JING a jing, a jing, jing
Jing, jing, jing;
How clear the sleigh bells ring!
Sweetly through the air
Their voices fair
Sing, ting a ling, a jing, jing, jing!

You said he'd be here by half past ten,
There's still a minute to go,
But, mother dear, think; it's Christmas Day
I wonder what makes him so slow!

I've flown to the window fourteen times
When I've heard the sleigh bells ring,
Cutters fly past us and do not stop
They fool me like everything!

Oh, there he is now! Oh, where's my tam,
I had it on long ago,
Oh goody, we'll start for grandma's house
A nice long drive in the snow.

Oh, mother, look, how she shakes her bells,
A musical sound they bring,
And all the way to grandma's house
We'll hear them ring and ring!

Hello, Uncle Ned! Will you let me drive,
You say she's so hard to hold.
Even I can see that and her wicked glance!
We'd all be flung out in the cold.

Oh yes, I am comfy and ever so warm;
I even feel sleepy, too.
So, mother dear, wake me when we come in sight
Of grandmother's house, please do!

You say we're most there and I'd better awake
Why I've hardly closed an eye.
With sleigh bells alive in cold clean air
How long I have slept, oh my!

There's grandma, the dear, she has seen us
from far.
With a ting a ling o'er the snow,
And grandpap too, and our Uncle Bob
Their faces so sweet I know.

To celebrate Christmas is ever so fine
And best of it all to me
I think I like most that snowy drive
On our way to our Christmas tree.

Jing a jing, a jing, jing,
Jing, jing, jing;
How clear the sleigh bells ring!
Sweetly through the air
Their voices fair
Sing, ting a ling, a jing, jing, jing!
