CITY AND COUNTY OFFICIAL PAPER.

Chinese fishermen for Alaska are at a premium in San Francisco.

Three crazy males were brought up from Fort Canby yesterday to be shed.

The Jewish festival of Passover commences this evening and continues a week.

A fine, large wharf is being built in the rear of the gas works, which will reach to the channel.

The moon will be full at 4:24 tomorrow morning, and some men who stay out that late are also liable to be full.

A codfish is said to lay 9,440,000 eggs at one sitting. The man who can cross a codfish with a hen will get rich.

A large scow loaded with cotton wood goes up Young's river this morning to be made into pulp for paper at the mill.

There was a big race on the Sound last Sunday between the steamers Olympian and City of Kingston. The former won.

The lumbermen's exchange at Portland includes eight mills there, three at Vancouver, and six at other points on the Columbia river.

The piles have nearly all been driven for the new building which is to be erected on Third street next west of the new Young building.

The Astoria Loan and Building association at their monthly meeting held Wednesday evening loaned out $2,000 at 66 months interest.

It is particularly requested that no one molest or interfere with the Mongolian pheasants recently placed at Olney. If let alone they will do well here.

Next Sunday is Easter Sunday, and there will be services of special interest in the Episcopal church, which is being handsomely trimmed and decorated.

One hundred and fifteen men are now at work at the government jetty. Next week about 50 more will be put on and during the fine weather the work will be rushed.

Yesterday there was filed for record a power of attorney from Diana P. Barrows, in which she authorizes John A. Rannells to sell for her lot 2, block 101, in upper Astoria.

The barber shops of the city, commencing Sunday, April 13, will close at 12 o'clock noon, every Sunday, the proprietors having entered into an agreement to that effect.

In the county clerk's office yesterday a paper was filed in which Carrie M. Lewis gives E. C. Lewis a full power of attorney to transact any and all business for her in the purchase or sale of real estate.

Last evening quite a number of invited guests from this city went down to Fort Stevens on the steamer Electric to attend a party at Kindred's, in honor of the opening of the new life-saving station.

A note made in Albany fifteen to eighteen years ago for $45, and compounded two or three times, has just been settled by the payment of about $165, there having been previously paid about $10.

Yesterday a man named A. Roberts, was arrested on a charge of stealing a coat and vest from one O. Erickson. The accused was brought before justice May and released on $20 bail to appear this morning for trial.

A family in Whatcom, not liking the taste of the water they were drawing from their ninety-foot deep well, sent a man down to inspect the depth. The well was in a tolerably good condition, but a dead Indian was hoisted out.

Yesterday afternoon a large wagon heavily loaded with wood while going on Fourth street across Main, broke through the planking, and considerable prying had to be done to enable the wagon to proceed.

In the police court yesterday, Frank Hayes, who had been charged with vagrancy failed to appear before judge Jewett, and the ten big dollars he had deposited for his appearance were ordered transferred to the city exchequer.

Seaside Lodge, No. 12, A. O. U. W., bids fair to win the gold medal offered by the grand master for the lodge initiating the most members before the meeting of the grand lodge in July. Their principal competitor is the lodge in Baker City.

This is Good Friday, the most solemn fast day in the calendar of the church. The darkened sanctuaries and the somber chants of to-day commemorate the death of Christ; the triumphant chorus and brilliantly decked altars of Sunday, his resurrection.

Postmaster Gray was to have taken charge of the postoffice here on the 1st instant, but a mistake was made in filling out his bond, and another one his been properly made out and forwarded. It may therefore be two or three weeks longer that postmaster Bell will hold the fort, though he is ready to vacate as soon as his successor is qualified.

The Democratic primaries will be held on the 12th inst. and the Democratic county convention on the 18th. The convention will elect seven delegates to the Democratic state convention. The apportionment of delegates is as follows: Astoria, 34; Clatsop, 2; Seaside, 2; Lewis and Clarke, 2; Young's River, 4; Mishawaka, 2; Fishhawk, 2; Vesper, 2; Westport, 2; Clifton, 2; Knappa, 2; Bear Creek, 3; John Day's, 2; total, 61.

The transfer of troops at Fort Canby will be made about the first of next month. Colonel Piper, Senior-Major Wildrick, Batteries B, C, D, F, K, M and the band will be stationed at the Presidio. Lieutenant-Colonel Lodor, in command of Batteries A and I, will be stationed at Alcatraz island. Battery H, in command of Captain Fessenden, will be stationed at Fort Mason. Batteries E and L will be located at Fort Canby in command of Junior-Major McCrea.

Cruise of the "Bessie Rutter."

The sealing schooner Bessie Rutter, Capt. Henry Olsen, master, arrived in yesterday afternoon. The Bessie Rutter is the only one of the sealing fleet owned in this city. She came in for supplies and water, and will go out again in a few days.

Capt. Olsen reports that he left Victoria on February 10, and with the exception of being storm bound for a week at Port Angeles had not been on shore since leaving. He has been along the coast, as far south as 45 15 off the Rogue River, and has 55 seal skins aboard.

None of the sealing fleet has done much this season, so far, but better luck is expected later on. He has 13 men aboard, and four boats, and after provisioning will spread his sails for the northern coast.

The mode of catching the seals is as follows: The men are detailed in boats, two to row and one to kill. They are given their course and the schooner stands off and on, ready to afford assistance and pick the boats up. A sleeping seal is approached and shot, the intent being to shoot it in the head. The captured seal is taken to the vessel and skinned; the carcass is useless, being almost wholly uneatable except the liver and brains. The skin is pickled for about twelve days, when it can be rolled up and put anywhere that is cool and dry. The principal market is Victoria, where the green skins bring from $7 to $8 apiece.

"Damon and Pythias," on The 19th.

One of the most beautiful legends in history is the familiar one of Damon and Pythias, and it continues to be quoted, because it cannot be improved. On the 19th of this month the beautiful play will be presented in this city for the benefit of the widow's and orphan's fund of the order of Knights of Pythias.

The cast is as follows:

Damon.....A. A. Cleveland.
Pythias.....Geo. Noland.
Dionysius.....F. H. Surprenant.
Damocles.....Jas. McComber.
Philistius.....Herman Wise.
Procles.....J. Boyer.
Lucullus.....Miss Kate Shively.
Calanthe.....Miss Minnie Cleveland.
Hermione.....Miss Elmira Hawthorne.
Arria.....Miss Lena Spellmeier.
Child of Damon. Miss Emma Hamilton.

Rumors of Lynching.

Late last night a rumor was rife on the street that there had been a wild time at Bay Center, and that Rose and his son, Edwards and Gibbons had been lynched by the infuriated people.

Another rumor was that five were lynched, including Jones and the four above named.

It was said that George Rose and Jack Edwards had made a full confession, acknowledging that they and their accomplices had not only killed Fredrickson and wife but the other missing parties who had formerly filed on the ranch.

This confession was said to have been made in open court yesterday, during the examination, and that then the people lynched the whole gang.

It is evidently an entire fabrication, but it would not be strange if a similar event should occur later.

Valuable Discovery Across the River.

A resident of Pacific county, Washington, has been making discoveries which are liable to lead to something valuable being found in that locality. From the samples brought to this office, and his statements, he has evidently found some very valuable sandstone, which is of a superior quality, susceptible of a high polish. If he can find it in sufficient quantity it will prove fortunate enough for him.

Other rock found indicate the close proximity of copper and of gold bearing quartz. Further researches will at once be made and the locality thoroughly prospected, and it is very likely that the work will prove successful.

Catholic Easter Services.

At St. Mary's Roman Catholic church, solemn high mass will be sung on Easter Sunday. The mass rendered on that occasion will be Le Jeal's Fourth Mass. The choir, which is an efficient one, has received many encomiums for its proficiency in rendering sacred music. The sopranos are Miss Kate Feely, Miss Mary Feely and Lizzie McCann; the altos are Miss Katie Grant, Miss Mollie Foster, Miss Katie McCue and Miss Josephine Leinenweber; the tenor is R. Cearns, and the bass singers are Thos. Jones and Morgan Feely, Miss Hattie Bitely, organist.

To Expedite the Mail Service.

WASHINGTON, April 2.— Representative Hermann to day presented to the postmaster general the request of the Astoria chamber of commerce, for an improvement in the river mail service between that city and Portland, so as to conform to the following schedule, recommended:

Leave Astoria daily at 6 A. M.; arrive in Portland daily at 3 P. M. leave Portland daily at 6 A. M., arrive at Astoria daily at 3 P. M. Night service to leave Astoria each night at 8 P. M. and arrive at Portland at 6 A. M. the following morning; leave Portland each night at 10 P. M. and arrive at Astoria at 8 A. M. the next day.

G. A. R. Entertainment.

Billy Arlington, the original of minstrel fame, has arranged to give a joint benefit at the opera house Monday evening for Cushing's post and the Women's Relief corps. Mr. Arlington will be assisted by Virgie Bunell, the handsome soubrette, Baby Arlington, the wonderful child elocutionist, and a host of our best home talent, making one of the best entertainments of the season. The recent entertainments given by the Arlingtons at Portland met with favor, and two hours of solid, refined funny fun is promised.

At the Bazaar, a full line of the latest dress goods. Sateens a specialty.

SOME SALMON SURMISES.

Talks With Practical Men on The Situation.

LITTLE LIFE YET MANIFESTED.

"Anything new in the salmon situation?" asked an ASTORIAN reporter yesterday of a canner. "Nothing," was the reply; "I don't see steam issuing from a single cannery. George & Barker got a few fish in the early part of the week, but they haven't packed a hundred cases. There are not twenty boats out, and so far, practically nothing has been done. Even Wm. Hume, who usually has the first shipment of spring salmon for the season, from the river, is reported to be doing nothing, though it's likely that he has a few boats out with 10½ inch mesh nets, and has landed a few 50 pounders, with their noses smashed as his trade mark. Even if he were to pay $1.25, they wouldn't cost him three cents a pound, for he has no use for any but big fellows."

Inquiry from other sources elicited similar answers.

There is no difference of opinion between the fishermen and the cannerymen. The trouble lies solely in the business situation. The canners concede that if all the boats run, the fishermen can't make living wages at even $1.25 a fish: the fishermen concede that at prevailing prices the canners can't afford to pay $1.25, but claim, with great truth, that high as that price appears, it doesn't afford them more than a living.

There is really no "setting" of the price. The price will set itself this season. Last year, as in previous Aprils, the fishermen's union set the price of salmon at $1.25, and straightway some of the canneries began bidding against each other to secure men, and offering bonuses of free boats, free lines and in some cases free board, this giving the men more than they demanded. For the same reason the canneries would this year pay as much as it is possible for them to pay and come out even at the end of the season.

It is desirable that the canneries should have the fish, and desirable for the fishermen to furnish the "raw material", and for this reason the interests of both are identical.

The canneries say they cannot pay more than 75 cents; that it is crowding things to pay even that; they are heavily handicapped by the Alaska and other outside packs, by the cheap methods of securing fish at the Cascades by means of fishwheels, and are compelled to keep in view the markets and the invariable relation of supply and demand in disposing of the manufactured article.

To THE ASTORIAN it appears that it would be better for both cannerymen and fishermen to limit the number of boats on the lower Columbia, to, say, 500. These 500 could get as many salmon as if there were 1,500, and those that did fish would have a chance of making something like good wages; preference to be given to resident fisherman.

There are 1,000 men here, citizens of Oregon and Washington, bona fide residents, who could thus make a remunerative season. If the usual number of boats are out this season, none of them will make anything. There are just so many salmon to be caught, and the more they are divided among the fewer will be each one's share.

This would also be better for the canners; it would be less expensive for them in a variety of ways, and would be more financially satisfactory all round.

It is believed that it will come to that, and if the union were to arrive at that conclusion to-morrow and make a request of the canners to scale down the number of boats, that such a demand would be readily acceded to by the canners.

The union has issued a circular asking the fishermen all along the river not to accept any lower terms than $1.25 a fish.

The present situation is lifeless, but the matter will work itself out during the present month and fish will be ready to can whenever the canners are ready to take them.

Social Party.

There was a social party at the residence of Mrs. G. W. Rucker last Wednesday evening, the principal source of amusement being progressive halma and fishing. Among those present were Miss. Jennie Aram, Josie Bryce, E. Z. Ferguson, Daisy Goodell, R. G. Prael, Georgia Badollet, T. S. Trullinger, Minnie Sherman, Albert Dunbar, Nellie Levings J. P. Hynes, Nora Nickerson, H. L. Stokes, Myra Stevens, W. A. Sherman, F. P. Young, Maggie Burns, H. S. McGowan, Clara Owen, H. D. Thing, May Hobson, A. L. Fox, Rozetta Sherman, J. A. Cook. Mrs. McKenzie, R. F. Rucker, Mr. and Mrs. H. F. Prael, P. S. Cook, Harry Cribb.

Among the ladies Miss Rozetta Sherman got the first prize, Miss Minnie Sherman the "booby" prize. Among the gents, A. L. Fox got the first prize and H. L. Stokes the "booby" ticket.

The Athletic Club Rooms.

An ASTORIAN reporter yesterday visited the rooms now being fitted up for the use of the athletic club. They are situated in the second story of the old Geo. W. Hume building. Raised seats are being put in all around the room to seat 300 people. A new center floor twenty-four feet square has been put in. Beams for trapeze and swinging rings are being put up, also a director's room, dressing and bath rooms and water closets were being put in. A new stairway has been built and a partition put up so as to keep the crowd from rushing up stairs. Almost everything has been done, that can be, until the gymnasium appliances arrive, when they will be put in position and the club rooms will be opened. Liddicoat & Crib are doing the carpenter work and Allen & Simpson the paint work.

A Fine Instrument.

Some time ago Dr. Aug. C. Kinney told the Y. W. C. T. U. that if they would have some of the members of that organization learn to play the cornet at their meetings he would furnish one. It was agreed, and yesterday the instrument arrived from Boston. It is of pure silver, remarkably sweet in tone, and has been tuned to accompany the piano, forming a valuable adjunct to the musical resources of the organization.

MARINE NEWS AND NOTES.

The steamer Fisher is at the dock, foot of Lafayette street, and is to be overhauled and repaired.

The schooner Norma sailed yesterday for San Francisco, lumber laden from the West Shore mills.

The little steamer C. W. Rich yesterday brought in nearly fifty Chinamen who have been working on the railroad near Young's bay.

The Cascades brought down three barges loaded with rock yesterday for the jetty. Capt. Whitcomb is making a round trip now every twenty-four hours.

The new steamer Suomi has returned from Portland, and is nearly ready for placing on the line between this city and Ilwaco. She will be commanded by Capt. Petit.

The Newspaper Reporter.

In the old days an editor called a man a chicken thief, now-a-days the reporter finds the feathers in his backyard. The weapon of the old time editor was the epithet; that of the modern reporter is the evidence. What the editor used to assert the reporter now proves.

If the people who complain of what the reporter writes of them would only consider what he does not write about them, they would enshrine him in the dearest corner of their hearts. The waste baskets of a daily newspaper in any town do more to keep its citizens in good repute than any other agency except the fear of the law and the hereafter. Not all that a reporter writes is true. He is not infallible himself, and of those who are the source of his information many are less so. There are very many men who can not tell a straight story. The man who tells the story to the reporter is usually an interested party. He has a purpose to serve in metamorphosing this or suppressing that. The reporter has no desire except to get the truth accurately and completely, and to write it quickly and entertainingly.

All men do not love the reporter. The fear and hatred of bad men is a chaplet above his brows. It is the assurance of his honesty to his badge of honor as a servant of truth. If a time ever comes when all men love the reporter it will be time to bury him.

Merit Wins.

We desire to say to our citizens that for years we have been selling Dr. King's New Discovery for Consumption, Dr. King's New Life Pills, Bucklen's Arnica Salve and Electric Bitters, and have never handled remedies that sell as well, or that have given such universal satisfaction. We do not hesitate to guarantee them every time, and we stand ready to refund the purchase price, if satisfactory results do not follow their use. These remedies have won their great popularity purely on their merits. J. W. COSS, Druggist.

To the Ladies.

Rains There Perpetually.

D. R. Parkman tells of a curious phenomenon in Chattahoochee county—a place where rain falls perpetually. The spot is located on a little knoll in a thin wood on the Shipp place, two miles from Thad. Mr. Parkman says the discovery was made last Thursday, and that rain has been falling steadily on the knoll since that time. The downfall covers a space of fifty feet square. This space is perfectly wet, and the leaves on the ground are full of water. Mr. Parkman says he visited the place with G. A. McBryde at noon Tuesday. There was not a cloud to be seen in the sky, and the leaves everywhere, except on the square, were as dry as tinder.

"I stood with the space between me and the sun," said Mr. Parkman, "and saw the raindrops coming steadily down from the sky. I held out my handkerchief and it was soon saturated with water."

Mr. Parkman says that everybody who hears about the phenomenon is skeptical, but that the many who have visited the place in the last few days have gone away convinced. No one has yet offered an explanation of the mysterious rainfall. Mr. Parkman suggests that some powerful unknown substance attracts the moisture from the atmosphere.—Savannah News.

A QUAKER'S DOZEN.

Richard Stege, the well known proprietor of the Quaker Dairy, No. 29 Ellis St., San Francisco, last week sent the following letter to the Edwin W. Joy Co. "My family have been taking Joy's Vegetable Sarsaparilla now for months with splendid results. Our experience has been that after taking it regularly for a short time and getting the system started right, an occasional dose thereafter keeps the system in perfect condition. A peculiarity of your vegetable compound is, that it does not lose its effect, but seems to accomplish the same results continually. As a liver and bowel regulator and corrective it is perfection. We would not be without it. In fact I have just bought a dozen bottles to get the reduced price." A. M. Rowe of 52½ Jones street, S. F., also writes that it has been his habit for years to awake in the mornings with a headache and an exhausted feeling; but since the first bottle he has had no return.
