Stories of Adventure. A serial by CONAN DOYLE, in which he will use his extraordinary talent for mystery and ingenuity which have, in the "Sherlock Holmes" stories, given him a place beside Poe and Gaboriau.

HOW TO FIND OUT.

Fill a bottle or common glass with urine and let it stand twenty-four hours; a sediment or settling indicates an unhealthy condition of the kidneys. When urine stains linen it is evidence of kidney trouble. Too frequent desire to urinate or pain in the back, is also convincing proof that the kidneys and bladder are out of order.

WHAT TO DO.

There is comfort in the knowledge so often expressed, that Dr. Kilmer's Swamp-Root, the great kidney remedy fulfils every wish in relieving pain in the back, kidneys, liver, bladder and every part of the urinary passages. It corrects inability to hold urine and scalding pain in passing it, or bad effects following use of liquor, wine or beer, and overcomes that unpleasant necessity of being compelled to get up many times during the night to urinate. The mild and the extraordinary effect of Swamp-root is soon realized. It stands the highest for its wonderful cures of the most distressing cases. If you need a medicine you should have the best. Sold by druggists, price fifty cents and one dollar. You may have a sample bottle and pamphlet both sent free by mail. Mention the Heppner Gazette and send your address to Dr. Kilmer & Co., Binghampton, N. Y. The proprietors of this paper guarantee the genuineness of this offer.

A convicted murderer of Oakland, Calif., is holding revival meetings in the county jail. The warden says it is remarkable how deeply interested the fellow prisoners grow and what indications of sincerity are manifest.

The Gazette calls attention to the assignees' sale of notes, Cox estate, to occur on Saturday, Oct. 16th, 1897, at 2 o'clock, p. m., at the court house door, in this city. 87-88.

A band of 2000 sheep belonging to Ol Justice were brought through town from the mountains yesterday, en route to their winter quarters on Rhea creek.

"Away With Melancholy,

And bid dull care avaunt," sounds very well in verse, but if you have a case of the "blues" caused by indigestion, with biliousness added on as an extra horror, you cannot say hey! presto! and thus insure the departure of those abominable twins. The "proper caper" when thus troubled, is to seek the aid of Hostetter's Stomach bitters. Thereafter you will speedily digest with ease and eat with appetite, and your liver will reassert its right to regularity. Not only this, you can retire without a horrible dread that the Washington monument will—in dreams—impose itself upon the pit of your stomach. If you feel premonitary symptoms of chills and fever, kidney trouble, or rheumatism, summon the Bitters to the rescue without delay, "lest a worse thing befall you." A feeble condition of system is more speedily changed to a vigorous one by this fine tonic than by any other medicinal agent in existence. A wineglassful three times a day. *

The state superintendent of public instruction of Washington has revoked the certificate of W. H. Stidham, of Pierce county, for using tobacco on the school premises. He holds that a teacher must practice what he preaches, and cannot teach his pupils the bad effects of tobacco so long as he uses it himself.

Gold Discoveries at Wallowa.

J. B. Keeney, the Elgin stage man, arrived in La Grande Friday evening and brought news of a placer mining excitement in Wallowa county, says the La Grande Chronicle. The scene of the strike is up Bear creek, 20 miles from Wallowa and is said to rival in richness the Klondike.

The find is said to be the result of a search for "lost" diggings of early days by a couple of prospectors. The search seems to have been instituted by the men finding a sealed bottle in Snake river some time ago containing a description of the diggings. The clue thus obtained was followed up with the results above stated.

A few weeks ago the editor was taken with a very severe cold that caused him to be in a most miserable condition. It was undoubtedly a bad case of lagrippe and recognizing it as dangerous he took immediate steps to bring about a speedy cure. From the advertisement of Chamberlain's Cough Remedy and the many good recommendations included therein, we concluded to make a first trial of the medicine. To say that it was satisfactory in its results, is putting it very mildly, indeed. It acted like magic and the result was a speedy and permanent cure. We have no hesitancy in recommending this excellent Cough Remedy to anyone afflicted with a cough or cold in any form.—The Banner of Liberty, Libertytown, Maryland.
