Copies of the New Year JOURNAL will be sold for 25 cents instead of 15 cents as was announced. The paper has been increased to a 40-page paper instead of 24 pages as was intended and this necessitates the change of Howard and Stearns are feeding 500 head of cattle on Crooked river and about 600 head at Silver Lake in Lake county where they are able to get hay at lower prices than here.

Deputy district attorney Bell, H. N. Gowan and others, might have been seen last Tuesday morning on their way to the desert, equipped with rifles, ammunition etc., presumably after ducks.

Our Annuals are going like "hot cakes," and at the present rate the supply will soon be exhausted. If you have a friend or relation who wants any information about Crook county send him a copy.

Mr. Ernest Weigand and Mrs. Maggie Brattain were united in marriage by Judge Wills at the Court house in Prineville, Jan. 7th, 1901. The contracting parties are well known here and have the best wishes of everyone.

J. W. Hopkins left for Salem Tuesday. He is not going to enter the Asylum but expects to get a legislative clerkship. His ways are so winning and seductive that he ought to succeed as readily as one of the gentler sex.

The Review could not forbear an intended slap at our Annual by saying it was printed by the Union Printing Co. of Portland. So it was, because there is not a printing establishment in the state outside of Portland, that can turn out such neat work, not even the Review. We are requested to thank the Review for its free advertising of the Portland printers.

The Pilot Butte Development Company are pushing things with a force of about 40 men. Work is progressing on the dam across Deschutes, the machinery for the sawmill is on the ground, buildings are going up, and the reputation of the new town is spreading like wildfire. D. D. Warner, secretary of the company, passed through here Sunday enroute from Portland and will take a hand in making things hum out there.

As usual old Boreas has touched this section of Oregon very lightly, the greatest depth of snow reported except in the mountains being about 12 inches while the temperature has gone down only to 6 above zero. The snow fall appears to have been lighter in the Southeastern portion of the county than here where it is less than six inches.

The "Creamerie" Restaurant in Portland, Oregon, on Washington street between Third and Fourth streets is one of the most popular lunch houses in that city, deservedly enjoying a good trade on account of the excellent quality of food served, quick and courteous service and reasonable prices. Visitors in Portland should not fail to take their meals at the "Creamerie."

Typographical errors are found in the best of publications and our Annual is no exception to the rule although most of them are unimportant. We wish to say, however, that the article descriptive of the Three Sisters Irrigation Co. was not written by Mr. Brink as was intended, but by the editor of the JOURNAL, and is not as complete as it would have been if written by Mr. Brink.

Mr. and Mrs. W. J. Vandervert returned this week from Portland where they have been spending a portion of their honeymoon. They were married in that city about Xmas but not having received a wedding notice we are unable to state the exact date. It will make but little difference to "Dick" though for he is the happiest man jn Oregon now.

Mr. Cy. Mulkey, recently of Alaska, left here Tuesday morning with 23 head of horses for the Seattle market, accompanied by Joe Hinkle. He purchased nothing but well-broke, heavy horses, paying from $60 to $100 each for them. M Mulkey is a familiar character on the Pacific coast, having come west during the early 50's, and being engaged in mining in all the principal camps since then, making and losing fortunes frequently. He has also been prominent in sporting circles, having owned and run many of the fastest horses of his time, among them being Tim Murphy, Sinfax and other equally celebrated ones. He has during the past two years spent $25,000 prospecting in Alaska and was finally rewarded by securing some very rich claims about 12 miles from Nome. He will return there in the Spring and work them, being now engaged in buying horses as a pastime.

Lamonta Items.

Snow fell to a depth of 12 inches last week, making sleighing and influenza very common.

We hear that Prinville gets its mail from Shaniko late the most of the time which might be avoided by the stage taking the lower road by way of Lone Pine or by bringing the mail to Lamonta from whence it could be taken in by our carier.

Prof. Dinwiddie is teaching a school of 25 pupils here very successfully.

Morrow & Keenan have taken their sheep to the Willow creek ranch for feeding. "F. S. C."

United Artisan's Installation.

Monday evening Prineville Assembly No. 163, installed the following officers: M. A. E. O. Hyde; Supt. Hattie Palmer; Insp. Mrs. S. J. Newsom; S. C. Alvira Cyrus; J. C. Annie Sharp; Sec'y., Warren Brown; Treas., Mrs. E. H. Smith; Inst., Mrs G. Templeton; Warder, Mrs. R. S. Price.

Two candidates were initiated and one admitted by card and at the close of the assembly a fine lunch was served. Over 40 members were present and all voted the meeting a very pleasant one.

Asphalt.

Asphalt is a bituminous substance derived from coal by some unexplained process of distillation or otherwise, it makes no difference how, so long as it is certain that where asphaltum exists there is or was beds of coal. Where coal exists, coal oil or petroleum is always found. The point of these remarks is that in Crook county there exists a 3 foot vein of asphalt which is traceable several hundred feet. Samples tested show it to be of excellent quality, and only cheap transportation is lacking to make the deposit valuable, but its principal value now is, its being a positive indication of coal and oil.

Men Only.

Levi Johnson of Pendleton Oreg., will address a meeting for men only in the Union church at 3 o'clock Sunday afternoon. Mr. Johnson makes an honest endeavor to deal frankly and kindly with questions relating to pure and upright manhood. All are kindly invited.

Dissolution of Partnership.

Notice is hereby given that the partnership heretofore existing between John F. Morris and Floyd Rowell has been dissolved by mutual consent. All debts due and owing the firm of Morris & Rowell must be paid to J. F. Morris who also assumes all liabilities of the said firm. Dated Jan. 4, 1901. J. F. Morris, Floyd Rowell.
