ARCADE TODAY

TOM MIX TO GO HIS RECORD ONE BETTER

Tom Mix, "the daredevil of the screen," is coming to the Arcade Theatre today, as usual under the direction of William Fox, in "3 Gold Coins," a stirring West drama by H. H. Van Loan. In this picture Mix will be seen at his best, providing innumerable thrills by daring deeds of horsemanship and marksmanship.

Mix will be seen in a double role in this picture, appearing as Bob Fleming and later as "Bad Pat" Duncan, a murdered-bandit, whom he captures and receives a $10,000 reward. Among the "daredevil" stunts which Mix stages in this thriller is the sensational escape from the court room when he leaps to the balcony and then swings successively from three buildings by means of a flagpole halyard. One of the most effective scenes is said to be that showing Mix dropping from the high flagpole when the rope is pierced by a bullet from the sheriff's revolver. Mix alights on the horse of "Bad Pat" Duncan, the bandit, and Tom taps the criminal behind the ear, knocking him out.

In the supporting cast are Margaret Loomis, Margaret Cullington, Sylvia Jocelyn, Frank Whitson, Bert Hadley and Dick Rush.

ALTA TODAY

CHARLES RAY IN A DETECTIVE ROLE IN "A VILLAGE SLEUTH"

Charles Ray has another country boy characterization in "A Village Sleuth," coming to the Alta Theater today, but this time with a brand new twist. The picture was produced by Thomas H. Ince for Paramount release.

According to the story, Charlie is a farmer's son, with aspirations to become a great detective. His bungling amateur efforts when thieves invade his father's melon patch leads to his departure from home and a new job as man of all work around a private sanitarium. Here he becomes involved in a mystery worthy of a Sherlock Holmes and wins his spurs when he solves it. Of course, there's a girl in the case.

Mr. Ray is supported by a cast including Winifred Westover, Lew Morrison and Donald MacDonald. Jerome Storm directed the picture and it was adapted from a story by Agnes Christine Johnston.
