THE LOCAL NEWS.

OUR LAST CENSUS.—The compendium of the 11th census of the United States, for the year 1890, gives Oregon City as follows: Male, 1,673; female, 1389; native born, 2,483; foreign born, 579; white, 3,025; colored, 4; Chinese 19; civilized Indians, 14.

$5000 DAMAGES.—Wilhemina Stuckey, who was badly injured and whose husband, Jacob Stuckey, was killed last October by their team backing off a bridge at New Era, has placed a bill of damages before the county court in the sum of $5,000. The bill was laid over by the commissioners at their meeting ending last week.

FIREMAN'S ELECTION.—On Monday, March 5, the firemen of this city will elect a chief, assistant chief, and three fire commissioners. Fountain hose Co., No. 1, have nominated F. T. Rogers for chief, and H. S. Straight, for commissioner. Hose Co. No. 3 have nominated Charles Moore for chief, and endorsed John Green for assistant clerk.

LOGAN CHEESE FACTORY.—Logan is to have a new cheese factory that will be in operation about the first of April. It will be a joint stock company with present capital of $1,000. The capacity will be 8,000 gallons of milk per day. The directors are J. M. Tracy, F. Gerber, Frank Wilson Fred Schneider and Jacob Huber. W. W. Austin is secretary and manager. L. Chevalley, an expert cheese maker direct from Switzerland, has been employed.

CENSUS ENUMERATORS.—C. B. Winn, supervisor of census for the the first congressional district, solicits applications for census enumerators. Appointments will be made the first of April. Any one desiring such a position in Clackamas county should file their application with Mr. Winn, at Albany immediately. Applications must be made in applicant's own handwriting, and by informing Mr. Winn, they will be furnished application blanks.

A PLEASANT EVENING.—A very pleasant occasion was the party given by Mr. and Mrs. Benj. Hendrickson at their home on Mt. Pleasant, Saturday evening, Feb. 10. About forty invited guests were present. Games and music were features of the evenings entertainment. All were very pleasantly entertained until a late hour when dainty refreshments were served and the guests departed for their respective homes.

NEW TANNERY.—About three weeks ago Mr. Jacobs began the construction of a tannery in the old soap factory department of the woolen mills, today he has leather on the market to sell. About $5,000 worth of machinery has been placed in the building, with a capacity of 30,000 hides a year. As the mill now buys its wool on the pelt, the chief product of the tannery will be a fine grade of kid leather. This may also lead to the establishment of a shoe factory.

EX-CHIEF DEAD.—J. R. Trembath, of this city, died at Salem, Sunday, February 11, and his remains were conveyed to this city Monday morning, where they were buried the following afternoon. The funeral took place from the residence of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. R. Trembath, Rev. P. R. Hammond officiating. The services at the grave were conducted by Portland Lodge 142, B. P. O. Elks. The funeral was largely attended, the firemen attending in a body. The deceased was about 38 years old, and has for many years been a resident of this city, being at one time Chief of the fire department.

SURPRISE PARTY.—On last Saturday evening the following schoolmates of Clara Nehfen gave her one of the most successful surprise parties of the season at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Nehren. The evening was spent in playing games. The principal feature of the evening was the delicious refreshments, served with the usual free and open hearted hospitality of Mrs. Nehren and partaken of with the zest and enjoyment peculiar to children on such an occasion. Those present were: Misses. Ethel Green, Hilda McGetchie, Reva Gray, Nellie Wood, Nettie Prieldes, Nettie Bradley, Ella Dempster and Clara Nehren; Messrs. Charles Bollinger, Harold Broughton, Ralph Miller, Leo Cannon and Carl Nehren.

CHURCH DEDICATED.—The Evangelical Lutheran church at Aurora will be formally dedicated next Sunday, Rev. Ernest Mack, pastor of the German Lutheran church of this city delivering the dedicatory address. This beautiful structure has been erected at a cost of about $2,000, and a great deal of credit is due Rev. Mack for his untiring efforts to raise this amount. The church will at present enjoy the membership of about 35 families, and is in a flourishing condition. Services will be held at 10 o'clock a. m. and 2 p. m. After the morning service a good dinner will be spread for all present. Among the principal speakers will be Rev. Dolscher, of Tacoma, Wash and Rev. H. Wittrock, of Schuble, Oregon.
