Laws of the State of Oregon.

AN ACT RELATING TO ELECTIONS.

Be it enacted by the Legislative Assembly of the State of Oregon, as follows:

SECTION 1. That at every election, hereafter held in this State, or any incorporated town or city of this State, in pursuance of law, each elector shall, in full view, deliver to one of the Judges of Election a single ballot or piece of paper on which shall be written or printed the names of the persons voted for, with a proper designation of the office which he or they may be intended to fill.

SEC. 2. The Judge to whom any ticket may be delivered shall, upon the receipt thereof, pronounce in an audible voice, the name of the elector, and, if no objection shall be made to him and the Judge is satisfied that the elector is legally qualified according to the Constitution and Laws of the State, to vote at the election, he shall immediately put the ticket in the box, without inspecting the names written or printed thereon, and the clerks of election shall enter the name of the elector and number in the poll books, agreeably to the printed form in the Seventeenth Section of this Act; and the ballots, after being counted, shall be sealed up in a package and be delivered to the County Clerk—or in case of an election in any incorporated city or town, then to the officer or officers of such city or town authorized by law to canvass the votes—by one of the Judges or Clerks of Election; and said clerk, or city or town officer, as the case may be, shall deposit them in his office, where they shall be safely kept for twelve months, and the County Clerk, or city or town officer, as the case may be, shall not allow the same to be inspected, unless in case of contested elections, or unless the same become necessary to be used in evidence, and then only by order of the proper Court.

SEC. 3. The Judges of Election, in determining the residence of persons offering to vote, shall be governed by the following rules, so far as the same may be applicable: First—That place shall be considered and held to be the residence of a person in which his habitation is fixed, and to which, whenever he is absent, he has the intention of returning. Second—A person shall not be considered or held to have lost his residence who shall leave his home and go into another State or Territory, or county of this State, for a temporary purpose only, with an intention of returning. Third—A person shall not be considered orheld to have gained a residence in any county of this State into which he shall come for temporary purposes merely, without the intention of making said county his home, but the intention of leaving the same when he shall have accomplished the business that brought him into it. Fourth—If a person remove to any other State, or to any of the Territories, with intention of making it his permanent residence, he shall be considered and held to have lost his residence in this State. Fifth—The place where a married man's family resides shall be considered and held to be his residence. Sixth—If a person shall go from this State into any other State or Territory and there exercise the right of suffrage, he shall be considered and held to have lost his residence in this State.

SEC. 4. If a person offering to vote is challenged as unqualified by one of the Judges of Election or by any other elector, one of the Judges shall administer to him the following oath or affirmation: "You do solemnly swear (or affirm) that you will fully and truly answer all such questions as shall be put to you touching your place of residence and qualifications of an elector at this election." First. If the person be challenged as unqualified on the ground that he is not a citizen, one of the Judges shall propound to him the following questions: 1. Are you a citizen of the United States? 2. Are you a native or naturalized citizen, and if neither, have you declared your intention to become a citizen, conformably to the laws of the United States, on the subject of naturalization? and if so, when? Second. If the person be challenged as unqualified on the ground that he has not resided in this State for six months immediately preceding the election, one of the Judges shall put the following questions: 1. Have you resided in this State for six months immediately preceding this election. 2. Have you been absent from this State within the six months immediately preceding this election? 3. If so, when you left, was it for a temporary purpose, with design of returning, or did you intend to remain away? 4. Did you, while absent, look upon and regard this State as your home? 5. Did you, while absent, vote in any other State or Territory? Third. If the person is challenged on the ground that he is not a resident of the county or precinct where he offers to vote, one of the judges shall put the following questions: 1. When did you come into this county and precinct? 2. When you came into this county and precinct did you come for a temporary purpose merely, or for the purpose of making it your home? 3. Have you been for the last ninety days an actual resident of this county? Fourth. If the person be challenged on the ground that he is not twenty one years of age, one of the judges shall put to him the following question: 1. Are you twenty-one years of age to the best of your knowledge and belief? The judges of election, or one of them, shall put all such other questions to the person challenged, under the respective heads aforesaid as may be necessary to test his qualifications as an elector at that election.

SEC. 5. If the person challenged as aforesaid shall refuse to answer fully any question which shall be put to him as aforesaid, the judges shall reject his vote.

SEC. 6. If the challenge be not withdrawn after the person offering to vote shall have answered the questions put to him as aforesaid, one of the Judges of Election shall administer to him the following oath: "You do solemnly swear that (or affirm) that you are a citizen of the United States (or have declared your intention to become such one year next preceding this election), that you are of the age of twenty-one years; that you have been a resident of this State for six months next preceding this election; that you have been for the last ninety days an actual resident of this Judicial, Senatorial or Representative District (as the case may be) and that you now reside in this precinct and that you have not voted at this election."

SEC. 7. Whenever any person's vote shall be received after having taken the oath prescribed by Sec. 6 of this Act, it shall be the duty of the clerks of election to write on the poll book at the end of such person's name, the word "sworn."

SEC. 8. It shall be the duty of each Judge of Election to challenge any person offering to vote, whom he shall know or suspect not to be qualified as an elector.

SEC. 9. It shall be the duty of the Judges of Election or of one of them, immediately before proclamation is made of the opening of the polls to open the ballot-boxes in the presence of the people then assembled, and turn them upside down, so as to empty them of everything that may be in them, and then lock them securely, and they shall not be reopened until for the purpose of counting the ballots therein at the close of the election.

SEC. 10. The Judges of Election shall, if requested, permit the respective candidates or one or more, of their friends, not exceeding three, to be present in the room where the Judges are, during the time of receiving and counting the votes.

SEC. 11. At the close of the polls the poll books shall be signed by the Judges and attested by the clerks, and the names therein shall be counted and the number set down at the foot of the poll books, in manner hereinafter provided in the form of poll books.

SEC. 12. After the poll books are signed in the manner hereinafter prescribed in the form of poll books, the ballot boxes shall be opened and the tickets taken out one at a time, by one of the Judges, who shall read distinctly while the ticket remains in his hand, the name or names written or printed thereon; also the office that is intended to be filled by such person voted for, then deliver it to the second Judge, Who shall examine the same, who shall pass it to the third Judge, who shall string it on a strong thread and carefully preserve the same; and the same method shall be observed in respect to each of the tickets in the ballot box, until the number of tickets taken out of the ballot-box is equal to the number of names upon the poll books.

SEC. 13. The clerks shall enter in a column under the names of the persons voted for, as hereinafter provided in the form of the poll books, all the votes read by the Judges.

SEC. 14. If two or more ballots shall be found so folded together as to present the appearance of a single ballot, they shall be laid aside until the count of the votes is completed, and if, upon a comparison of the count and appearance of such ballot, a majority of the Judges shall be of the opinion that ballots thus folded together were voted by one elector, they shall be excluded fom the count.

SEC. 15. If the ballot should be found to contain a greater number of names for any office than the number of persons required to fill that office, it shall be considered fraudulent as to the whole of the names designated to fill such office, but no further.

SEC. 16. After the examination of the ballots shall be completed, the number of votes for each person shall be enumerated under the inspection of the Judges and set down as hereinafter provided in the form of the poll books, and publicly proclaimed to the people present.

SEC. 17. The following shall be the form of the poll books to be kept by the Judges and Clerks of Elections under this Act:

Poll books of the election held in——Precinct No.—, in the county of —— on the — day of ——, in the year A. D. one thousand eight hundred and —. A. B., C. D., and E. F., Judges, and G. H., and J. G. H., J. K., Clerks.
A. P., C. D., E. F., Judges.

SEC. 18. After canvassing the votes in the manner afor said, the Judges, before they adjourn, shall enclose in a cover one of the poll books, seal the same securely, and direct to the County Clerk of the county in which the election is held; or in case of an election in any incorporated city or town, then to the officer or officers of such city or town authorized by law to receive and canvass the votes, and the poll books thus sealed and directed, together with the ballots sealed as hereinbefore required shall be conveyed by one of the Judges or Clerks, to be agreed upon for that purpose, to the County Clerk of the county; or in case of an election in any incorporated city or town, then to the officer or officers of such city or town authorized by law to receive the same, within ten days from the day of the election, and the other poll books shall be deposited with one of the Judges of election, there to remain for one year for the use of whoever may choose to inspect the same.

SEC. 19. The Judges of Election shall carefully envelope all ballots rejected or defective as well as the other ballots, and deliver the same to the County Clerk; or in case of an election in any incorporated city or town, then to the officer or officers of such city or town authorized by law to receive the same, to be filed in his office.

SEC. 20. All ballots used at any election in this State shall be written or printed on plain white paper, without any mark or designation being placed thereon where the same may be known or designated.

SEC. 21. The several County Courts of this State, and the Common Council or Board of Trustees or other legally authorized officers of every incorporated city or town shall provide suitable ballot boxes for every election precinct or ward in their respective counties cities or towns, well secured with a good lock and key, the lid thereof shall be fastened with hinges, and shall contain an opening through the same three inches long and one fourth of an inch wide, for the reception of the ballots.

SEC. 22. Sections 1, 11, 12, 13, 14, 15, 17, 18, 22, 23, 24, and 25, of an act entitled "An Act relating to elections, and the mode of filling vacancies in office," approved Oct. 29, 1870, be and the same are are hereby repealed.

SEC. 23. Inasmuch as there is an important election soon to be held within this State for electors for President and Vice President of the United States this Act shall be in force from and after its approval by the Governor.

Approved October 19, 1872.

Opposite Excelsior Market

To Stock Drovers.

THE ROAD ACROSS THE CASCADE Mountains, known as the "Old Emigrant Road," is now in splendid order for the accommodation of the public. The bridges on the road have all been thoroughly repaired, and stock drovers will find it no trouble to cross the Mountains by this route. There is plenty of good water and grass on both sides of the Mountains, and the distance across is only 50 miles being the shortest as well as the best road over the Cascade Mountains. Stock droves and emigrants will find it to their advantage to travel over this route. Toles reasonable.
