Mrs. Alpha Bascue's showing of Spring Millinery has attracted a large number of interested ladies. The display windows were artistic with Spring blossoms, ferns and up-to-tomorrow head gear. The interior was charmingly arranged with crimson carnations, Spring flowers and a splendid variety of bee-yu-ti-ful chapeaux. As fresh as the Spring flowers themselves are the new styles. Every new straw, every new shape, every new style, every new trimming for Spring is on display at the Bascue Bonnet Bazaar.

The Annual Shamrock Tea to be given at the Public Library next Monday celebrates the tenth anniversary of the Library. Each year has recorded many achievements for the good of the town. At first the maintenance of this institution was quite a struggle but several energetic and ambition women kept at it with "punch" and "pep" until the entire town and community became interested and are now ready to help in any way they may be bidden. The public is invited to the tea. Come and enjoy a social visit with your neighbor and at the same time help a most praise worthy institution. Your offering, no matter how small or large, will be gratefully received. The past presidents of the Library Board are Mrs. P. M. Kirkland, Mrs. O. D. Butler, Mrs. J. S. Cooper, Mrs. S. B. Walker, Mrs. G. W. Conkey and Mrs. K. C. Eldridge.

Hunger, the most primitive of all emotions, according to psychologists, is the motive that supplies punch to many of the important scenes in Charlie Chaplin's new $1,000,000 comedy, "A Dog's Life," which will be shown at the Isis on Wednesday and Thursday nights, March 19 and 20. At the opening of the story, he is awakened from his outdoor sleeping quarters in a fence-corner by the tantalizing odor of steaming viands offered for sale by a passing hot-dog vendor. This leads to a number of spirited adventures with the police, who resent Charlie's ambition to eat without paying the usual fee. Later on, Charlie's faithful dog, famishing for something to test his teeth upon, digs up a well-lined pocketbook that some crooks have buried in the ground. And when Charlie attempts to spend the money that has thus been provided in a nearby cafe, he meets the big moment of his career, for it brings him into contact with a beauteous cabaret singer, who is herself starved for love and kindness.

Managers Nelson and Henkle of the Isis were in Portland this week and while there contracted for the best and most expensive Paramount and Artcraft pictures. This means that Independence will see all the great stars of filmdom including Mary Pickford, Billie Burke, Marguerite Clark, Douglas Fairbanks, Wm. S. Hart, Charlie Chaplin and Fatty Arbuckle.

The Presbyterian Needlecraft will give an Easter Bazaar on Saturday, April 19.
