45 MINUTE SCHEDULE.

THE LOCAL NEWS.

TRANSFERRED.—Supt. Downing, of the Clackamas fish hatchery, has been transferred to his old station at Alpina, Michigan, and will soon take his departure for that place.

PAPER MILL STRIKE.—Last Monday, seven hands employed in the wood room of the Crown Paper Mill were let out for demanding higher wages. They were getting $1.50 per day and struck for $2 00.

CLOSED OUT.—The grocery in the Shively building, conducted by Mrs. Hoskins, was closed last Saturday by creditors. The liabilities were about $1,000, while the assetts were only $500, which were turned over to the creditors.

MACCABEE HOP.—The Maccabees are arranging a splendid program to be rendered in this city Thursday night, April 12. They have secured the Willamette hall and will conclude the evening's festivities with a grand ball. They intend to made sociability one of the ruling features of the order and will give an entertainment the second Thursday of each month.

STRIKERS WIN.—During the week about 30 girls, employed in the spinning and spooling departments of the Woolen Mills concluded that in union there is strength, and they accordingly made it manifest to the proprietors, by demanding higher wages. They took the matter under advisement until 2 o'clock that afternoon, at which time they decided to raise their wages, which is piece work, 5 cents on the hundred. It is said the strike was incited by their utter dislike for a "straw boss" that is over them.

GOLF TEAM.—A golf team is being organized in this city and the promoters of it are now looking for suitable grounds. One place suggested for the game is the enclosed field across the river near the railway station. This is just what this city needs. The young people all go to Portland for their sport, while if we had more home attractions it would build up interest in local sports. The next thing needed is a city band. Ginger up, boys, and give us some music.

AT A PREMIUM.—Sam Smith, of Seattle, the leading commission merchant of that place, was in Oregon City during the week, trying to pledge the merchants of this place to ship to his firm all the produce they cannot consume themselves, instead of shipping it to Portland. With a produce market at a premium and bids coming clear from Seattle for our commodities, why should we not have a large commission house of our own and save all the profits? Here is a splendid inducement.

COMMISSION HOUSE.—A long felt want is soon to be supplied in this city. J. F. Fellows, of Portland, will soon establish a commission house here, where the farmers can dispose of any commodity produced upon his farm. Eggs, butter, cheese, fruit, in fact every farm produce will be handled. This, in connection with the good roads system this county is about to enjoy, will foster more trade and commerce in this city than any other single branch of business. It is a step forward. Let everyone encourage it.

AGREEABLY SURPRISED.—The pupils of Miss Emma Lawrence tendered her a highly enjoyable surprise party last Thursday evening. The arrangements had been so secretly carried out by those in charge, that Miss Lawrence was a victim of a genuine surprise. The evening was very pleasantly passed in music, games and social conversation. The guests were: Mabel Wood, Hazel Davidson, Ana Aldredge, Clara Deute, Myrtle Hamilton, Cornellia Glass, Agnes Justin, Miss E. Lawrence, Miss Glass, Homer Hamilton, Ralph Green, Eddie Ackley, Ben Steinger, Millard Gellett, Martin Seiler and Wallace Caufield.

DIDN'T INVITE HER.—The school mates of Miss Gracie Wood arranged a very pretty little party, and didn't let her know anything about it until the very last moment, when they told her it was all gotten up for her. She was taken completely by surprise, and retaliated by entertaining them in a highly social manner. Those present were: Misses Eva Williams, Della Cosper, Lottie Butel Francis Pursifull, Louise Schuler, Minnie Boyles, Etta Burner, Nettie Kellogg, Grace and Mabel Wood, and Messrs. William Butel, Clayborne Williams, Guy Kellogg, Pearl Mosier and Claude Butler.

FISH STORIES.—Fish Commissioner Downing of the Clackamas hatchery, has just liberated 22,000 Michigan trout in Lake Washington, and 13,000 in Lake Newman, in the state of Washington. He also states that 100,000 Michigan trout have been hatched at Clackamas this season. Owing to the warm water of the western states, fish can be hatched in as short a time as 65 days, while in Eastern waters it requires at least three months. He has also planted 16,000 white fish in Lake Washington. These fish at maturity range from 4 to 20 pounds in weight. An effort is being made in the East to have Mr. Downing appointed to an Eastern commission, but his western friends insist upon his retention in this state.

TAKEN BY SURPRISE.—Mr. and Mrs. Peter Winkle, of the West Side, were very pleasantly surprised Saturday evening by about forty friends and neighbors. The following guests were present: Mr. and Mrs. J. W. McKay, Mr. and Mrs. H. T. Shipley, Mr. and Mrs. B. Dolan, Mr. and Mrs. I. D. Taylor, Mr. and Mrs. G. Freeman, Mr. and Mrs. J. K. Morris, Mr. and Mrs. J. J. Thompson, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Moenke, Mrs. Charles Deaver, Mrs. R. J. Goodfellow, Mrs. E. Batdorf, Mrs. J. Miller, Mrs. Halm, of Portland, Misses Louise Follonsbee, Jessie Humphreys, Kate Ward, Maggie Goodfellow, Lizzie Shipley, Eva Cushman, Mayme Ward, Clara Miller, Messrs. T. J. Gary, Chester Torreuts and Nick Humphreys. Crokinole was the game of the evening, G. Freeman and T. J. Gary winning the prizes. A delicious lunch was served.

A Night of Terror.

"Awful anxiety was felt for the widow of the brave General Burnham of Machias, Me., when the doctors said she could not live till morning" writes Mrs. S. H. Lincoln, who attended her that fearful night. "Although she must soon die from Pneumonia, she begged for Dr. King's New Discovery, saying it had more than once saved her life, and had cured her of Consumption. After three small doses she slept easily all night, and its further use completely cured her." This marvelous medicine is guaranteed to cure all Throat, Chest and Lung Diseases. Only 50c and $1 00. Trial bottles free at Geo. A. Harding's drug store.

SINCE THREE'S A CROWD.

To parks and plays she's gone with me
For eighteen months or more;
I've found her best of company
In trips afar, ashore.
And yet of love she's never framed
A word for me, I'll own,
Yet for this lack she can't be blamed—
She's Dolly's chaperone.

She never views in listless way
At flower shows the prize;
She quite appreciates a play—
You see that in her eyes.
Her sphere of action's limited,
The escort's not her own,
But unobtrusive, be it said,
Is Dolly's chaperone.

She's twenty—So if she's a day,
And Dolly's but sixteen;
Her eyes are blue and Dolly's gray—
Blue eyes are true, I ween.
Since "three's a crowd" I think, mayhap,
I'll woo a maid alone;
I've half a mind to set my cap
For Dolly's chaperone.

—Roy Farrell Greene in Detroit Free Press.

Equal to the Occasion.

People do not often make the mistake of giving too much. A certain woman who not long ago entered a Glasgow church was an exception to the rule—at least she thought so. She passed the collection box at the door and dropped in sixpence. Then she took her seat in the church and waited until the preacher appeared.

To her disappointment the officiating minister was not the Dr. H. whom she had come to hear. On inquiry she found that she had entered the wrong church. It was not yet too late to hear the preacher of her choice, but the sixpence was another matter. To leave it in the box would be clear loss. The woman was equal to the occasion. Slowly descending the gallery stairs, she requested her sixpence back and received it from the officiating elder.—Youth's Companion.

Suspicious.

Miss Matilda Snowflake sat at the piano and sang "All I Wants Is Ma Chicken!"

Zeke Darkleigh, who had paid a nocturnal visit to Miss Snowflake's papa's henroost the week before, squirmed uneasily in his seat and finally asked in anxious tones:

"Is—is dey anything pussonal intended in dat song, Miss Matilda?"—Baltimore American.
