Monson, Mass., Dec. 27.—Search was being made today for Dr. William Grey Vermilye of Brooklyn, who disappeared yesterday while on his way here to marry Miss Ruth M. Keeney.

Dr. Vermilye, who served through the war as a senior lieutenant in the navy, was believed to have been employed by the government in a secret service work. Dr. Vermilye was active in the government campaign to round up radicals, it is believed.

He has met with foul, it is feared.

Women Of Lincoln Put Ban Upon Eggs

Lincoln, Neb., Dec. 27.—Off again, on again.

Determined to bring down eggs to a "fair" price, Lincoln women have again made the boycott effective.

Three weeks ago eggs were quoted at 85 cents a dozen. Two thousand members of the Lincoln's Women club pledged not to buy until the price dropped. Last Monday they were offered as low as 55 cents. Fair enough, said the boycotters, and the ban was lifted. Today eggs are selling at the original figure.

All right, say the women. Beginning today they will refuse to buy until the quotation is what they consider fair—65 cents per for strictly fresh ones.

"Lincoln women will rally behind the fight in a solid body," declared Mrs. N. E. Siddreth, chairman of the committee, "and will hold the line if it takes all summer."

Bohrnstedt Accused By Paper; Didn't Hit Fountain, He Avers

When A. C. Bohrnstedt of this city received his copy of the Silverton Appeal this week he was interested when his eye caught the caption "Salem Autoist Smashes Drinking Fountain." Upon further perusal of the article Bohrnstedt was more intensely interested when his own name and car number was appended to the story, which told of the wrecking of an iron drinking fountain at Main and First streets of the Silver creek city, Monday night.

Bohrnstedt says that he was in Silverton about the time mentioned, but that he is at a loss as to how his machine could have annihilated an iron fountain without bearing marks of conflict, as the machine is undamaged. However Bohrnstedt affirms that he is certainly willing to reimburse the city of Silverton for the loss of its drinking fountain if it is proven that the Bohrnstedt car was the cause of the destruction.
