SPECIAL PALM SUNDAY SERVICES

At the Star of the Sea Church the tradional Palm Sunday bless of the Palms will take place at 8:30 a.m.

Blessed palms will be distributed before the High Mass sung by the choir under the direction of Mrs. George Hannan. The entire congregation will read the Passion of Our Lord according to St. Matthew in unison.

Members of the Church are reminded that the High Mass will start a little earlier than usual because of the special ceremonies.

SOIL CONSERVATION MEETING ON APR. 16

Don McKenzie, Port Orford, will be featured as a typical cooperator of the Curry County Soil Conservation District at the annual district meeting in Brookings on April 16.

McKenzie operates a 600 acre farm on the Elk River in Northern Curry County. It is a diversified farm consisting of a grade A dairy a sheep enterprise, and forestry practices. Conservation plans call for drainage, gully control and selective logging.

The meeting will be held at the Cliff House restaurant starting at 11 a.m. Ralph Wilson, Salem, Chairman of the Oregon State Association of Soil Conservation Districts, will be the main speaker.

OLD TIMER HERE

"Ed" Lafferty has been spending a few days with his son, Neil, and wife, at the state forest service building where Neil makes his headquarters.

Mr. Lafferty, Sr. now living near Four Mile, was a Gold Beach businessman some twenty five years ago, and was surprised to see how this part of the county had grown since he was last down here. He plans to spend a part of his summer in Brookings.

SCOTTY BACK

"Scotty" Frank Blachley, is back from a hurried trip to the Veterans Hospital, Portland, feeling quite pert. He was detected interviwing Elmer Bankus regarding rejoining Art Driskell in the sidewalk supcrintendent crew.
