PEOPLE WHO ARE HERE FOR A DAY.

T. A. Rhea, H. W. Bartholomew and S. W. Spencer, Heppner businessmen, were at the Hotel Pendleton today on their way home from Chicago. Mr. Rhea took a trainload of sheep to sell on the Chicago market which he disposed of to good advantage. The other two accompanied him. Mr. Rhea said he noted a marked improvement in the sheep market, the strengthening being in the form of 25 cents a head advance. "I am of the opinion," said he, "that the advance is permanent, and will be followed by further advances, although I would not attempt to say just how much higher sheep will go."

IS IT RIGHT

For an Editor to Recommed Patent Medicines?

(From Sylvan Valley News, Brevard, N. C.).

It may be a question whether the editor of a newspaper has the right to publicly recommend any of the various proprietary medicines which flood the market, yet as a preventative of suffering we feel it a duty to say a good word for Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy. We have known and used this medicine in our family for twenty years and have always found it reliable. In many cases a dose of this remedy would save hours of suffering while a physician is awaited. We do not believe in depending implicitly on any medicine for a cure, but we do believe that if a bottle of Chamberlain's Diarrhoea Remedy were kept on hand and administered at the inception of an attack much suffering might be avoided and in many cases the presence of a physician would not be required. At least this has been our experience during the past twenty years. For sale by Tallman & Co., druggists. *

We have clipped

the following from the La Grande Journal:

"About three months ago the San Francisco Examiner contained the news of a damaged vessel in the harbor containing coffee and sheep dip. The two articles of commerce were found floating in the hold, and the merchants to whom they were consigned refused to accept them, not only because they were water soaked, but because the sheep dip had not had a salutary effect upon the coffee. One of our home merchants at that time predicted that Eastern Oregon would soon be overrun with cheap coffee. There is now in this section a man who offers to sell for eight cents a grade of coffee which our merchants cannot buy wholesale for twelve. There may be some connection between the two incidents."
