William Johnson and family have moved into their new house, opposite Masterson's.

Miss Bertha Sutton has been quite sick during the past two weeks, but is slowly recovering.

Look out for the new stock of dry goods, which will arrive at Kerr & Co's by next steamer.

Born—In Port Orford, Oregon, on January 9th, 1902, to Mr. and Mrs. E. L. Marsters, a son.

Married—In Port Orford, on Sun—no, it was all a mistake—it didn't happen, and we're all disappointed.

J. C. Clark, one of the substantial citizens of Eckley precinct, made Port Orford a business visit last week.

Alf Miller returned last week from a business visit to the city. He came up on the Mandalay to Bandon.

We have about decided to quit traveling on ocean steamers and railroad trains. It's getting too risky.

The last term of county court was an unusually long term, lasting six days. The proceedings appear in full in this issue.

Every man who desires to vote this year must register in the county sometime between Jan. 6th and May 15th.

Several young men with the political bee buzzing in their bonnets are beginning to have important business affairs to look after in various parts of the county.

Sheriff Walker was up Saturday, for the purpose of serving papers in another Sixes River mining debris suit against Newt Divelbiss, Mel Fitzhugh this time being plaintiff.

P. J. Lindberg has received a nice iron fence to be erected around the grave of the late H. J. Zumwalt. He has already erected at Mr. Zumwalt's grave, a fine large monument.

The present autumn and winter, up to date has been the mildest known along the coast for many years. Grass continues good and range stock are, as a general thing, in fine condition.

Taxpayers should remember that a rebate of 3 per cent will be allowed on taxes paid before March 15th, and that a penalty of 10 per cent will be added to taxes not paid before the first Monday in April.

P. J. Masterson, the expansionist, is having a large warehouse built, adjoining the rear end of his store, which will give him much more room, and will be a very convenient annex to his store.

Port Orford people are beginning to agitate the subject of a new public hall. It is something that is badly needed, for, although the present hall is a very good one, it has become too small for the present era of increased population and prosperous times.

Treasury experts figure that the circulation of money per capita in the United States on January 1, 1902, was $28.69, against $25.19 January 1, 1899. This means a very large increase in the total of money in circulation.

Who says the weather isn't a factor in the business world? It is given as the cause of the $3,000,000 failure of the Crude Rubber Company.

EDITOR TRIBUNE:—So far as I am able to determine, the County Central Committee of the Republican party failed to organize and elect their officers after the last convention. The members appointed are, C. W. Haines, Lem Chenoweth, Asher Post, W. E. Burrow, Patrick Hughes, C. S. Winsor, J. H. Hall, M. B. Gibson, O. Ismert, A. Hardenbrook, P. Costelloe, W. White, W. R. Miller, A. Gleason. Would it not be well for the committee to make some move toward organization?

A SUBSCRIBER.

The above suggestion is very timely. The Republican party of the county is on the eve of a political campaign, and is evidently not organized or ready for the fray. Heretofore, in case there was no organized county committee, which has happened several times, the member of the State Central Committee for the county took the matter in hand, and attended to matters preliminary to calling primaries and convention, but at the present time the party has no member of the State Central Committee in the county, that position having been held by the late P. Hughes at the time of his death. It stands aspirants in hand to stir up members of the committee, and have them meet and organize.

Bandon authorities have quarantined against the rest of Coos county, and have prohibited all public gatherings in the town. The disease which prevails in that county, and has caused the scare, seems to be similar to several cases which occurred in Port Orford some weeks back. Dr. E. Mingus, health officer at Marshfield, in his quarterly report, filed with the Governor on January 8th, has the following to say regarding the conditions at Marshfield: "There is a disagreement among the local physicians as to the nature of a contagious disease which is prevalent in Marshfield. From reliable authority I have learned that it is the same disease which has shown itself throughout other parts of this state and Washington for the past two years, and which has been diognosed by the most competent physicians as smallpox. This conclusion, however, was reached by many careful observers only ofter several cases had been taken into consideration. The epidemic partaking of a mild type, some of the characteristic symptoms of smallpox are absent, but undoubted cases have arisen in those of feeble constitution. It has been noticeable that the disease has attacked those more readily who were not or did not show signs of recent successful vaccination. It attacks all ages, but the majority of cases have occurred in children, this being due to the fact that no quarantine measures have been instituted by the city authorities to control the disease, and school children have mingled freely, some of them having the eruption on their bodies while upon the street. In all it is estimated that 250 cases have occurred in Marshfield, with one death. The services of a physician were not required in a number of cases on account of the mildness of the attacks. At the time of this report only a few cases remain."

At a recent meeting of the Spelling Reform Association in Chicago, the members expressed themselves as pleased at the progress which the reform movement in spelling of English words is making. Attention was called to the list of words adopted four years ago by the National Educational Association, which are now used by many publications. This list is composed of the following shortened forms: "Program," "tho," "altho," "thoro," "thorofare," "thru," "thruout," "catalog," "prolog," "decalog," "demagog," and "pedagog."

Gold Beach News.

Gold Beach, Jan. 12, 1902.

C. J. Smith has recovered sufficiently to be on the street again.

Hardy Stewart, of Ophir, was in town Friday and Saturday.

Mel Fitzhugh, from Sixes river, was shaking hands with friends in town Thursday.

Sheriff Walker is attending to official business in the north end of the county.

W. W. Wren, one of the owners of the Lake in the Woods copper mines, is in town. He reports all quiet out at the mine, with plenty of copper and considerable frost in sight.

It is reported by reliable parties that the Copper Queen left San Francisco last Monday for Rogue River, with a load of merchandise, but up to date she has failed to show up.

We are reliably informed that E. B. Burns will open the hotel on the flat, and also conduct a small store in Gold Beach, as soon as the Copper Queen reaches here.

R. E. Guthridge, of Dothan, is in town, awaiting the arrival of the Copper Queen. Richard says his parents are well suited with their location at Dothan. His father conducts a feed stable and hotel at that place and is doing a good business.

County Court continued until Wednesday, January 8. Considerable time was consumed in going over the books of the different Co. officials. With the exception of a few slight errors and omissions the books were found to be correct.

Johnny Fry and Frank Lowery are now engaged in running the little gasoline boat "Flyer," from Wedderburn to the mouth of the Illinois river. So far the boat is doing a good business, but is considerably too small for the trade. First class cabin fare is $3 for the round trip. We hope the boys will meet with the success they deserve.

Friday the tug crossed out over the bar to make soundings before taking out the schooner Berwick and bringing in the Del Norte, which is outside. There was but little water in the channel, and the tug struck several times in going out, and after starting back was struck by three heavy breakers, that threw her onto the middle ground, where she remained until about noon Saturday, when she was floated, and was found to be but slightly damaged. The bar is in a very bad condition, and the channel very narrow and shallow, and at low tide a sandbar extends nearly across the mouth of the river, and at high tide is only covered by a few feet of water. It was on this bar that the tug stuck fast. No blame is attached to any one. It was only a case of not enough water in the channel and not enough power in the tug, whose machinery is old and badly out of order.

Getting Thin

is all right, if you are too fat; and all wrong, if too thin already.

Fat, enough for your habit, is healthy; a little more, or less, is no great harm. Too fat, consult a doctor; too thin, persistently thin, no matter what cause, take Scott's Emulsion of Cod Liver Oil.

There are many causes of getting too thin; they all come under these two heads: overwork and under-digestion.

Stop over-work, if you can; but, whether you can or not, take Scott's Emulsion of Cod Liver Oil, to balance yourself with your work. You can't live on it--true--but, by it, you can. There's a limit, however; you'll pay for it.

Scott's Emulsion of Cod Liver Oil is the readiest cure for "can't eat," unless it comes of your doing no work--you can't long be well and strong, without some sort of activity.

The genuine has this picture on it, take no other.
If you have not tried it, send for free sample, its agreeable taste will surprise you.

Papal Policy in Philippines.

William E. Curtis cables from Rome that Mgr. Sbarretti, the apostolic delegate to the Philippines, has instructions to surrender the real estate of the friars to the Government on payment of the indemnity awarded by the courts, but intimates that the church will not substitute American priests for the members of religious orders now in the islands.

The land question, which seems in a fair way to be disposed of, is undoubtedly an important one. In seven provinces of Luzon and in the Island of Cebu and Mindora the holdings of the Dominicans, Augustinians and Franciscans amount to about 403,000 acres. The total does not seem large when we compare it with the area of Luzon, which is 44,000 square miles, but the possessions in some of the provinces are considerable enough to account for a popular protest. Thus in Cavite the Spanish monks have controlled 121,747 acres; in Laguna 62,172 acres; in Manila, 50,145.

It would certainly be an excellent thing if these great estates were divided among the people, whether we look at the matter from the political or economical point of view. Therefore, the suggestions of the Taft Commission that the Government should first acquire them from the religious orders and then lease or sell them to the natives is a sound one, and, fortunately, the attitude of the Vatican will help to bring the desired object about. It remains only for Congress to take action in the matter, so that the agents of the Government may proceed with the necessary means and authority.

But, satisfactory as the outlook is in this regard, it would be a serious mistake on the pope's part to insist on the retention of the friars, since the most bitter feeling exists against the men and their methods. Furthermore, it would cause a most unpleasant surprise, because it has been announced several times that their removal had been ordered. This is, of course, a question to be settled by the church itself, since our Government could not discriminate against persons, but it would be a sagacious move for the church to relieve the government of an embarrassment that is due entirely to the excessive unpopularity of the priests.—Chicago Record-Herald.

Postmaster General Smith has hit out from the shoulder at the publishers of the fake publications, who have been circulating a report that the Postoffice Department had ruled that only subscriptions paid in advance would be recognized as legitimate in considering a publication's right to second-class mail privilege, by officially stating that no ruling had been made which interferes with or curtails reasonable credit to legitimate publications and asking that publishers should not take alarm at false reports designed to embarrass reforms in progress. The publishers of the fakes are seeking to create a sentiment among legitimate publishers that will enable them to get Congress to call a halt in heading off abuses of second-class mail privileges, which is being conducted by the postal authorities.

The bill introduced by Senator Hoar giving the Federal courts exclusive jurisdiction in cases of attacks on or lynching of foreign residents of the United States, which was introduced at the request of the government of Italy, and which is now before the Senate committee on Foreign Relations, has stirred up the defenders of the doctrine of States rights, who will fight it as an attempt to infringe those rights. Similar bills have been knocked out in previous Congresses, and the chance of this one becoming a law is very slim.

Brooklyn Eagle: Only a quibbler will quarrel with the statement that every man works for a living. Those who do not are the exceptions proving the rule, and they are exceedingly unhappy. Another innovation typical of the strenuous life of Chicago is providing telephones at the tables of the restaurants where business men dine. They cannot stop to eat without doing business. Three cafes of the city are already using them.

The duel in the dark was a favorite with duelists. Two men were locked in a dark room and crawled stealthily from corner to corner, until some false step made one of them the target for bullet or blade.

Life is a duel in the dark with disease. One false step, one mistake, and the attack comes swift and sudden. The mistake which commonly opens the way for an attack by disease is neglect of the symptoms of stomach trouble. When eating is followed by undue fullness, belchings, sour or bitter risings, etc., disease is attacking the stomach.

The best way to frustrate such an attack is to use Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery. It cures diseases of the stomach and other organs of digestion and nutrition, and makes the body strong and healthy.

"I was suffering very much with my head and stomach," writes Mrs. W. C. Gill, of Weldon, Shelby Co., Ala., "head was so dizzy when I would raise up in bed would fall right back. Could eat but very little, in fact scarcely anything, there seemed to be a heavy weight in my stomach so I could not rest; I had to belch very often and would vomit up nearly everything I ate. I was in a bad condition. I took four bottles of Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery and five of his 'Favorite Prescription' and am now well and hearty. I feel like a new woman and give Dr. Pierce's medicines credit for it all. I had taken medicine from physicians without any benefit as I could see."

Dr. Pierce's Common Sense Medical Adviser is sent free on receipt of stamps to pay expense of mailing only. Send 21 one-cent stamps for the paper covered book, or 31 stamps for the cloth-bound. Address Dr. R. V. Pierce, Buffalo, N. Y.
