WHAT HAS THE CITY FOR ITS DEBT?

About two and a half years ago, Oregon City's debt was in round numbers $28,000. Since then it has become double that sum. Had the city valuable permanent improvements to show for the increase in indebtedness of $11,000 per annum, there would not be the serious cause for complaint. The grievance is that about three-fourths of said increased indebtedness has been made piece-meal for ephemeral purposes, to defray the running expenses of the city. The city has a new jail, and spent, say, $3000 on Seventh and Main streets, and built some new steps. What else is there to show for the $28,000?

It is a plain proposition that Oregon City can and should be able to pay, annually, the running expenses of its government, and that, if it cannot do so now, it will be still more incapable four or five years hence when, at the present rate of increase, the debt will have clumb up to near the $100,000 mark. This folly should certainly cease, and it is easier to stop it now than next year or two years hence. The expenses can be cut down to the income. If the city cannot pay for new crosswalks, the numerous electric lights, etc., etc., without more indebtedness, let the people either go without these luxuries or raise the amounts needed by subscription. Careful economy must be introduced in our city finances sooner or later, and it is by far the best to begin that economy now.

The indebtedness has given Oregon City a black eye among moneyed men and will retard her growth. It has thwarted thusfar the sale of the new $10,000 water bonds. When capitalists learn that a city of her size has a bonded debt of $50,000, they are loth to add to it by buying the bonds.

The evil of the age is, a mania of individuals, cities, counties, states and national governments to expend ahead of their income, to saddle the bill for the extravagances of the present generation on the generation to come.

The corporation of Oregon City can and must live within her income.

In the lifting of the mist of contradictory statements and wilful lies shall make plain the fact that the administration has forced on the kingdom of Hawaii a queen whom its leading citizens had deposed, the mistake will be a very grave one. But when the truth becomes known, it is likely that the administration will be vindicated. It is hardly possible that a president of the United States would resort, through his secretary of state, to the suicidal policy of aiding and supporting by force of arms the rejected and despised sovereign of a foreign country. This country should permit the Hawaiians to have and enjoy the kind of government that suits them best. In the president's forthcoming message the Hawaiian squabble will no doubt be fully ventilated. The enemies of Cleveland make liberal use of the present opportunity to turn public opinion against him, and to threaten impeachment.

COMPLAINT is being made by taxpayers that the Fifth street assessments are extraordinarily high. If the city's treasury had been in a healthy condition at the time bids were invited for the improvement, and the estimated spot cash cost of the same had been covered in the treasury previously, not one contractor, but several, perhaps a dozen, would have bid, and the work would probably have been done much cheaper. The Fifth street improvement contract was rushed through as though there would be no time for letting contracts next year or in '95. That the street is graveled only in the middle, leaving a roadway of soft mud on either side, is also a just cause of fault-finding.

MISSOURI democratic war horses are soured because they have been beaten in the race for the political sweepstakes. J. Scott Harrison, a brother of the ex-president, was made surveyor of customs at Kansas City, the chief federal office in that town. Mr. Harrison acknowledges that he did not vote for the democratic candidates for president in 1888 or in 1892. He asserts that he voted the democratic ticket except at presidential elections. The Missouri congressmen have been bucking the administration and now they have "got it in the neck."

GOVERNOR PENNOYER has deserted the democratic party for good. In a letter to A. B Stanley of Echo, Or., he announces that he will be on the stump next June for the populist cause.

SOME Oregonians will celebrate two Thanksgivings this year and some none at all. Pennoyer's Thanksgiving did not close our banks.

ENGLAND's shortage in hops of 120,000 bales added to Germany's, promises that the hop will hop upward.

MONEY is reported plentiful in Wall street. We are waiting for some of it to come this way.

$100 for a Bottle.

Mrs. S B. Winship, 112 Washington St., Providence, R. I., after using one bottle of Drummond's Lightning Remedy for Rheumatism, wrote to the Drummond Medicine Co., 48-50 Maiden Lane, New York, saying she would not take One Hundred Dollars for the benefit received. If you have any form of Rheumatism, and wish to get rid of it, write to the manufacturers for particulars. Agents wanted.

CASCADE RESERVE.

Its Extent, Bounds and Metes,

As Set Forth in the President's Proclamation.

A Magnificent Area of Mountain Slopes and Nestling Valleys.

The Cascade Range Timber Reserve extends from the Cascade locks on the Columbia river to within 20 miles of the California line. For 115 miles it is about 30 miles wide, and for 30 miles, between Diamond Peak and Mt. Pit, it is 60 miles wide, embracing the summit and slopes of the Cascade range and comprising 4,500,000 acres. The reserve is larger than was necessary. Though the bill was introduced in congress with the object to secure the timber on such reserve, many sections included have been surveyed and have settlers on them.

The following is the president's proclamation:

WHEREAS, It is provided by section 24 of the act of congress approved March 3d, 1891, entitled, "An act to repeal timber-culture laws, and for other purposes," "That the president of the United States may, from time to time, set apart and reserve, in any state or territory having public land bearing forests, in any part of the public lands wholly or in part covered with timber or undergrowth, whether of commercial value or not, as public reservations, and the president shall, by public proclamation, declare the establishment of such reservations and the limits thereof;"

AND WHEREAS, The public lands in the state of Oregon, within the limits hereinafter described, are in part covered with timber, and it appears that the public good would be promoted by setting apart and reserving said lands as a public reservation.

Now, therefore, I, Grover Cleveland, president of the United States, by virtue of the power in me vested by section 24 of the aforesaid act of congress, do hereby make known and proclaim that there is hereby reserved from entry or settlement and set apart as a Public Reservation, all those certain tracts, pieces or parcels of land lying and being situated in the state of Oregon, and particularly described as follows, to-wit:

Beginning at the meander corner at the intersection of the range line between ranges 6 and 7 east, township 2 north, W. M., Oregon, with the mean high-water mark on the south bank of the Columbia river in said state; thence northeasterly along said mean high-water mark to its intersection with the township line between townships 2 and 3 north; Provided that this exception shall not continue to apply to any particular tract of land unless the entryman, settler or claimant continues to comply with the law under which the entry, filing, settlement or location was made.

Warning is hereby expressly given to all persons not to enter or make settlement upon the tract of land reserved by this proclamation.

In witness whereof, I have hereunto set my hand and caused the seal of the United States to be affixed.

SETTLED AT LAST.

World's Fair Jury Finally Decides in Favor of Dr. Price.

CHICAGO, Nov. 23.—On the analysis and recommendation of Dr. Wiley Chief United States Government Chemist at Washington, and greatest living authority on food products, the World's Fair jury to-day gave the highest award to Dr. Price's Cream Baking Powder for strength, purity and excellence. This conclusively settles the question of superiority. Dr Wiley rejected the alum powders, stating to the World's Fair jury that he considered them unwholesome.

Mr. Birt Answers the Advocate.

Editor Courier:—The slanderer, Stoddard, of the Tillamook Advocate, is again in print in his issue of the 15th. Please allow me to state that one Wilson, at that time a member of the city council of Tillamook, complained to me that this man Stoddard had devulged the contents of a message addressed to him; also a grain merchant, whose name I just now forget, made this man refund money for a message he took and failed to send. It was on those complaints that I discharged him Stoddard and myself never had any dispute over salary as he was to receive 50 per cent. of the receipts of his office, which amount was three times as much as the whole man was worth. The Advocate in its article does not mention a single man who paid his subscription, but only those who conspired to defraud both myself and the Polk's directory company and all other honorable citizens. As to the charge of adultery against J. L. Lamberth, of which the Advocate speaks, he was arrested, tried and acquitted, as the court records show.

OF INTEREST TO SPORTSMEN.—W. H. Hurlburt, A. G. P. A. Union Pacific System, Portland, Or., has just received a supply of books called "Gun Club Rules and Revised Laws." This publication contains a digest of the laws relating to game in the Western states and territories. Mr Hurlburt will be glad to mail you one of the books upon receipt of two stamps to cover postage. W. H. HURLBURT, A. G. P. A.

THE BEST PLASTER.—Dampen a piece of flannel with Chamberlain's Pain Balm and bind it on over the seat of pain. It is better than any plaster. When the lungs are sore such an application on the chest and another on the back, between the shoulder blades, will often prevent pneumonia. There is nothing so good for a lame back or pain in the side. A sore throat can nearly always be cured in one night by applying a flannel bandage dampened with Pain Balm. 50 cent bottles for sale by G. A. Harding, druggist.

W. M. Terry, who has been in the drug business at Elkton, Ky., for the past 12 years, says: "Chamberlain's Cough Remedy gives better satisfaction than any other cough medicine I have ever sold." There is good reason for this. No other will cure a cold so quickly; no other is so certain a preventive and cure for croup; no other affords so much relief in cases of whooping cough. For sale by G. A. Harding, druggist.

For Over Fifty Years.

AN OLD AND WELL-TRIED REMEDY.—Mrs. Winslow's Soothing Syrup has been used for over fifty years by millions of mothers for their children while teething, with perfect success. It soothes the child, softens the gums, allays all pain, cures wind colic, and is the best remedy for Diarrhœa. Is pleasant to the taste. Sold by Druggists in every part of the World. Twenty-five cents a bottle. Its value is incalculable. Be sure and ask for Mrs. Winslow's Soothing Syrup, and take no other kind.
