Town and County.

Another wedding is predicted for Floras creek.

School opened yesterday with a fair attendance.

Rolled barley is a specialty at the Langlois feed store.

A severe wind and rain storm has been prevailing since Sunday.

Miss Mae Miller is teaching a term of private school at Corbin.

Arthur Bartelle returned by last steamer, from his visit to the city.

E. H. Cheever is headquarters for farming implements and machinery.

Wm. Corbin, of Myrtle Point, was visiting Port Orford friends during the week.

Oscar and Merton Langlois were passengers on Friday's steamer for a visit to the Bay.

Ed. Ashman was a passenger for Coos Bay by last steamer, where he expects to spend the winter.

C. H. Crew has assumed personal management of the Centenial Saloon, which he recently purchased.

John Fromm has purchased Wm. Nordberg's fine stock ranch adjoining his own large ranch, at Brushes creek.

Miss Cooper passed down to Pistol River last week, where she will teach the first term of school in the new "Gardner district."

Will Clarno and family departed for Rogue River, last Sunday, where they will make their future home. B. W. Dean moved them down.

Dr. Green, who recently located at Dairyville, made Port Orford a visit New Years Eve. The Dr. is rapidly gaining in popularity in his neighborhood.

Married—At the residence of the bride, in Ophir precinct, Curry Co., Oregon, on January 1, 1902, Mr. Wm. Coy and Mrs. Mary Bersager, both of Curry county.

E. H. Cheever has recently added a stock of groceries to his merchandise business at Langlois, and is selling at the lowest prices possible. See change in ad.

Hon. F. A. Stewart, of Ophir, was in town last week, for the purpose of being relieved of a couple of unruly teeth, which were causing him much suffering. Dr. Caldwell sent him home rejoicing.

The editor of the TRIBUNE was absent at the county seat for a few days, and his able assistant has been quite sick, which is our excuse for any fault that may be fonnd with this issue.

J. W. Hoover, having accepted a position as representative of the Phoenix Indemnity Co., is taking a trip up the coast. He will visit Gardner, Florence, and other coast points in the interest of the company.

H. Neely and wife will next Saturday move their residence and business to the McKenzie house, in the business part of town, which was recently vacated by Will Clarno and family. Mr. Neygren is engaged in fitting up the building.

Mr. J. J. Krutzer, of Dairyville, was in Port Orford Sunday, on his way to Gold Beach and gave the TRIBUNE a pleasant call, leaving a substantial token of remembrance, and asserting his confidence in the permanency of this paper by paying five years subscription in advance. Mr. Krutzer is an expert cheese maker, having turned out some of the best cheese ever made in Southwest Oregon, and it is his purpose to engage extensively in the business at Dairyville.

The steamer Arcata arrived from the city last Friday, landing freight and passengers. Among the passengers were Mr. Wilson, bookkeeper at the Corbin mill, and two other gentlemen who came up in the interest of that company, and who, if they find conditions favorable, will erect a wire cable at some point in the vicinity of the mouth of Mussel creek, for the purpose of shipping lumber. It is said that work will soon be resumed at the mill, on a more extensive scale than ever before.

Joseph Hare, Voluntary Meterological Observer for Northern Curry, informs us that the mean temperature at his station for the year 1901, was 50.7, and total precipitation for the year, 94.52 inches.

Elvin Miller's lease of the Bay View Hotel having expired, he retired from its management, and the house was closed until further notice for the purpose of a general overhauling, renovation, and refurnishing, when it will be reopened under new management.

Mrs. Bartol, who resides at Bagnell Ferry, on Rogue River, was last week arrested on a charge of gross neglect of her infant child, aged a few months, and on a hearing before Justice Miller she was held to appear at the Circuit Court, and the child taken from her.

The Oregonian's New Year edition is teeming with valuable information for the homeseeker, the miner and the manufacturer. No more valuable present could be sent to friends in the East, and its price, including postage is but 9 cents. It contains a write-up of every county in the state.

A wool buyer from San Francisco has been interviewing the producers of this county, and made some purchases at 14 cents from those who have been holding their wool for an advance. Some of the larger holders, however, being encouraged by the present outlook, refused to sell at that price.

An interesting case in Justice's court occurred at Gold Beach, last week, the property in litigation being an old wash-tub and a clothes wringer, representing a value of perhaps $3. Costs of suit were taxed at about $15, each party paying their own costs. The plaintiff carried home the property with more than $15 worth of tongue-lashing, contributed by defendant.

The ball in Port Orford on New Years Eve is reported to have been one of the most enjoyable of the season. There were some forty visitors from Dairyville in attendance, including the band, which enlivened the occasion by discoursing music on the streets. The band boys are making rapid progress, and will soon be able to successfully compete with any of the Coos county bands.

Help... Nature

Babies and children need proper food, rarely ever medicine. If they do not thrive on their food something is wrong. They need a little help to get their digestive machinery working properly.

SCOTT'S EMULSION OF COD LIVER OIL WITH HYPOPHOSPHITES OF LIME & SODA will generally correct this difficulty.

If you will put from one-fourth to half a teaspoonful in baby's bottle three or four times a day you will soon see a marked improvement. For larger children, from half to a teaspoonful, according to age, dissolved in their milk, if you so desire, will very soon show its great nourishing power. If the mother's milk does not nourish the baby, she needs the emulsion. It will show an effect at once both upon mother and child.

The State Board of Tax Levy has completed the computation and apportionment of the state levy of taxes for the year 1902, under the provisions of the new law for the raising of state taxes. The total sum required is $892,000, and of this amount Curry county will be required ta pay $3,580, which is the least paid by any county in the state.

The county commissioners' court, last week, after due deliberation, decided according to what seems to be the popular feeling on the subject of the new road law, viz: that it is imperfect, conflicting, and impracticable in its present condition; that very little of the old law was in fact repealed, and that road work would be continued in the future as in the past, without the employment of a road master.

So far as we have been able to learn during our travels along the coast, there are but five pronounced Republican aspirants for the of office county clerk. They are all capable men, well fitted for the position, and the nomination of either of them by the Republican convention will be almost equal to election. Their names will probably be before the public in the near future, when voters will have an opportunity to discuss their resyective merits and decide between them.

Maud Miller, actress, and daughter of Joquin Miller, the poet, and Minnie Myrtle Miller, authoress and poet, died at the residence of her father, at Oakland, Cal., on December 24, last, aged 39 years, her death being attributed to a complication of heart disease, aggravated by the hard and trying experiences of the circuit stage. Maud Miller was born in this county, near Port Orford, and is remembered by many of the old settlers of Northern Curry, her mother, "Minnie Myrtle," being a sister to Mrs. M. M. Bates, for many years a resident of Port Orford.

While nearly all the school districts of the county have been supplied with the new series of school books, Port Orford children were forced to take their old books to school, yesterday, not having been able to secure the new, and now that the date for exchange is passed the cost to parents will be materially increased. This will mean increased cost to parents, which could have been avoided had they united in arranging for the exchange. While the present school is a private one, in which the new books are not actually required, both teacher and pupils are disappointed. There is no one to blame, individually, but the community, as a whole, has been neglectful and careless. The publishers have been unable to induce any one to handle the books for accommodation, giving them all profits. If some one of our business hou es would arrange to keep the books on sale it would be a great accommodation, and they would be remunerated by the good will of the community.

The American Cotton and Wool Reporter says that during the year 1901 the number of new textile mills erected or begun in the United States was 464, as compared with 531 during 1900, a decrease of 67 mills. The number of new woolen mills has increased, the total for the year being 81 as compared with 43 last year. There has been a marked falling off in the construction of new cotton mills, owing, in part to the lessened demand for cotton goods in China. No less than 110 new knit goods mills has been built during 1901. The Reporter says that the "number and magnitude of the enlargements and improvements during the past year have been phenomenal." Another interesting fact is that Northern construction increased last year, while the falling off has been chiefly in the South. Hitherto the growth in the South has been relatively faster.

The Christmas Dinner.

In spite of the fact that the word dyspepsia means literally bad cook, it will not be fair for many to lay the blame on the cook if they begin the Christmas Dinner with little appetite and end it with distress or nausea. It may not be fair for any to do that—let us hope so for the sake of the cook! The disease dyspepsia indicates a bad stomach, that is a weak stomach, rathe- than a bad cook, and for a weak stomach there is nothing else equal to Hood's Sarsaparilla. It gives the stomach vigor and tone, cures dyspepsia, creates appetite, and makes eating the pleasure itshould be.

The County Court.

A couple of weeks ago the TRIBUNE, thinking to correct a supposed error on the part of the Coquille Bulletin, and at the same time demonstrate what the editor of the TRIBUNE thought he knew, but didn't know, about the meetings of the county court, made what might be termed a "bad break," for we only demonstrated how easy it sometimes is for one to be positive he is right and yet be wrong. Had the last legislature not have meddled with the meetings of the county court our remarks on the subject would have been perfectly correct and the county court would have convened in regular session on the first Monday in January for the transaction of civil, probate and county business. But, unfortunately the last august body of Oregon law-makers got in their meddlesome work, and enacted in a manner we knew not of, resulting in our undoing, so far as an expounder of law is concerned. The county commissioners court met for the transaction of county business last week, in compliance with a new law passed at the 1901 session of the legislature, which few of our readers were aware of. The law in full reads as follows:

Section 1. That section 2335 of chapter X of the miscellaneous laws of Oregon, relating to the convening of county courts, be and the same is hereby amended to read as follows:

Sec. 2335. There shall be a term of the county court convene in each of the several counties of this state for the transaction of probate and all other civil business cognizable by county courts, except the transaction of county business, on the first Monday in each month. Such court shall be held by the county judge and shall be opened at the hour of 10 o'clock.

There shall be a term of the county court for the transaction of county business held in the several counties of this state as follows: In the counties of Baker, Jackson, Linn, Lane, Benton, Polk, Marion, Washington, Yamhill, Clackamas, Multnomah, Clatsop, and Union on the first Wednesday in each month.

In the counties of Grant, Lake, Douglas, Wasco, Crook, Morrow, Gilliam, Malheur, Tillamook, Umatilla, Klamath, Columbia, Wheeler; (provided, that in counties having a board of county commissioners said commissioner court shall be conducted by said board) on the first Wednesday in January, March, May, July, September, and November.

In the counties of Josephine, Curry, Coos, and Wallowa on the first Wednesday in January, April July and September.

In Sherman county on the first Wednesday in January, April, July and October. In Harney county on the first Wednesday in February, April, June, August, October and December.

Such commissioners court shall convene at 10 o'clock on the days named and shall be conducted by the county judge and commissioners.

Sec. 2. Inasmuch as probate business is delayed in many counties of this state, owing to statutory provisions requiring the same to be transacted at regular terms of county courts, and whereas an emergency exists, this act shall be in force from and after its passage.

Approved February 23, 1901.

THE FIRSTBORN.

Why is it that the firstborn child is so often the healthiest of a family of children? The reason seems to suggest itself. As child follows child the mother has less and less vitality; often not enough for herself and none, therefore, for her child.

Expectant mothers who use Doctor Pierce's Favorite Prescription find that it keeps them in vigorous health. They eat well, sleep well and are not nervous. When baby comes its advent is practically painless, and the mother is made happy by the birth of a healthy child. If you would be a healthy mother of healthy children use "Favorite Prescription."

"I will be very glad to say a few words for Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription," writes Mrs. P. S. Douglas, of Mansonville, Brome Co., Quebec. "During the first four months, when I looked forward to becoming a mother, I suffered very much from nausea and vomiting, and I felt so terribly sick I could scarcely eat or drink anything. I hated all kinds of food. At this time I wrote to Dr. Pierce, and he told me to get his 'Favorite Prescription' and a bottle of 'Golden Medical Discovery.' I got a bottle of each, and when I had taken them a few days, I felt much better, and when I had taken hardly three parts of each bottle I felt well and could eat as well as any one, and could do my work without any trouble (I could not do anything before). I feel very thankful to Dr. Pierce for his medicine, and I tell all who tell me they are sick, to get these medicines, or write to Dr. Pierce."

Those who suffer from chronic diseases are invited to consult Dr. Pierce, by letter, free. All correspondence strictly private. Address Dr. R. V. Pierce, Buffalo, N. Y.

Chicago Record-Herald: If the Panama shareholders have finally reached the point where realize that their investment is a total loss unless they can sell to the United States there is little doubt that an offer will be made that cannot fail to receive the serious consideration of congress. From a purely engineering point of view it seems like a piece of consumate folly to dig a canal 190 miles long, utilizing a lake whose sand bottom is shifting and uncertain, when another route only 46 miles long, in which 40 per cent of the excavation has been done, is offered upon terms that will insure this government absolute ownership and control of the waterway and at a price which will keep the total cost within the estimated cost of the longer route.

Plaindealer: A good story on Hon. A. M. Crawford has just leaked out. Our esteemed fellow-townsman recently returned home from a tour of the east and middle west and while on a brief sojourn in Missouri, he found himself traveling in company with a native evangelist. Finally our friend asked his companion where he was going. "I am on my road to heaven," replied the evangelist in sepulchral tones. "How long have you been on the road?" 'Eighteen years" answered the parson, with a solemn sigh. "Well, my friend," answered the Roseburger, "if you have been on the road to heaven for eighteen years, and have got no farther than Missouri, I don't care to travel with you I'm going back to Oregon. Good-bye.',
