Fall Golf Tournament Is Started

Bill Zimmerly (6) and Ray Lemley (8) Play Torrid Match to 20 Holes.

The annual handicap tournament of the Cottage Grove Golf club for the president's cup got well under way Sunday and will continue six weeks.

Those who won last Sunday remain in the championship flight. Those who lost automatically go into a consolation flight.

A novelty this year will be a second consolation flight formed from losers in the second week of play in the championship and first consolation flights. A third consolation flight may be formed of losers in the other flights the third week of play. The idea is to keep all members in play as long as possible. Local tournaments continue to be more popular than play with outside teams, and it is possible that next year home and home tournaments will be confined to country club teams.

Something new on the local course this year is the use of "byes." Multiples of 16 are necessary to have play come out even. Heretofore there have never been more than 16 players, but this year 20 qualified and "byes" will be used for this Sunday's play to give 32 places on the score card. Those who drew "byes" win this Sunday without playing anyone. "Byes" had to be used in both the championship flight and the consolation flight and may have to be used to start the second consolation flight a week later.

The hottest match Sunday was between Big Bill Zimmerly, No. 2 man on the team, with a 6 handicap, and Ray Lemley, one of the top string, with an 8 handicap. It took 20 holes for a decision, Lemley losing by putting one in the creek.

Other matches, with several yet to be played before Friday, resulted as follows:

Zimmerly Jr. (18) defeated Spray (16) 7 and 5.

Anlauf (8) defeated Holderman (26) 8 and 7.

Bede (16) defeated Wilson (20) 6 and 4.

Wiese Jr. (26) defeated N. J. Nelson (26) 7 and 5.

Daugherty (24) defeated Coiner (20) 1 up.

Morelock (8) defeated Kelly Jr. (25) 4 and 2.

Crabb (8) defeated Chambers (12) 5 and 4.

Trask (14) defeated Wells (10) 4 and 3.

Bagley (12) defeated Graber (18) 7 and 6.

Scholl (18) defeated King (20) 4 and 3.

DeYoung Sr. defeated Mills 1 up.

DeYoung Jr. defeaulted to Savage.

Wright Sr. defaulted to Lemley Jr.

Kelly Sr. defaulted to Godard.

Stowell defaulted to Berg.

Scott defaulted to Thum.

Pairings for this Sunday are as follows:
