GONE HOME.

At her residence in The Dalles, on Thursday, March 7, 1901, Mrs. Sophia Palmer departed this life after an illness of several weeks during which she was attended by all of her five surviving children. She was born at Medina, Ohio, Dec. 19, 1835, came to Illinois with her parents when a girl, then to Wisconsin where she was married and lived for 25 years. In 1883, she came to Oregon where she has since lived with her sons, W. L. and H. J. Palmer. She had been a sufferer from chronic bronchitis for the past ten years and often prayed for relief by death which was at last granted.

Mother! What a flood of tender recollections surround that name; but she is gone and nothing that can be said can express the anguish of those whose family ties are so rudely broken by her departure. May the glories of Heaven light her pathway down through the endless ages.
