WANT-AD WONDERS From Mark Twain

Want Ad Enables Anemic Woman to Aid Blood Drive

Unable to give blood herself because she was anemic, Mrs. Dorothy Wilson contributed to the Red Cross blood drive by placing a Classified Ad in the Lincoln (Neb.) Star and Journal offering $5 to anyone who would substitute for her as a donor. More than a dozen persons responded.

This is first series of each week's popular Classified Advertising adventures as issued by Parks Assn., Inc., 114 Sta. Wash. 41, D. C. All Rights Reserved Parks Assn. 1956

Thanks Mrs Robert Schmeltz, Walkerton, Ind.!
