We don't care particularly what kind of a league of nations we have if it will prevent war and eliminate the enormous expense of being prepared for war. It appears to us, however, that any plan to insure peace is not practical if everybody is permitted to walk around carrying a gun, a belt of knives and a pocketful of bombs.

There has been a general complaint that the Republicans are slow in getting started. Mr. Harding sitting on his front porch and Mr. Coolidge in the official chair at the Massachusetts capitol arouse but little excitement. On the other hand Mr. Cox and Mr. Roosevelt do not propose to do any mollycoddling. They're going to get the boys and girls together with bands, banners and everything and chuck the old campaign into high.

THE RHYMING SUMMARIST

In a little while, a week or two,
The poles will all be dropping,
Ten thousand hands to do the work,
Its a busy time at hopping;
More say it is an easy job
Than those who still are doubting,
And the bigger bunch
Give it a punch,
Tag it as an outing.

Jumping Jane will be on deck,
To her it has no meaning,
But a chance at so much per
To make a little cleaning;
For others it is a winter's grub
And wood for home fire burning,
Paw a shirt,
Maw a skirt,
And kids the books for learning.

Some spend the earnings as they go
In bum-around and roughing,
When the harvest days are over,
They have much less than nothing;
To Sadie it is a romantic lark,
For goo-goo eyes and mooning,
She picks hops
For 'tween the stops,
There's yum-yum-'lasses spooning.

CITY AND COUNTRY

Mr. and Mrs. Dean Walker were here from Eugene Sunday.

H. Hirschberg is vacationing at Newport being registered at the Abbey.

Dr. H. C. Dunsmore made a young couple supremely happy Sunday, Aug. 15, when he united them in marriage. They were Allen Jordan, a young man employed at the laundry, and Miss Mildred M. Oleman of Monmouth. The ceremony was performed at the home of the bride's mother in Monmouth.

Do you live in Independence? Then why not patronize her industries. Eat Liberty bread.

Win Fame As Minstrels

A party of funsters including Mr. and Mrs. Walter Plant and children, Gordon and Marjorie, Mr. and Mrs. Jas. Robbie, Mrs. U. G. Berry, Mr. and Mrs. C. O. Sloper and Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Cockle enjoyed a wienie roast and all the trimmings at Helmick's grove last Wednesday evening. After the feast they organized into a minstrel company that would in every way discount the famous Georgia minstrels. U. G. Berry, who had expected to be general manager, was unable to be present and the management was turned over to W. H. Cockle, who is very able along those lines. Mrs. C. O. Sloper had charge of the dramatic (?) make-up while her husband developed into a wonderful scenic producer. Walter had already been stung by the stage bug and it is scarcely necessary to add a single word to the praise that he has already merited with his bewitching children who played the juvenile roles. James Robbie was orchestra leader. His genius as a leader was marvelous. He featured his wife as soprano soloist, the hit of the evening being, "I'll Show Up In a Few Days." Her name now carries immense popularity with it. Mrs. Berry and Mrs. Plant appeared as the "Gold Dust Twins." They depict character sketches in a way that undoubtedly catches and holds the public eye. Mrs. Cockle was wardrobe mistress and scored a success. The creations displayed in nature's garden were a la Mack Sennett Cockle. It is hoped the Isis theater will be able to book this splendid attraction at some early date. A swim in the placid waters of the Luckiamute finished the day and a discovery was made that all that runs in the Luckiamute is not water, not by a jug full. However, the party didn't have to make any detours around hostile sheriffs and indications are they will spend more time exploring those same waters.

To Orville Butler, 80 Years Young, Monday, August 9.

Here's to your happiness; here's to your health;
And here's to your cheerful way;
Here's to your youthfulness, that is your wealth;
For you're eighty years young today.

You're the kind of a dad to have for a dad
With your fatherly, brotherly way;
A friend in our trouble and glad when we're glad,
And you're eighty years young today.

You're weathered the storms thru the storms of the years,
Yet your life's like the month of May;
Here's drinking your health, in laughter, not tears,
For you're eighty years young today.

DEAN.

"Yours for Real Tobacco" says the Good Judge

Men are getting away from the big chew idea. They find more satisfaction in a little of the Real Tobacco Chew than they ever got from a big chew of the ordinary kind.

Costs you less, too—the full, rich tobacco taste lasts so much longer.

Any man who uses the Real Tobacco Chew will tell you that.
