ANNOUNCEMENT

In taking charge of the TRADERS' day and Auction Sale to be held in Vale monthly I am working in co-operation with the business houses and Chamber of Commerce of Vale. A partial list of the bargains offered at this sale are listed in this page. Others will be shown in the window displays of the different stores on Sales day.

The auction sale feature is to be made very strong and those having goods to auction on sales day should bring them to Vale several days before sales day if possible, so I can list and advertise them. I have a place in which to store these goods.

Send or leave with me a list of your live stock that will be for sale at auction at least a week before sales day if possible. If the stock feature will justify I expect to have several stock buyers present to bid on your offers.
