An Important Difference.

To make it apparent to thousands, who think themselves ill, that they are not afflicted with any disease, but that the system simply needs cleansing, is to bring comfort home to their hearts, as a costive condition is easily cured by using Syrup of Figs. Manufactured by the California Fig Syrup Co. only, and sold by all druggists.

Hats, hats, hats. Great bargains.
Miss Goldsmith.

Dr. W. Wixon, Italy Hill, N. Y., says, "I heartily recommend One Minute Cough Cure. It gave my wife immediate relief in suffocating asthma." Pleasant to take. Never fails to quickly cure all coughs, colds, throat and lung troubles. GEO. A. HARDING.

Christian Science services are held in Willamette hall every Sunday morning at eleven o'clock. Subject for Sunday November 12, "Soul and Body." Sunday school at 12:10. Wednesday evening meeting at eight o'clock. A cordial invitation is extended to all who desire to attend these services.

For the benefit of potato and onion growers the following extract from a letter written by a San Francisco firm having a large foreign export business is reproduced: "Owing to the great demand for foreign shipment, the local crop is going forward very rapidly and while we do not look for such high prices as prevailed last season still the demand will be good and prices above the average."

A pleasant family party gathered at the residence of Mrs. M. M. Charman, last Sunday in order to celebrate the 40th birthday of Mr. T. L. Charman. An exceedingly pleasant social time was enjoyed and Mr. Charman was the recipient of many presents, one of the most useful being from his brother E. E. Charman. T. L. takes great pride in displaying it to his friends.

As demonstrating that Clackamas county is suitable for the successful growth of sugar beets, Mr. J. C. Marts has brought to this office a sugar beet grown by him on the farm of H. S. Ramsby at Molalla, which weighs 10 pounds and 5 ounces. The beet is a fair sample of the entire crop and Mr. Marts states that the yield was very satisfactory and he may engage in raising them on an extended scale next season.

R. H. Tabor, of Mt. Pleasant, has brought to this office a head of cabbage that weighs 21 pounds and is in every way a perfect speciman of the sauer kraut material. He set out 200 plants of this variety last spring, and every one headed and developed into perfect cabbages averaging about 15 pounds each. One of the lot weighed 25 pounds but it had bursted. Mr. Tabor has grown cabbage in Illinois, Iowa, Missouri and Oregon and says that in none of those states has he had such success in raising them as right here in the Willamette valley.

Conrad Essig, a middle aged German, whose home is near Hillsboro died suddenly on board the south bound California express Thursday morning. The train had just pulled out of Clackamas station when the deceased was observed to straighten out in his seat and before any assistance could be rendered he was dead. The body was brought to this city and turned over to Coroner Strickland who held an inquest and decided that death was due to heart disease. He had a return ticket to Salem in his pocket and about $30.00 in money.

The trial of Dreyfus by the court-martial at Rennes had a broader and deeper significance than belonged to it as the mere prosecution of an individual soldier. In its purpose and in the circumstances which preceded and attended it, it cast a lurid light upon the present situation in France, especially upon the perilous power possessed by the army in the great European republic. M. Bernard Lazare, who was first to demand a revision of the Dreyfus verdict, contributes a powerful article to the November number of the North American Review, in which through an incisive examination of the proceedings at the trial at Rennes he discloses the nefarious machinations of the General Staff and its tools and exposes the danger which menaces France in consequence of the domination of her military chiefs.

Lewis Allen Lacy, one of the early pioneers of Clackamas county, died at his home at Springwater on Monday, Nov. 6th, at the advanced age of 92 years. Mr. Lacy was born in New York state in August, 1807, where he lived until 1851 when he started for Oregon shortly after his marriage. He wintered in Missouri, and in the spring started across the plains with an ox team, arriving in Clackamas county Sept. 22d, 1852, being six months on the road. He settled on his farm at Clearwater which was his home until his death. He leaves a wife, one son, A. Lacy, of Springwater, and two daughters, Mrs. C. M. Folsom, of Sprague, Wash., and Mrs. J. E. Edmiston, of Dayton, Wash. The funeral was held from his home Wednesday morning, conducted by Rev. A. J. Montgomery, and was attended by a large number of friends and neighbors.

You never know what form of blood poison will follow constipation. Keep the liver clean by using DeWitt's Little Early Risers and you will avoid trouble. They are famous little pills for constipation and liver and bowel troubles.
GEO. A. HARDING.

J. D. Bridges, Editor "Democrat," Lancaster, N. H, says, "One Minute Cough Cure is the best remedy for croup I ever used." Immediately relieves and cures coughs, colds, croup, asthma, pneumonia, bronchitis, grippe and all throat and lung troubles. It prevents consumption.
