OCHOCO REVIEW.

SATURDAY, JANUARY 16, 1886.

LOCAL, PERSONAL AND GENERAL.

Eggs are only worth twenty cents per dozen.

Frank McBean returned to Lake Owen on Monday's stage.

Don't forget to prepare for the firemen's mask ball, Feb. 14.

All hands at Sidell's store have been busy taking stock this week.

The Prineville literary society flourished last Wednesday evening.

Rev. Walker and Miss Mary Wheeler are over from the Warm Springs agency.

Arthur Johnson has been a visitor into the metropolitan city of Prineville this week.

P. Perkins and A. Dodham, of Hay creek, were in town the latter part of the week.

Persons just out from The Dalles report the roads in pretty fair condition for travel.

Three private schools are running in Prineville, all with a good number of pupils.

Thomas and Jerry, two prominent characters at the bar, have retired for the season.

L. Sanders shipped eight head of fine work horses from Portland to Canyon City last week.

Dave Chandler and bride of Camp Polk, were in town Tuesday on their way home from Corvallis.

A compromise was made between the school directors and taxpayers of this district, and the tax roll for 1885 will be collected immediately.

Judge Hudson is occupying the room formerly occupied by Geo. W. Barnes at the old court house. Short justice's court will be held in the house.

"Uncle Sandy" Wright sold his ranch with no adjoining, near Independence, of the Lonesome public school district, to Geo. Ward, Sunday, and on Monday moved to town.

The town council has taken hold with the vicious of the town very properly by ordering that signs be posted in the saloons. This is point for the dear little fellows.

We hear that our townsman, C. S. Smith, is making rapid progress with his studies at the Portland business college. We hope that he will soon graduate and return to Prineville.

As will be seen by referring to our advertising columns, C. S. Smith is now sole owner of the Prineville saloon. Sam has a pleasant smile for all, and keeps a good stock of the ardent.

Jas. Hamilton, Frank Gomez and the Gibson brothers left for the mountains on a hunting and prospecting trip last Tuesday. They taken bedding for water and ranches on the desert.

From the interest all seem to take in it it would appear that "beauty only" and "anti-scalp beauty" will be the issue of the next county election, in the make-up of the county court at least.

It is reported here that Hiram Dillard, editor of the Harney News, is father of a brand new pair of twins (twins). Horace only reported one, but if there are two, Horace, he is man and twin.

Married—At Brownsville, Linn county, Wednesday, Jan. 6, Mr. Garrett Sharpes to Mrs. Lizzie Nichols. Garrett's many friends here join us in wishing him much joy, and congratulating him on his good fortune.

In our eulogy on the "New Boy" last week, we did not intend to give a new name to our worthy citizen, R. L. Allen, but within the last few days we have been shocked by hearing him called "Bean" Allen.

On last Monday John Circles had a span of two-year-old Clydesdale colts on exhibition in the streets. One weighed 1100 pounds and the other 1250 pounds. They are the best two-year-olds we have seen in the country.

Now that Dr. Wright offers to take stock and poultry for dental work, there is no excuse for your having bad teeth. Bring in your stock and be children and get your teeth fixed. Doc is just the man who can fix them.

Minor Lewis returned from Portland last Saturday. Strange as it may seem, he was not broke either—he had just three nickels, though he was minus considerable sole leather. He says the roads are not in good condition for tramping.

M. L. Pipes has assumed control of the Benton Leader, and from the way he puffs himself, one would imagine that he was going to make it a No. 1 paper. The Leader has discarded the "patent" header, and is much improved in appearance.

Richard Graham and Ben Allen deserve much credit for the business like manner in which they are pushing their new milling enterprise. They are rushing things, and a large force of teams and hands will be in demand in a few days.

George Slayton has been retained to teach another month in the Mill creek district. We are glad to learn that the people of that district are well pleased with George as a teacher, and they think he is the best teacher they have ever had.

Pay taxes to taxpayers in another column.

The wood work of the new Masonic hall is completed.

Henry Hamilton took a trip to the John Day country this week.

Frank Hampton, of The Dalles, is here for the purpose of buying beef.

The dance at Glass's hall last night was pleasant, though the crowd was small.

Some of our gentlemen talk of selling out here and moving to Silver Creek in the spring.

Judge C. A. Nace from Canyon came down on his ranch Thursday, and took the oath of office of county judge.

The old court house is being fixed up for a restaurant. We understand that a Mr. Wagner will be in charge.

Brown & Son received a fine stock of harness this week. If you want to see your way clearly, give them a call.

At the last meeting of the town council an ordinance was passed allowing the marshal a salary of $25 per month.

Miss Alice Dunham has been engaged to teach a term of school at the Antelope school house on Upper Crooked river.

Wanted—To be judge of the example for all school ladies, the absolutely perfect model among linguists and attorneys at present.

Uncle Jake Ellis, who had been quarantined three weeks made slight inroads by employing his pocket several times on the street.

On Thursday afternoon about three inches of the beautiful fell, and since that time sleigh bells have been ringing in every conceivable direction.

P. M. Howard, advertised at Hickey & Brooks, will start for Butte City, Montana, about the first of next month. He expects to engage in a mining company.

E. Gardner has bought of C. S. Smith his saloon fixtures which he used last Monday and Tuesday. Gardner will open up in a few days in the room formerly occupied by Smith.

W. H. M. Thompson, of Upper Crooked river, was in town on Tuesday of last week. He reports the stock in Eastern Oregon in good condition, and the sheep industry in a healthy condition.

The patrons who purchased table linens of Mrs. Wright, report that they have saved several hundred dollars already. They will make a handsome acquisition, and expect to have clean linen by next spring.

Mr. Lang, formerly of the firm of Lang & Bryan, cattle owners, in the county, and our townsman, one of the opinions that he was lay up a fund in stock cattle and drive them to Indian reservation next spring.

Arthur Hodges returned from a long sojourn in Portland Tuesday. He says the roads in the Willamette valley are very muddy, some days snowing in others, but he seemed perfectly satisfied with a good humor, his usual state.

Prineville's new engine has arrived here safely. It was not yet a week between the time the order was given and the time it arrived, making Mr. Wheeler, the gentleman who handled it out from the shop, to be a 30 days leader.

We understand that Jack Russell intends removing to Prineville. We hope that he may and that he will settle all accounts against him when he returns, as by doing so he will reestablish the confidence he once had in others, otherwise he will be known only as a loser and a skedaddler.

The members of the Wool-Growers' association have agreed to spend the first week in February running coyotes. We understand that Jim Ford, Tom Baldwin, J. S. Gibson and Z. M. Brown will make it lively for the wild dogs on the prairie when they enter the chase.

"I don't know when the sun went down, and left her where the old man came home," was the way one of our boss dudes gave in his experience to a crowd of his friends the other evening just after having been assisted out of the room near on the top of his old man's No. 11.

The murmur of the winds tells us that a certain young couple from the country will be married in Prineville next week, but the sound was not sufficiently audible for us to catch the names, nevertheless we shall wish the noble young man a season of honey-moon after the wedding.

A certain attorney of this town, who has been admitted to practice in the state supreme court and in the U. S. district and circuit courts, attempted to manage a case in a church trial here a few days ago, but was informed that his credentials were "no good," and that he would have to be admitted to the court of the Lord before he could take a part in the trial. As the case was pretty thick on the river, he gave up the case, determined to learn the text-book applying for a certificate to practice before that tribunal.

At Reduced Rates.

E. R. Carey, of the Prineville meat market, has on hand, of his own manufacture, 15,000 pounds of bacon and lard, which he will sell at the following reduced prices:

| | |
|---|---|
| Shoulders | 11c |
| Sides | 12½ |
| Hams | 14 |
| Lard | 15 |

The West Shore.

The January number of the West Shore is a work of art. It contains sixteen full pages of illustrations of Portland, which for design and execution rank, with the best art work produced anywhere. A large colored supplement of the splendid high school recently completed accompanies the number. It is most artistically executed, and is of itself well worth a year's subscription. The number contains a description of Portland and the usual amount of choice matter and useful information about the Northwest. The publisher promises other colored supplement during the year and a general improvement upon even the present high standard of which the January number is ample evidence. The people of the Northwest should feel proud of such a splendid representative as the West Shore, which richly deserves the liberal support it receives. We are pleased that the great improvements being made indicate an enlarging subscription list and a corresponding increase of benefit to the Northwest from the extension of its influence.

The New Engine.

The long-looked-for new fire engine arrived here on Wednesday afternoon and was given a partial test. It is a Button, No. 2, and from all appearances is all the company represented it to be. The company took the apparatus out on Main street beyond Hickey's hotel, and with twenty men on the brakes, threw water 104 feet, though it was not a fair test as there was about an inch of snow on the ground, which prevented the men from working to a good advantage, and the wheels were found all now bearings to require some time. The firemen are well satisfied with their machine and now think they have as good apparatus as any volunteer company in the state. A fair test will be given the engine as soon as the weather will permit, and then we will be able to tell what it will do, but as the weather is now, there is little chance for the firemen to get out and test their new apparatus.

An Answer.

The Rural Spirit of the 8th says: "It comes to us that Mr. Barnes and Mr. Smith, of Prineville have matched two half brothers (both by Winters)," and asks if the report is true? It is not. But the race which the Spirit has heard of is probably the one mentioned some time ago in the Review—a race made by E. T. Foley and C. S. Smith, for $2,000 a side, to be run on the 4th of next July, Foley backing E. Barnes' two-year-old filly, by Winters, out of Tidal Wave, and Smith backing his colt Shyster, by Winters; distance, one and one-half miles. The colts are both well bred, coming from very nearly thoroughbred mares, and the race will be for blood. Shyster was on the Prineville tracks last fall, and won both the six-hundred-yard and three-quarter races for two-year-olds. The filly is untried.

An Obituary (?)

It is with swelling hearts that we write "'Barty' is no more," for the startling intelligence has just reached us that he has gone the way of all unprotected bachelors. Wednesday, January 6, 1886, at Brownsville, Linn county, Oregon, after a somewhat distracted illness, a justice of the peace pronounced the obsequies. A diagnosis of his case established the fact that the cause of his unexpected demise was an affection of the heart, probably better known as Mrs. Lizzie Nichols. His many friends here will be glad to learn that his last hours were rendered easy by the helping hands of companions, who stayed by him to the last, and cheered him up as the last hours of bachelorhood ebbed away, and that kind hands smoothed his shroud as they laid him to rest.

Postoffice Notice.

The office hours of the Prineville postoffice, on Sundays, will be from 9 to 11 A. M. and 4 to 6 P. M.

31-32 J. F. MOORE, P. M.

Too Warm in Their Reception.

Last Saturday the dinner table of the Jackson House was the scene of considerable merriment, caused by one of the boarders treating a few friends to boiled tongue with caper sauce as a relish, the sauce being made of one caper, a small tomato and two bottles of red pepper. Dr. Geiner was the first to sample the sauce, but had scarcely got it to his mouth, when he began crying, "water, water, more water." Doc's burning desire for water had hardly been satisfied, when Frank McBean entered the room and was seated near the caper-sauce, and was urged to partake of it, which he professed to be particularly fond of. "Take some more, Frank," was the call of everyone at the table, but Frank had enough, one mouthfull sufficed. Great tears gathered in his eyes, and he also sat up the cry for water. "D——n your souls, would you set there like monkeys and see me choke?" he yelled as soon as he recovered from the first convulsion. The vicinity of the hole became too tropical for endurance, so the dinner broke up.

Frank took the next stage for home, remarking as he left, "that the people of Prineville were very hospitable, but their manner of entertaining was too warm for him."

The Wool Clip of 1885.

The wool clip of Oregon and Washington for the year 1885 was 14,000,000 pounds, the largest in the history of the Northwest. The clip was 3,000,000 pounds in excess of 1884 and 4,000,000 ahead of 1883. The clip for the last three years was as follows: Eastern Oregon and Washington territory for 1883, 6,500,000; 1884, 8,500,000; 1885, 11,500,000. Willamette and Umpqua valleys produced during each of the years about 1,500,000, showing that this industry thrives only east of the mountains. The gross increase of sheep here for 1885 was over 60 per cent, while west of the mountains they have only kept up the old stock. The wool market has reached its lowest point, and now there is a healthy and steady advance, with no glutted market anywhere, and the factories throughout the United States running on full time with a steady demand for woolen goods.

Who Can Deny Such Facts?

That the amount of money needed to build the locks at the Cascades and at The Dalles, and open up river navigation from Astoria to Lewiston, Idaho, 510 miles, would in the difference of reasonable rates, be repaid to the people of the Columbia basin within the limit named, in three or four years; yet such has been the disposition to enter upon fraudulent movements in the shape of government grants that movements favoring the people cannot be enacted.—Wasco Sun.

Shipping Sheep.

A sheep grower of Washington territory, writing to a Northern Pacific official, says that without the double-deck cars it will be impossible for sheep growers to make a profit on shipments to the Chicago market. He says he shipped 2,114 fat sheep to Chicago and lost on them, shipping them from St. Paul in single deck cars. The cars cost $3,408; decks for twelve cars, $78; incidentals, $185; total, $3,366. The net receipts for the sheep were $3,392; a loss of $274.—Heppner Gazette.

Church Notice.

The Prineville Baptist Church holds service in Union Church on the 3d and 4th Sabbath days in each month, at 11 A. M. and 8 P. M. Convenant meeting 3d Saturday at each month at 11 A. M.

T. CLAY NEECE, Pastor.
W. A. RAY, Clerk.

Until further notice, and subject to temporary changes by the church, I will preach as follows:

| | | | | |
|---|---|---|---|---|
| 1st | Sab. | 11 | A. M. | Johnson Creek. |
| 2d | " | 8 | P. M. | Willow Creek. |
| 3d | " | 11 | A. M. | Prineville. |
| " | " | 8 | P. M. | Upper Wilson. |
| 4th | " | 11 | A. M. | Upper Ochoco. |
| " | " | 8 | P. M. | Howard. |

IRA WAKEFIELD,
Pastor M. E. Church, Prineville.

Announcement.

Hereafter I will take in payment for dental work cattle, horses, wood and poultry, allowing the highest market price for the same.

31-39 G. S. WRIGHT, Dentist.

Mitchell Items.

MITCHELL, Jan. 10, 1886.

The excitement attending the holidays having now subsided, everybody has dropped into the old beaten path, and times are pretty dull.

The weather is very fine for this time of year. The snowfall thus far has been light, and teams are still passing to and from Summit Prairie.

On Jan. 3d, Mr. J. T. Chamberlain was presented with a branded boy, and the "bald-headed" editor of the Review will take notice that he has been named George W.

"The Boys" have concluded to have another "entertainment" sometime in the near future, and from the looks of the manuscript some of them are studying, they will have to keep sober all the time in order to commit their parts.

Some of the young men in this vicinity have an idea that the way to keep sleigh from moving over is to hold on to the girl, as they seem to have an utter disregard of the lines.

Bro. Riley is having immense success laboring in the vineyard at the Lodge on West Branch. Among the late converts baptized was Rufus Edmonson, better known as Bob, who is understood contemplates something worse than christianity in the near future.

It is also reported that some parties living in the vicinity of the "meeting house" are liable to be short of "grub" before spring, if the meetings continue.

On Jan. 3d, Mr. Z. T. Keyes was unfortunate enough to lose his fine dwelling house by fire. It was insured for $1000 two years ago, but it is understood to be insured, but as Zack is visiting in the Eastern states this winter, no true estimate can be formed of his real loss.

There was a serious alteration at Dayville, Grant county, a few days ago, between Sam Miller and a blacksmith named Taylor, in which Taylor got out so bad that he died in twenty-four hours. Millerite under bonds. Statements in regard to the row differ considerably, and it is impossible to tell at present how it originated. Miller was in Prineville about two years ago, and staid several weeks.

Mr. Chas. Woods has fled to the mountains of Rock creek, with the intention of "taking up" a ranch and becoming a granger. PARSO.

Pastor's Report.

Following is the report of the pastor of the Prineville Baptist Church:

Prineville Baptist Church was constituted in 1871, with 18 constituent members.

There has, since that date, been added to the church 66 members, making a total of members upon our church record of 84. Of these members, two have been excluded, three have died, and 24 have been dismissed by letter. Present membership, 55. Of these, 14 are non-resident members.

During the first twelve years of this church's labors, 33 were added to their numbers, making an average of 2 11-12 members per annum.

Since July 1, 1883, to January 1, 1886, there has been added to our numbers 31 members, making an average of 12 2-5 members per annum. Of these 31 additional members, 20 have been received by baptism, 7 by letter, and 4 by relation.

T. CLAY NEECE, Pastor.

In reverence to Eld. F. M. Long, my most worthy predecessor in this pastorate, that I have not been able to ascertain the number added during his pastorate, on account of the dates being blank in several instances previous to July 1st, 1883.

T. CLAY NEECE.

PRINEVILLE, OR., Jan. 11, 1886.

Stock is hereafter to be sent by rail East, attached to the passenger train, at the following rates: Missouri river points, $525 a car; Mississippi points, $600 a car. These rates will apply from all Pacific coast terminal points.

Beer for Credit.

A year ago the idea of Prineville owning a first-class fire engine and apparatus was thought Utopian. But to-day such an article is standing in the house, ready for service at a moment's warning. This result was made possible by the untiring efforts of those in whose hands the matter was first placed—a committee appointed by the fire company to solicit subscription to a fund of $900 with which to buy it—and the town council of 1885, who so carefully managed the finances of the town, as to lay by $400, which added to the $600 raised by subscription, made it possible to make a payment of $1000 on the new engine, and secure the payment of the balance. These gentlemen are certainly deserving of much credit for their labors and management, and should our town ever need protection against fire, they will receive the thanks of all.

Stray Freight.

Yesterday Jesse Wright, a freighter from The Dalles, unloaded nine cases of dried fruit at Bowman & Co.'s and one barrel of whiskey, for which he could find no owner. The fruit is marked W. H. H. S., Prineville, and the whiskey H. & S., The Dalles. Mr. Wright got the freight from Greely's warehouse at The Dalles. Any one owning the articles described, can have them by paying freight and for this ad. and by proving property.

Senator Mitchell has introduced bills appropriating $1,000,000 for the improvement of the mouth of the Columbia, $700,000 for the improvement of the entrance to the Yaquina bay, the same amount for the improvement of Coos bay, and $750,000 for completion of the Cascade locks.

A BARGAIN!
