Gay Melodies Keynote of New Rexall Program

De Wolf Hopper Deserts Theatre to Sign for Rexall Series.

When the Kansas City Philharmonic orchestra, under the direction of Karl Krueger, late of the Vienna Imperial Opera, inaugurated its series of Sunday afternoon concerts for the REXALL stores on October 14th, it did not play the heavy and often sombre type of music that America has unfortunately associated with large orchestras heretofore.

Mr. Krueger contends that such a broadcast should be light and gay and inspirational, rather than depressing, and also assures us that there is a wealth of such compositions in the finest musical literature. The whole series of REXALL programs will be played in this gay mood.

The sponsors of this program have spared no expense to make it an excellent entertainment—even to the wooing of the stage's most famous personality, Mr. De Wolf Hopper. Mr. Hopper will serve as narrator on the program and carry on as announcer and jovial raconteur throughout the season.

The usual complement of vocal and instrumental soloists will add to the charm of these Sunday afternoon concerts and once each month, a special wire to Boston, Massachusetts, will bring Mr. Louis K. Liggett onto the air for a personal talk with the 10,000 REXALL Druggists throughout America. The program will be heard in this vicinity at 1 p. m. on station KGW. The Rexall Store in this city is Kem's for Drugs, located at Sixth and Main.
