What It Is.

Advertising is the life blood of the business world today, and well directed advertising is like the powerful searchlight of a river steamer, thrown upon a distant cottage on the bank, cutting it out like a picture painted on a black canvas. The timid buyer and the prospective industry will follow the rays of the searchlight of publicity, just as surely as will the eyes of the steamer's passengers follow the light thrown from their vessel. They will not search the surrounding gloom for objects of interest when a beautiful picture is clearly shown before them. Prospective buyers will not search the surrounding gloom for your competitors if the searchlight of publicity is turned on your own place of business.—Canastota (N. Y.) Bee.

Liquor's Foes Active in Texas.

Waco, Tex., Feb. 18.—Friends of the prohibition movement hope that as a result of the convention called to assemble here today a campaign against the saloon will be inaugurated similar to that waged in 1887. The immediate purpose is to inaugurate a movement to have an election upon a constitutional amendment prohibiting the sale and importation of intoxicants in the state.
