OSU offering garden class

Sign-ups are under way for the 2003 Oregon State University (OSU) Extension Service Master Gardener Program, scheduled to start in early January.

The Master Gardener Program is designed to provide home gardeners with basic instruction in horticulture and then to use the trainees to help Extension staff members answer gardening questions from the public.

The course of study will include vegetable garden management, landscaping, plant disease, insects, management of soil and water, lawn and turf maintenance, fruit, nut and berry cultivation, growing herbs, and other related topics.

The classes will run from 9 a.m. to 4 p.m.. Thursdays for 12 successive weeks. The classes are to be held in the Extension Auditorium at 215 Ringuette St., Grants Pass.

Except for a $65 materials fee, there is no charge for the training, which is provided in exchange for volunteer educational activities.

Master Gardener activities start after the training period is completed. Each participant spends a pre-determined number of hours staffing plant "clinics." Clinics are where the public may bring questions and plant specimens for plant problem diagnosis.

For more information on how to enroll in the Master Gardener Training, contact the Josephine County Extension Office at 215 Ringuette St., or phone 476-6613.

Property Tax Appeals needs board member

Applications from volunteers to fill a vacancy on the Board of Property Tax Appeals (BOPTA) are being accepted by the Josephine County Board of Commissioners.

With the passage of Measure 50, Oregon's property tax system has been transformed from a levy-based system to a rate-based system, where taxes imposed are calculated by applying the permanent tax rates to assessed valued.

The amount of taxes imposed depends primarily on assessed value, which face annual growth limits of 3 percent, officials said.

Calculation sessions run from the first Monday in February to no later than April 15.

The deadline for accepting applications to the board is Friday, Oct. 18, according to information received Oct.10.

For more information phone (541) 474-5221.
