Sanchez, state superintendent of Methodist work in Utah, will preach the 13th baccalaureate sermon for Gooding college May 22, while President M. G. Neale of the University of Idaho will deliver the commencement address the following morning. On their last round, Bishop Wilson E. Brown, of Helena, Mont., Superintendent H. G. McCallister, of Boise, and Superintendent H. G. Humphrey, of Gooding, stressed the need of Christian education for this inter-mountain territory between Green River and La Grande and asked their folks and churches to designate Gooding college to receive a part of their missionary offerings for world service credit, Mr. Tenney reports.

Irish Troops To Be Confined On Easter Sunday

DUBLIN, Irish Free State, Mar. 26 (AP)—Fearing a repetition of the bitter fighting which marked the Easter rebellion of 1916, the authorities have ordered all troops of the Free State army confined to barracks on Easter day when the Irish republican army, more active since the Dublin fall election victory, will march in commemoration of the rebellion.

For the first time in years there will be only a few Irish Republican demonstrations in Northern Ireland, but it was believed there would be an attempt to hold a meeting at Newry, regarded as a danger point.

There will be another Republican gathering at Drumboe in East Donegal, where three men were executed during the civil war.

BELFAST, Northern Ireland, Mar. 26 (AP) — The Ulster government last night issued five proclamations forbidding Irish Republican meetings on Easter Sunday at Newry, Londonderry, Millstreet, Carrickmore and Rosslea Town.

Carrickmore is in Tyrone and Millstreet and Rosslea Town are in Belfast county.

Edward Stewart, 98-year-old civil war veteran of Cocleemie, N. C., is the oldest person in the United States licensed to hunt, according to records of the Izaak Walton league.

NORFOLK MEN EXPECTING TO RETURN BABY

that the child would be returned "at an early date, possibly today."

Similar confidence was expressed by Rev. H. Dobson-Peacock, the only one of the negotiators who has made any statement other than a formal one declining to discuss their part in the case. He reiterated expressions of confidence in the successful outcome of their efforts and said he expected negotiations to be completed within the next few days.

Others Remain Silent
Rear Admiral Guy H. Burrage, retired and John Hughes Curtis, boat builder, the other two negotiators, declined to add to their statement that what occurred at their conference earlier in the week with Colonel Lindbergh was a matter of the "strictest confidence."

The Virginian pilot said that the three men had made a contact with a representative of the kidnapers since their return from Hopewell, N. J., and that the meeting occurred early Thursday morning. Asked specifically about this, Mr. Curtis told the Associated Press, "I am not in a position to answer that."

The optimistic expressions here were in sharp contrast with New Jersey police reports that Colonel Lindbergh himself placed "no specific significance" on the Norfolk investigation.

MAY ISSUE NEW APPEAL
HOPEWELL, N. J., Mar. 26 (AP) — While three Norfolk citizens did their best to restore kidnaped Charles A. Lindbergh Jr., to his parents today, his father was believed to be considering issuing a fourth appeal to the persons who stole the child March 1.

Thrice Col. Lindbergh, willing to pay ransom to get the child back, has issued public pleas to the kidnapers to open negotiations, but these have failed to accomplish the desired object. Information from friends of the family was that he might try again. He has pledged himself not to try to injure the kidnapers if they will return the child.

SEARCH FOR FLEISCHER
WASHINGTON, Mar. 26 (AP) — A sudden, unexpected tip today swung the feverish search for the Lindbergh baby and his kidnapers into the center of the capital.

As hopes alternately rose and waned from the many clues being followed hither and yon about the country, a man greatly resembling Harry Fleischer, reputed leader of the Detroit purple gang—wanted for questioning in connection with the case since he dropped from sight some time ago—sought lodging last night on an obscure Washington street.

It was nearly midnight. Four youths who saw him and another man walk to the door, noted a small car outside. In it sat a woman and a baby. They recalled news pictures of Fleischer and when the men had been turned away from lack of room, called the police.

From the "rogues" gallery, officers said, they immediately picked out Fleischer's picture. By radio and teletype the authorities sent orders to spot the car or the men and call reserves. Cruising police autos, radio equipped, carried on an immediate watch through the night.

The police were certain the group had found lodging in the city either in a rooming house or a tourist camp. They warned patrolmen that the men were dangerous.

Report Doubted
Police later received a report that a man resembling Fleischer spent the night at a tourist camp at Hyattsville, Md., near here and left early today for Baltimore.

Maryland state police, however, said they placed no credence in the report and were not watching the Washington to Baltimore highways.

Some doubt was expressed by Washington police as to the identification of the men seen. They considered it almost incredible that any kidnaper versed in underworld ways would present himself at a rooming house with a woman and baby at a time like this, and at an hour so late as to make arrival conspicuous.

'TARIFF LEVY' VOTED INTO HOUSE BILL

sales tax, pleaded with his colleagues to not insert tariffs into the tax bill.

"I stand back of the gentleman from Georgia," he shouted amidst boos and hoots from the Republicans.

"This isn't the time to discuss embargoes against Russia," Rainey said, referring to amendments offered or proposed.

A fresh assurance of willingness of the Republican minority in the house to co-operate in the formulation of a bill to balance the budget came today as the house resumed consideration of the revenue measure.

Representative Snell, New York, Republican leader, said in a statement that the majority of his party's members were still "willing to co-operate in the passing of any just and equitable tax measure," notwithstanding "the desertion of the Democratic leadership by many members," on the sales tax issue.

"Our duty under the constitution is to legislate for taxes to pay the running expenses of the government, and the Republican minority stands ready to do their duty in this respect," he said.

MURCHISON, SLATER NEW CANDIDATES

candidacy and is now circulating petitions to complete his filing. Mr. Murchison made no statement or formulated no ballot slogan at the preliminary filing.

Reynolds Files Petitions
J. E. Reynolds, Republican candidate for the nomination for county treasurer, completed his filing yesterday when he entered his petitions. He was the second to complete filings with School Superintendent E. A. Sayre preceding him by one day.

Except for the entrance of Mr. Murchison into the race for county commissioner on the Republican ticket, and the filing at Salem by Mr. Slater, there were no further developments in the local political situation this weekend.

Must File by April 5
April 5 is the last day on which candidates may complete their filings, leaving only eight more business days on the calendar before the books will close.

Voters may register, however, as late as April 19. All persons coming of age since the last election are granted to register before they are eligible to vote, and all persons who failed to vote at either the primaries or general elections in 1930 must re-register in order to vote. Failure to vote during a two-year period results in the striking of the person's name from the list of registered voters.

It is reported at the county clerk's office that registration has been fairly heavy during the last week with from 12 to 15 registering daily. A few Democrats are registering Republican and a few Republicans are registering Democrat, but no particular trend from one party to the other is manifest.

FILE FOR SUPREME COURT
SALEM, Mar. 26 (AP)—J. O. Bailey, Portland attorney and state senator from Multnomah county, and Justice George Brown, of Roseburg, both filed today for the nonpartisan nomination to the Oregon supreme court. Brown is seeking reelection while Bailey hopes to succeed Brown.

NEGOTIATIONS IN SHANGHAI MENACED

The telegram was signed by a committee of twenty, including Generals Chen Chi-Tang, Li Tsung-Jen and Pai Chung-Hsi. WORLD READY FOR ARRIVAL OF EASTER morning prayer at 11, while at the Church of Our Lady of the Valley, Catholic, the regular Easter masses will be read, with the music furnished by Mrs. James McNamee and Alfred Meyers.

Special Music
Special musical services have been arranged for the evening by a number of the churches. "The Great Light," a cantata, by Finley Lynn, will be given at the Methodist church by the choir at 7:30. At 6 o'clock the Baptist church will present a cantata, "He Rose Again," by Peri, and a sacred concert and cantata will also be given at the Central Church of Christ at 7:30. Five o'clock vesper services will be held at the Presbyterian church.

One of the big events in the life of the children will be the Easter egg hunts which have been arranged by several organizations for the weekend.

BELIEVERS EVERYWHERE CELEBRATE
By The Associated Press
Rome rang out its bell today while believers in Christ everywhere rejoiced at the ending of 40 days of abstinence and penitence.

Worshippers over the Christian world planned to sing their joy on the rise of the morrow's sun. New York had a photo-electric cell ready to detect the first rays as a signal for the beginning of Easter services.

The Republican spirit grew active in Ireland and some saw possibility of trouble on the peace prince's triumphant day.

America's weather bureau could promise only showers in the east and cloudy and cold in many other sections.

Plans for the traditional finery parades abated some because of the weather forecasts, however.

Sunrise Services
California prepared for sunrise services on seashore and desert and in the cities. A quarter million or more will find room for worship in the Hollywood bowl and a living cross of singers will convey Easter's christian message there.

Winston-Salem, N. C., will awake traditionally to hear roving bands playing Easter chorals and thousands will go to the Old Home Moravian church to hear "The Lord is Risen" for the 200th time.

At the foot of cathedral spires, needle-like red rocks of the famous Garden of the Gods, in Colorado, several thousand persons will gather to worship in the eleventh annual Easter sunrise services.

President Hoover will attend sunrise services at Arlington cemetery across the Potomac opposite the White House and later Mrs. Hoover will accompany him to Quaker services at the Washington New Friends church.

Special rituals followed the ringing of the bells at Rome at noon. Sombre black and purple coverings were removed from the statues and crucifixes in the city's 400 churches.

UNION PLANS PROGRAM
By Mrs. L. Z. Terrall
(Observer Correspondent)

UNION, Ore. (Special) — Tomorrow will be fittingly observed in the churches here with Easter programs. Beginning at 6:30 the Epworth Leaguers will hold a morning watch service at the church. The Sunday school services will be conducted as usual after which A. L. Gardner, of Cove, will occupy the pulpit in the absence of Rev. R. C. Lee. The choir will furnish music and will sing one special anthem. A short devotional meeting will be held by the league at 7:00 o'clock after which the Easter program will be given. A dramatic representation of the last supper entitled "The Upper Room" will be given by Leaguers under the direction of Mrs. Homer Cheney and a spring pageant, "Sir Smile-Up's Happy Easter Band" is being worked out by the primary class under Mrs. S. B. Miller's supervision. The junior choir will furnish music.

Social Activities To Resume After Easter Observance

Because of the observance of Holy week, culminating in a large union service last night at the First Methodist Episcopal church, a dearth of social activities was evidenced on Good Friday. Several events are being planned, however, to follow the Easter holidays, and as soon as the weather permits all eyes will be turned toward the golf courses, picnic grounds and tennis courts.

Club Program Is Of Much Interest

One of the post-Lenten activities which will be of widespread interest is the meeting of the Neighborhood club on Tuesday afternoon, at which Mrs. Walter M. Pierce and Mrs. Ralph Badgley will discuss science and education in Oregon. The La Grande hotel will be the scene of the meeting which is to begin at 2 o'clock. Mrs. Pierce will speak on education, a subject which she is ably fitted to discuss because of her prominent position in educational activities in Oregon.

Mrs. Badgley is a graduate of the University of Washington, where she also received her degree of master of arts in science. During her education-al career she has conducted several experiments in scientific fields and is well versed in scientific problems.

Additional features will be furnished by Mrs. Lynn Wright and the Misses Dorothy and Virginia Campbell.

Members of the social committee who will serve ten following the meeting are Mrs. Glen Thompson, Mrs. Jennie Thompson, Mrs. A. T. Throlinger, Mrs. R. F. Tyler, Mrs. O. E. Wagner, Mrs. Gene Walker, Mrs. George Walker, Mrs. Everett Waldinger, Mrs. Thomas Wallinger, Mrs. George Walz, Mrs. Henry Warnholz, Mrs. N. E. West, Mrs. R. A. Wilkerson, Mrs. Raymond O. Williams, Mrs. O. W. Warnock, Mrs. Harold Finley, Mrs. A. W. Palmer and Mrs. Clyde Peterson.

L. H. S. Orchestra Plays at Meeting

Before an enthusiastic audience, W. W. Nusbaum, musical director at the La Grande High school, presented his well-trained orchestra in a concert sponsored by the Central Parent Teacher association, at 7:30 last night at the La Grande High school auditorium. Mrs. N. W. Fries, president, was in charge of the meeting, and Senator C. E. Eberhard explained the free textbook bill passed in the last legislature.

The orchestra played "March of the Brave," by Zamecnik; "By the Sea," by Schubert; "Hungarian Dance No. 1," by Brahms; "Romance — Lovers Meeting," Kempinski; "Patrol of the Tin Soldiers," by Pierne; Southern miniatures, "Recruits" and "Colonel's Party," by Zamecnik; overture, "Morning, Noon and Night in Vienna," by Suppe.

There has been a movement in Oregon for the past 10 or 15 years for free textbooks, Mr. Eberhard stated. In his address he explained to the parents the merits of district-owned textbooks, stating that, in the first place, it is less expensive to the taxpayers in the district. Senator Eberhard commented on the activities of the P. T. associations in the state who have been active in the passage of the bill.

Readers and geographies are furnished in the La Grande schools, $2900 having been spent in the district for books. The speaker also praised the association for their book exchanges through which the pupils are able to secure cheaper books. The legislature has attempted to bring the changes in the textbooks to a minimum, he stated.

Miss Effie Snider's room received the picture for the largest attendance.

Mrs. Mackey Hostess For Westway Club

A large group of women enjoyed an evening of music and games when Mrs. C. L. Mackey entertained last night at her home for members of the Westway club of the W. B. A. Miss Lorlie Thompson, Mrs. J. J. Quinland and Martin Mackey furnished the musical numbers, the two latter accompanied by Mrs. Marian Lyman.

Mrs. Quinland sang "The Swallows" and "Song of Songs," accompanied by Mrs. Lyman. Miss Thompson furnished a group of piano selections, "Song of Love and Hope" and "The Warrior Song," by Heller. Mr. Mackey played a group of trumpet solos.

An Easter egg hunt was held following the business meeting, with Mrs. W. E. Denny receiving the first prize, and Mrs. Golda Stephenson, second.

Mrs. Mackey was assisted in serving by Mrs. Helen Lane, Mrs. Pearl Enterline, Mrs. J. P. Caldwell and Mrs. Nellie Charlton.

Mrs. Charlton will be the next hostess entertaining at 2 o'clock at her home on April 8. Assisting her will be Mrs. Edith McAnulty, Mrs. Mercedes Estes and Mrs. Lois Finley.

Guests last night were Mrs. Rose Thompson, Mrs. W. E. Denny, Mrs. James Quinland, Mrs. Elma Hamilton, Mrs. Hanna Olson, Mrs. Verna Sommers, Mrs. Golda Stephenson, Mrs. Ruby Howell, Misses Tillie Olson, Lucille Thompson, Bess Duke, Ethel Donohue and Emma McAnish.

Strawberries On Local Markets From the South

Strawberries made their entry into the La Grande market this morning and are being sold at 35c a box. The berries are grown in California where they will be available almost regularly until the local product is ready for the market late in the spring.

Another delicacy which takes its place as a herald of spring is asparagus, which has been exhibited in local store windows. Asparagus sells a drastic drop on the market this morning from 25 cents a pound to two pounds for that price.

interfere with the present organizations supporting the 18th amendment, its sponsors have explained, but is intended merely to supplement their efforts and bring together on a unified front all those favoring the amendment. It is non-partisan and non-sectarian. Among its national sponsors are:

Miss Jane Addams, Senator William E. Borah, Dr. and Mrs. Richard C. Cabot, Dr. John R. Mott, Dr. S. Parkes Cadman, Patrick H. Callahan, Senator Arthur Capper, Josephus Daniels, Frank E. Gannett, Dr. John A. Lapp, William G. McAdoo, Governor Gifford Pinchot, E. C. Sams, Admiral William S. Sims, Coach A. A. Stagg, Senator Morris Sheppard, Willis J. Abbot, Victor Donahey, Mrs. Jean Muskmore Patterson, Mrs. Schuyler Warren, and Dr. William Shaw. Thomas A. Boland was one of its sponsors.

TO MARKET WOOL IN NEW CHANNELS

to the market by removing the weight of this accumulated supply of old, coarse, low grade hair from competition with the new clip.

"As confidence in general business is restored, and the mills again need quantities of mohair as a result of better business conditions, the statistical position will have been improved to such a point that the mohair producer can look forward to better prices than if this old hair had been held as a threat to the market."
