MOLALLA.

Most delightful weather for mid-winter.

Plowing has begun again.

Much sickness is abroad in the land.

George Ogle is still slowly improving, but not yet out of danger.

F. H. Duncan is up from his severe spell of sickness.

J. W. Thomas has been wrestling with pneumonia for a week or more.

C. S. Hermen is setting out an orchard these fine days.

E. K. Dart and L. B. Teullinger have been grubbing out a few acres of land this winter.

The Oregon City road just north of town is something terriffic.

The Molalla Mutial Telephone Asociation is growing; last week another division was added. The Mulino people are the folks this time that you will soon hear from. J. R. Cole, vice president of the association attended a meeting at Mulino, securing a dozen members to our ranks from that locality, who have constructed their division line into the Molalla switch-board. Marquam has built to Molalla, has installed some 25 phones, but no switch-board yet, so it is very unpleasant talking to all of them at once. New Era has organized a mutual to connect with us through Canby and gone right into business.

Molalla Assembly No. 82, United Artisans closed its contest last Saturday night with a membership roll of osme seventy-five. It must have been truly an "Add Fellows" night for the "adds" won out in the contest by over two hundred points and now all that the "evens" have to do is to banquet the winning "odds." Miss Gibson was captain of the "Japps" that showed the "Rusians" how to move.

Saturday, February 4, was a fraternal day for Molalla Grange was in session through the day and at night the Artisans and I. O. O. F. lodges held forth in their respective halls. Mr. C. I. Gipson made and presented the new I. O. O. F. lodge with a new locker. Mr. W. O. Vaughn furnished the lumber for the same sawed from timber grown on his farm.

Dr. J. J. Leavitt is laid up with pneumonia.

Prof. J. J. Clark went to Oregon City this week to take teachers' examination and serve on a committee of the Lewis & Clark county exhibit.

MARQUAM.

Mrs. Miller is slowly recovering from her sickness.

Grandpa Barth died very suddenly at the home of his son Sunday. He will be buried in the Miller cemetery Wednesday, February 8th.

Mrs. Crandall expects to return home at Turner this week. She was called to Marquam to attend her sick mother, Mrs. J. P. Miller.

Mr. J. Barth's sale was held yesterday and everything brought good prices. He sold 100 hens which brought $6.90 per dozen.

Mr. Willard Newton's baby has been ill but at present is improving.

The Epworth League of this place met at Mr. Allen Jack's last night.

Mr. Willard Stevens and family visited at the home of Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Marquam last Sunday.

Miss Pearl Leabo, the teacher, was sick with la grippe two days last week.

Mr. Bert Hibbard was quite sick last week with la grippe.

UNION HALL.

Mrs. L. G. Riggs and Mrs. C. Parker called on Mrs. Corbet one day this week.

School closed here last Friday, February 3rd.

Miss Dora Briggs who has been working in Portland, visited her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Briggs.

Mr. and Mrs. A. L. Jones and Miss Lillian Gans were the guests of Mr. J. H. Burns and family last Sunday.

There will be a dance in Metropolitan Hall, February 22, 1905. Good music will be a special feature of the evening. Supper will be served at the hall. A large dining hall will be built and will be ready by the 22nd. Everybody cordially invited to attend and all are assured a good time. Metropolitan hall is situated four miles east of Canby and near James Adkin's sawmill.

Mrs. Jack Webb of Portland intends to spend the summer with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. H. S. C. Phelps.

Miss Mary Molzan visited her sister, Mrs. Orrin Adkins of Mulino last Saturday.

Louie Toedmeyer of Stafford is visiting his aunt, Mrs. James Wilkerson of this place.

SMYONA.

A chinook wind with an Oregon mist would be preferable to this wintry weather.

A. L. Yorder was at the county seat last Friday ordering some additional machinery for the saw mill here.

Miss Nan Schwartz went to Portland last Friday to spend a week or so in the metropolis.

Miss Edna Conrad made a trip to Sellwood on Friday of last week to visit her friends, the Blassers, of that place.

O. P. Yoder, who has a position as letter carrier in the metropolis was up to see the home folks a week ago yesterday.

We notice in the rural delivery items in last week's Courier, that their sawmill man is turning away unfilled orders, if he will kindly turn them our way their wants will be attended to. The mill here has orders ahead, but not to the turning away point.

R. E. Yoder has gone to Portland and is thinking some of taking a position in a barber shop. Ralph is as proficient with the razor and shears as many a one horse barber who has his certificate in a gilt frame in full view of all his customers. We know whereof we speak.

Joe Schwartz has the lumber on the ground for a new woodshed—the wood without the shed seems more essential in this wintry weather.

A. J. Yoder, who has been ailing all winter, is not improving as fast as his many friends would wish.

WHEN YOU CATCH COLD

Do not take chances on it wearing away or experiment with some unknown preparation which will only half cure it at best, and leave the bronchial tubes and lungs weakened and susceptible to attack from the germs of Consumption.

FOLEY'S HONEY AND TAR not only stops the cough but heals and strengthens the lungs and prevents serious results from a cold.

It Saved His Life After the Doctor Said He Had Consumption.

W. R. Davis, Vissalia, California, writes:—"There is no doubt but what FOLEY'S HONEY AND TAR saved my life. I had an awful cough on my lungs and the doctor told me I had consumption. I commenced taking FOLEY'S HONEY AND TAR and found relief from the first and three bottles cured me completely.
