DIMICK-WOLFER.—On last Sunday, May 3rd, G. B. Dimick, one of Oregon City's rising young attorneys, was married to Miss Froma Wolfer, the accomplished daughter of Samuel Wolfer, of Needy. The ceremony took place at the residence of the bride's parents, and Justice J. D. Ritter tied the nuptial knot. A few invited guests were present, and participated in the festivities of the notable occasion. Mr. and Mrs. Dimick have taken rooms at Mr. Burkhard's on the hill, where they will reside until Mr. Dimick completes his new cottage.

The democratic central committee and several of the candidates recently nominated on that ticket, held a meeting in this city Wednesday evening. It was decided not to make an active public canvass of Clackamas county, but each candidate would be expected to make a still hunt and secure as many votes as possible by personal effort. It is also intended to hold at least two big rallies in Oregon City before election day, when the band will play and prominent speakers orate. A rally or two may be held at outside points. It is said that each candidate was assessed $10 for campaign purposes.

About 500 people gathered at Shively's opera house Wednesday evening, to hear C. A. Fitch's reply to Hon. Thomas Tongue's speech at Weinhard's hall on Wednesday evening of the previous week. He favored protection to American industries, but occupied the most of the time in rehashing populistic ideas familiar to the public. Mr. Fitch is a speaker of more than ordinary ability, but it was not evident that he made any converts to populistic doctrines. His ingenious method of advertising aided in bringing out a large crowd, many of them impelled by curiosity. As for worsting Tongue in an argument, he is incapable of holding a candle to one side of the Washington county statesman.

The June MIDLAND MONTHLY, (Des Moines) is out, and, besides its inderesting editoral departments, home themes, war sketch, stories and poetry,—a prize poem included—the following are its notable attractions: A Bit of Italy in May, by Mrs. W. "Piety Corners," a realistic story of love and of Kansas ranch life, by J. Albert Smith. An Octogenarian 's Recollections of William Henry Harrison, by T. S. Parvin. an Ex-Consul's, (the Editor's) Objections to the Extension of Civil Services reform to the our Counsular Service. The numerous and beautiful illustrations include a new full-page picture of Eugene Field, by Tabor, presented to Mrs. Reid, by the author himself.

If we could trace Dyspepsia to its source, it would lead back to our kitchens. In fact, the secret of good health is good cooking. If well cooked, foods are partially digested; if poorly cooked, they are less digestible than in their raw state. If you are a victim of faulty cooking; that is, if you are suffering from Dyspepsia, the rational cure must be looked for in an artificially digested food, and a food which will at the same time aid the digestion of other foods. Such a preparation virtually rests the tired digestive organs, thereby restoring them to their natural strength.

The Digestive Cordial, as prepared by the Shakers of Mount Lebanon, is just such a preparation, and a single 10 cent bottle will convince you of its value. If your druggist dosn't keep it, he will be glad to get it through his wholesale house.

LAXOL is the best medicine for children. Doctors recommed in place of Castor Oil.

Help Home Industry.

The true foundation upon which to build up the prosperity of Oregon City is to patronize home industry and thus keep our money at home. In laundry work every dollar paid to Chinamen or to Portland laundries is practically lost to Oregon City especially when just as good work at the same price can be had at the Willamette Steam Laundry. This is a new home institution, employing only white help and is supplied with all the latest improved machinery, and using the purest spring water is able to guarantee firstclass work. A trial of our work and prices is asked. Delivery wagon to all parts of the city. Down town office at Wilehart's barber shop.

"I wish to tell what your valuable medicine has done for me. For four years I had heart disease of the very worst kind. Several physicians I consulted, said it was Rheumatism of the Heart.

DR. J. H. WATTS.

It was almost unendurable; with shortness of breath, palpitations, severe pains, unable to sleep, especially on the left side. No pen can describe my sufferings, particularly during the last months of those four weary years. I finally tried Dr. Miles' New Heart Cure, and was surprised at the result. It put new life into and made a new man of me. I have not had a symptom of trouble since and I am satisfied your medicine has cured me for I have now enjoyed, since taking it

Three Years of Splendid Health.

I might add that I am a druggist and have sold and recommended your Heart Cure, for I know what it has done for me and only wish I could state more clearly my suffering then and the good health I now enjoy. Your Nervine and other remedies also give excellent satisfaction." J. H. WATTS.
