contest Winners

DES MOINES, Iowa, Feb. 19 (AP)—Two girls, one from Hawaii and the other from Pennsylvania, and a boy from Indiana were adjudged national winners in the show-window of a journalism contest sponsored by Quill and Scroll, national high school journalism society. The results were announced today.

Eleanor Chun, student at McKinley High school, Honolulu, was awarded first place in the feature writing contest. A classmate, Tadayoshi Ito, placed second in the headline writing division in which Kitty Smith of Meadville, Pa., High school, was awarded first. William Redfern, Washington, Central High, Indianapolis, was the only contest to turn in a perfect paper in the contest news contest.

Clara Lyons of Salem, Ore., was one of the winners, placing eighth in the national competition in headline writing.

John Irvine, of Corvallis, Ore., placed second in the Pacific coast area in the headline writing contest.

Davis Will Be Senate Counsel In Court Test

WASHINGTON, Feb. 19 (AP) — John W. Davis, Democratic presidential candidate in 1924 was selected yesterday to represent the senate in its court test of the right to office of Chairman Smith of the power commission.

Davis' selection and acceptance was announced by Senator Walsh, Democrat, Montana, who has led the senate controversy with President Hoover over the power commission.

The former presidential candidate notified the committee he would arrive in Washington as soon as possible to discuss the case and open legal proceedings.

The selection of Davis, acknowledged as one of the foremost lawyers in the country, assures a spectacular trial of the constitutional conflict which has arisen between the president and the senate over Smith's position.

The committee which selected Davis is composed of Senators Norris, Republican, Nebraska, Steiwer, Republican, Oregon and Walsh.

The senate has appropriated only $2,500 for counsel's fee, but more may be appropriated later.

Arrested Man Is Wanted for Murder

PORTLAND, Ore., Feb. 19 (AP) — Wanted by Alaskan authorities for questioning in connection with a murder at sea last fall, Burton Gerald McDonald, 34, a fisherman, was held in jail here yesterday for the department of justice. He was arrested by government agents at the veterans' hospital here.

The district attorney's office issued a fugitive from justice complaint and warrant on which McDonald was being held. He is expected to be taken to Seattle for questioning by department of justice agents.

Police here said McDonald served time in Walla Walla prison for burglary.

HONOR

This, indeed, is worth proclaiming over and over again: "Though the mind may be modern, the body is still old-fashioned".

When, by means of advertisement, we tell the virtues of H-O Oatmeal many modern minds are too distracted to take heed. But the body, aged in wisdom, understands and is always ready to extol the great joy and benefit of the honest breakfast.

There is no cereal like New Style H-O offered for sale anywhere . . . never has been. The delicate and hearty flavor and the firm texture guarantee the excellence of its quality. H-O has earned its simple and widespread honor by taking a fundamental food for mankind and preparing it with utmost care and serious concern. Its patrons are a definite kind of people. Men and women who say that distinction at the morning meal is quite as important as it is at dinner. Mothers who place their children's healthful development above every other consideration . . . for H-O Oatmeal is recognized as a premier food for growing boys and girls.

H-O is the quickest hot breakfast . . . Cooks in 2 to 3 minutes.
