Both the wise man and the fool measure others by themselves. Alas! what an unreliable standard, from Solomon to an idiot.

Did you ever think that it is Faith and not Love that is blind. Without Faith, Love opens his charmed eyes and flies away.

A Japanese in Portland sued his wife for divorce, and got it too! What further evidence of their advanced enlightenment do we want.

Bryan addressed an immese audience at Coopers Union in New York last week, and thousands were turned away for want of room. This attests his popularity.

An effort is being made by Coos bay boomers to advertise a "Coos bay Gravenstein." Why gentlemen, the Coquille country has ten acres of orchard land to every one on Coos bay. Even to call them "Coos County Gravensteins" would not be just to your neighbors. Be liberal, and call them "Coast Gravensteins" and we will all join hands.

Jonathan Carver wrote the word "Oregon" in a book published in 1778. He first heard the word spoken by Minnesota Indians in 1776. It is no doubt a word of purely Indian origin, and its resemblance to other words is accidental and not at all without parallels galore. Its origin however, is of little importance compared to the fact that it is one of the most beatiful names of all our states.

The Tin Plate companies of Pittsburg, which are part of the gigantic Steel Trusts, have closed down, throwing thousands of men out of work and have declared that they will place non-union men in all their plants. This unwise action will precipitate trouble, the inevitable result of the struggle between capital and labor under present conditions. But these troubles are educational, and the outcome will be the enslavement of the workingman or government control.

One of the weak points in our School Laws, is that they do not emphatically and specifically provide a method by which school books can be supplied to our rural districts. The publishers should be required to make necessary deposits of books at a common center, or centers, in every county, and provisions should be made that if they fail to do so, then the Directors shall make the necessary selection to hold good for the ensuing school book term. School has been running in Port Orford for two weeks, and yet there are 10 or 12 pupils who cannot attend because they cannot get the necessary books. We do not favor a State Series at all, but believe in leaving the selection entirely with the Districts. We would thus get better books and much cheaper ones. We had better ones forty years ago.

Hood's Sarsaparilla

Has surpassed all other medicines, in merit, sales and cures.

Its success, great as it has been, has apparently only just begun.

It has received by actual count more than 40,000 testimonials in two years.

It purifies the blood, cures all blood diseases, all humors and all eruptions.

It strengthens the stomach, creates an appetite and builds up the whole system.

It cures that tired feeling and makes the weak strong.

In usual liquid form or in chocolated tablets known as Sarsatabs. 100 doses $1.

The Renewal a Strain.

Vacation is over. Again the school bell rings at morning and at noon, again with tens of thousands the hardest kinds of work has begun, the renewal of which is a mental and physical strain to all except the most rugged. The little girl that a few days ago had roses in her cheeks, and the little boy whose lips were so red you would have insisted that they had been "kissed by strawberries," have already lost something of the appearance of health. Now is a time when many children should be given a tonic which may avert much serious trouble, and we know of no other so highly recommended as Hood's Sarsaparilla, which strengthens the nerves, perfects digestion and assimilation, and aids mental development by building up the whole system.

A Foolish Judge.

In the case of Bowlsby who was lately acquitted at Astoria for killing (not murdering) Jennings, over domestic trouble, the Judge instructed the jury that there was no such thing as "Unwritten Law," despite the fact that it has been pleaded for centuries and thousands of men have been promptly acquitted by many sensible juries, for slaying seducers. It is said that not an instance can be cited in English Jurisprudence where a man was ever punished for slaying the seducer of his wife, mother, sister or daughter. And yet, despite these facts, founded upon the noblest sentiment inherent in the hearts of manly men, there are fool Judges on the bench and human monsters among the District Attorneys, who strive as hard to hang these brave defenders of the sanctity of home and society, as they would to hang the worst criminal known to law. All honor to the jurors who have ever bravely stood between the defenders of the home and the ghoulish officers who murder them with the "Written Law" which emanated from man, and have given their verdicts on the higher grounds of the "Unwritten Law" which emanated from God.

The C. A. Smith Lumber and Manufacturing Co., is doing some dredging work individually in preparation for a large lumber vessel, the "Nan Smith," which has just been completed at Newport News. It will be a steel schooner and will carry 2,225,000 feet of lumber and will be the largest lumber schooner on either the Atlantic or Pacific Coast and will be operated exclusively out of Coos Bay. The schooner has just been launched and will be brought around the Horn by Captain Nelson, formerly master of the M. F. Plant, plying between this port and San Francisco, and will reach Coos Bay about February 1.—Oregonian.

Pittsburg, Pa., Oct. 22.—More than 3,500 men employed in the Pittsburg district were laid off Saturday. The Sharon plant of the American Sheet and Tinplate company closed down completely, and the officials would give the 2,000 men no promise when it would resume. The Westingtonhouse interests laid off 1,500 men. The Westinghouse airbrake plant was placed on half time and 800 employers were allowed to go. The Union Switch and Signal company dispensed with 700 men. Members of the Amalgamated Association of Iron and Steel Workers assert that the closing down of the Sharon Tinplate works was not because of lack of orders, but because of the determination of the United States Steel company, of which the tinplate company is a subsidiary, to place non union men in every plant operated by it.

Chicago, Oct. 17—E. H. Harriman today appealed to the people of the United States, the newspapers and the press associations to see that the railroads got fair play before the inter-state commerce commission. He suggested that the newspaper and press association people hold a meeting to devise regulations for the railroads.

"The railroads," he said, are suffering from unjust agitation of questions unfairly presented them and from the enforcement of unjust and discriminative laws.

"The court where many of these injustices have been inflicted is the interstate commerce commission. Some of these injustices make the railroad men sick at the stomach. A remedy can be procured by the press by asking the commission to consider the defense and complaints at the same time."

Harriman said that the roads realize that there must be governmental regulation, but that in the present agitated state of the public mind the roads are prevented from getting justice.

San Francisco, Oct. 19—Panic reigned on board the steam schooner Olympic when it struck a huge whale with such force as to shake the vessel from stem to stern and to tear from the side of the monster an eight-foot strip of flesh, dyeing the sea a deep red for a hundred yards astern.

When twenty miles off Tatoosh island four whales were seen a short distance ahead. They disappeared for a time but within fifteen minutes a spray from the largest fell on deck and almost instantaneously the bow of the schooner rose out of the water. An alarm was sounded and the crew scurried to the danger posts, fearing the vessel had struck a rock.

Second Officer Oscar Storgeon said of the accident:

"I was on the bridge when I saw the whales. They disappeared when we drew close. Then the ship's bow jumped out of the water as if we had struck a rock.

"The whale that we had collided with remained under the water for about 40 minutes. Then it arose to the surface and we could see that the chunk of flesh ripped out by the bow had caused its death. We got under way without further incident.—Journal.
