Calamity.

On an incoming Vandalia train was a family of five—a fat, good-natured man, his wife, a pretty but nervous lady, and, gracious knows, 'twas enough to make her nervous, the trouble she had with their three children. The eldest, a boy of six, mashed his hand by putting a window down on it. A little later the three-year-old at a sudden jerk of the train, turned a somersault, bruising and gashing his head. Then the half-year old baby upset the alcohol lamp from the window sill, which frightened the mother nearly into hysterics, which was a signal for all the children to set up in a chorus. But during the next five minutes, when that half-distracted woman was trying to stop the music, that fat man, from the seat back of her, looked on with never an effort—he was really charming in his complacency.

When quiet reigned again the wife said, with a sigh: "I do know I have more trouble than any woman on earth."

"Oh, no, my dear; don't say that," answered Benedict, not moving his eyes from his paper. "I do say it," she replied more stoutly. "There's no calamity could befall a woman which I have not suffered." "Oh, no, my dear; not so bad as that. For instance, you are not a widow," he answered, sweetly. She held her breath two seconds and then retorted—and it made the Sentinel man laugh the next hour to hear the shot.

"I said 'calamity,' sir!"—Sentinel.

An Awful Photographic Album.

Oh, yes, I said; I always enjoyed looking at photographs. Photographs and autographs I just doted on.

I am a man accustomed to family photograph albums. You can't fool me on them. I have sat up with them from Halifax to Denver and I know them by name and sight. Pa and ma and that's grandpa and that's grand ma, and here's Uncle George, and this is an aunt of pa's, she's very wealthy and has no children and pa is her favorite nephew; and this is a young lady I went to school with, and this is his brother Henry, and this is his cousin Sue, and this is Aunt Hattie's baby, and this is a young man Henry went to school with, and do you know who this is? Ah, you, know I won't listen to another word. It ain't a bit like me, anyhow; it's horrid, and this is pa's clerk, and this is —te, he, he—a young man—no, I won't tell you his name; he lives at Kickapoo, and this is—oh, my son, you can't strand me on photograph albums. I know just where the family ends and the strangers file in.—Burdette.

Quicker than Electricity.

City Alderman, Hon. R. C. Payne, Brisbane, Queensland, Australia, writes, that he tried many remedies, including galvanic batteries and Turkish baths, for rheumatism, and finally used St. Jacobs Oil, the great pain-cure. It gave him instantaneous relief.

The Popular Approval

Of the now famous Syrup of Figs as the most efficacious and agreable preparation ever offered to the world as a cure for Habitual Constipation, Biliousness, Indigestion and kindred ills, has been won by the wise plan pursued by the California Fig Syrup company. Knowing that one remedy truly beneficial in its effects on the system, and at the same time pleasant to the taste, will meet with a rapid sale, the Company, through its agent for Astoria, W. E. Dement & Co., gives away sample bottles free of charge. Try it and judge for yourself. Large bottles fifty cents or one dollar.

YOUNG MEN!—READ THIS.

THE VOLTAIC BELT CO., of Marshall, Mich., offer to send their celebrated ELECTRO-VOLTAIC BELT and other ELECTRIC APPLIANCES on trial for thirty days, to men (young or old) afflicted with nervous debility, loss of vitality and manhood, and all kindred troubles. Having Admitted the Strength of the Evidence a Prominent Physician takes Logical Action.

The following letter tells its own story. The signature will be recognized as that of the Physician-in-Chief of the De Quincy Home, and author of "Drugs That Enslave," "The Hypodermic Injection of Morphine," A Manual of Nursing," and many other popular and valuable special medical works:

191 WEST TENTH STREET, NEW YORK, August 19, 1880.

MESSRS. SEABURY & JOHNSON,

Gentlemen:—Like most of my profession, I am cautious about pinning my faith to any new medicine or curative agent. But your BENSON'S CAPCINE POROUS PLASTER has broken through the barriers and won its way to my good opinion. My attention was first called to it some eight months ago by a patient of mine Although I was well acquainted with the superior excellence of your other plaster and antiseptic dressing, made especially for the profession, the Benson's was comparatively new to me. I had heard, however, of its merits as a remedy, in cases of Lame Back, Local Rheumatism, Neuralgia, Congestion of the Bronchial Tubes and Lungs, Dyspepsia, Torpid Liver and the like affections, and have since begun to experiment with it personally. I find BENSON'S CAPCINE PLASTER an exceptionally cleanly plaster to use, and rapid in its action.

Many tests of its qualities, made in my own family and among my patients have convinced me that there is no single article so valuable for popular use, nor so helpful in the diseases I have named.

Should you desire to do so, you may use my name to that effect.

Very truly yours,
H. H. KANE, A. M., M. D.

The genuine have the word CAPCINE cut in the center. Price 25 cents.
